Goldsboro, Aug. 25.-Counsel's speeches are being heard in the Epstein case this afternoon ,Eleven are to be made. The jury will not get the case before Saturday afternoon, probably.

Goldsboro, Aug. 25 .- Miss Judith Edwards, on the stand in the trial of Hyman Epstein, charged with the murder of Miss Edwards' brother, Leonard Edwards, Thursday afternoon, sprung the big sensation of the case when she bore out the statement of the defendant that the victim had accosted and cursed him. Miss Edwards was Epstein's fiancee when the killing occurred a few months ago; he had been ordered by Edwards not to come to the house.

Attractive Judith Edwards stated that she had telephoned Epstein to come to the Edwards home, and that she was in the yard when her brothsaid on the stand that Edwards, the larger man of the two, had manhandled him. Miss Edwards did not witness the shooting.

Miss Mary Wooten told of passing the Edwards home and hearing curses and a pistol shot. There were two men standing in semi-darkness. One had on a light suit. She saw the man in the light suit, his hands over his heart, standing in the street after the shot. The other man stood at the edge of the sidewalk.

Friday Sustains Its Record As Big Sales Day On Local Tobacco Market-400.000 Lbs.

Any estimate at this writing of the tobacco break on the Kinston market today is but guesswork. These guesses run from two hundred and fifty thousand to half million pounds. The Free Press puts the figures be-tween three fifty and four hundred thousand. The prices show no indication of falling. In the opinion of some the grades throughout the sales today would not average up to those on some previous days, when the sales were much smaller, and for that reason the average price might not be the highest of the season. This is merely speculative. and it is conservative to say that prices were entirely satisfying and in many instances exceeded what the selle expected. The first sales consumed most of the morning and the dinner halt was taken in the midst of the s ales; it will be well on in the afternoon before the third and last sale of the day is concluded. Friday is always a big day on the market and the quantity today was more than double any previous day of the present season. Good breaks are expected daily from now on and by the end of the coming week it will not be surprising if the "criers'" voices don't begin to "feel the effects" of the day's work,
