SHOP EARLY AND DO

Postoffice Department Sees as Much Reason for the Latter as for the First-Working Employes Almost to Death On Christmas Day Not Relished-Ship a Week or Ten Days Before 25th

Shop early-and mail early.

Postmaster LaRoque today exhibited big placards received at the postoffice from the department, calling upon the patrons to "wrap securely." address plainly and mail early articles intended for Christmas gifts. If necessary, the packages can be markd "Not to be opened until Christmas." A gift of almost any size can be mailed to a point within a reasonable radius of Kinston, and a gift such as the average person is apt to send can be mailed to any place in the country.

Last Christmas day the postoffice force, with extra help, worked practically the entire day on the Christmas stuff. Carriers sloughed around all day in the most disagreeable Christmas weather in many years. They didn't have to do it, but are, as everybody in Kinston knows, an accommodating lot.

There is no telling when the officials higher up are going to issue an order forbidding the like. The Postoffice Department, be it known, is not SOW RYE, OATS OR altogether neglectful of its employes, and it may take a notion not to allow them to work themselves almost to death on the holiday of holidays.

Why can't it be done? Ship a Christmas gift a week ahead, or even ten days ahead. Then, if it arrives a day or two ahead of time there will be no harm done. Invoke the conscience of the recipient not to open until on Christmas Day; write it plainly on which the general public is ignorant. It should take thought and have consideration for the fellows who would above, it might be by some chance that belated presents won't be delivered on Christmas.
