

HUGHES VIOLATING HIGH PRINCIPLE BY RUNNING, HE THINKS

Rep. Murray Says Justice Will Bring Court Into Disrepute

ATTACK BY OKLAHOMAN

Such a Precedent Tends to Make It Training School For Candidates, Declares. Ought to Be Free From Politics

(By the United Press)

Washington, June 8.—Representative Murray of Oklahoma today slashingly attacked Justice Hughes' candidacy in the House as violative of the American rule that the courts must be kept free from politics.

He declared the precedent that Hughes has set is bound to bring the Supreme Court into disrepute, and make it a training ground for candidates. He said Hughes' speech in the National Cathedral School was hailed as a keynote speech indicating his candidacy. He stated that the reactionary press would be aroused instantly if an attempt was made to boom Brandeis while he is on the bench.

KINSTON TO HAVE A RACE MEET ON JUNE 29---MANY ENTRIES

Knox, Mitchell, Webb, Martin and Fields Promoting Event for Lovers of Horse Flesh—Purses Aggregating $500

(Daily Free Press, June 8)

Kinstonians and lovers of horse flesh throughout this section will be treated to the "sport" on the afternoon of June 29, when three fast races will be pulled off at the Kinston fair grounds.

The aggregate purses will be $500—two races for a purse of $200 and one for $100. W. C. Knox, W. A. Mitchell, W. C. Fields, E. V. Webb and T. H. Martin are the promoters and guarantors. The program is now in preparation and advertising matter is being gotten ready to be sent throughout the district. Probably thirty-five or forty horses will be sent here to compete for the money. Assurances already have been had that a score would be entered.

This will be the second racing event, aside from the Fair races, to be staged in Kinston's new Fair grounds. The first venture was highly successful and served to "initiate" the new grounds most satisfactorily. The promoters of the meet to be held June 29 are confident that their efforts will be equally as well received.

CRAVEN TO IMPROVE ROAD TO JONES CO.

The Trent road from New Bern to the Jones county line is to be paved with Lillington gravel.

"The people of Jones county prefer doing their trading in New Bern, and since Trenton, the county-seat of Jones, is about as near to Kinston as it is to New Bern, the county (Craven) must offer to the people of that county good roads in order to get them to come to this city," says the New Bern Sun-Journal.

PLANTER FELLED BY GIANT HAIL STONE

Lexington, June 6.—A severe hail storm visited the northern-central section of Davidson county late today, doing considerable damage to crops, especially wheat. Lindsay Hinkle, a farmer, is reported to have been knocked down by a hail stone which struck him on the forehead.

TO PUT CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS ON MARKET IN KINSTON FRIDAY

Will Be Possible to Secure Season Admissions Up to Night Before Opening—Summer Festival Opens Next Wednesday

(Daily Free Press, June 8)

Tickets for the coming Chautauqua will go on sale Friday. The following, who will make a canvass for subscribers for season cardboards, comprise the ticket committee: E. Y. Speed, chairman; W. Ed. Parrott, T. V. Moseley, R. E. Mewborn, J. C. Hood, W. D. Hood, Misses Leah Oettinger, Susie Perry, Margaret Goodson and Ann Hyman Harvey.

Season tickets will be available until the night of the 13th. Chautauqua starts on the 14th—next Wednesday. The public is asked to cooperate with the guarantors and be liberal in ticket purchases. The persons who affixed their signatures to the guarantee were prompted by public-spiritedness; they stand to lose if the public does not cooperate; therefore the public should help its share.

Dr. Lincoln Wirt, Arctic explorer, and the Choir Boys, youthful singers, will be on the first day's program.

Greenville, New Bern, Washington and other neighboring cities will be holding chautauqua simultaneously with Kinston.

PORTRAIT OF RAMSEUR PRESENTED TO STATE

Raleigh, June 8.—A portrait of the late Maj.-General Stephen Ramsey, Confederate States Army, was presented to the State yesterday. The exercises were held in the Supreme Court room. Chief Justice Clark made the address. Secretary of State Grimes accepted the picture. It was the gift of Miss Mary D. Ramsey, a daughter of the subject.

NEW BERN DESIRES CONNECTION WITH A. C. L. IN PITT COUNTY

Chamber of Commerce of Lower Neuse City Wants Line to Link Kinston and Weldon Branch With the Road There

(Daily Free Press, June 7)

At a meeting of the New Bern Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night Owen G. Dunn suggested that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad be asked to build a line from that city to Grifton, to connect with the Weldon-Kinston road, according to today's Morning New Bernian. The A. C. L. "had previously agreed to build when business picked up," it was said.

A committee—the same that will represent New Bern at the State Good Roads convention at Wrightsville Beach this month—will call on the A. C. L. officials at headquarters in Wilmington.

LETTERS OF ORPET AND MISS LAMBERT ARE READ IN COURT

Reveal In Succession Infatuation, Love, Cooling Ardor and Dread of Results of Illicit Relations—The State's Claim

Waukegan, Ill., June 8.—Love letters which Will Orpet wrote Marion Lambert, his sweetheart, for whose murder he is on trial, were today barred in court. The State introduced as its strongest contention the allegation that Orpet murdered the girl to prevent the disclosure of illicit love.

The letters ran through a gamut of infatuation, love, cooling passions and calculation of consequences. Realty Transfers. Oliver Halason to W. D. LaRogue, lot in Lowry's Alley, $400. Alex. Swenson and wife to H. C. Hines, lot on Tower Hill Road, $300.

TRIED TO READ HIS LITTLE SAY IN THE HOUSE; GOT PINCHED

(Special to The Free Press) Washington, June 7.—Baynes N. Westcott of New York, claiming he had been shadowed by sleuths for no rightful reason, tried to read a resolution in the House yesterday from a gallery in which he stood. He was arrested. Westcott had been unable to locate a Congressman he intended to submit the document to, and proceeded to read it himself. He claimed it was his constitutional right. Speaker Clark had to rap for order in the House. The resolution demanded an investigation of the Federal secret service.

Nothing To Be Added To The Maxwell

YOU will never want to add anything to your Maxwell. The purchase price includes everything you will ever need or desire for luxurious motoring.

You won't want to disguise the hood or buy a new body or put in another carburetor or ignition system or install electric lights or a self-starter.

You won't want a new radiator or springs or new spark plugs or shock-absorbers or a new top.

You need add nothing for comfort, reliability, beauty, economy or convenience. If it is a Maxwell, your car, your experience and your investment are complete.

That is the way that Maxwells are designed, manufactured and sold.

Question the owners of other motor cars—any other motor cars—and see if they are equally satisfied with their motoring investment.
