H. S. Robinson & Co. want to show you the best line of goods ever brought to Lincoln. See ad.

Let us have better sidewalks. There is no reason why we can't have them. Suppose the authorities enforce the law.

No half hearted campaign will carry Lincoln this fall. Let everybody go to work for Jack Reinhardt and the whole ticket.

The jail, left vacant by the removal of J. T. DeLane to the country was taken charge of Friday last by R. M. Beal.

The County is building a new bridge at D. E. Rhyne's factory. W. W. Motz has the contract, and will soon have the job completed.

Ool. O. H. Dockery has resigned as the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor. The Rads did not get a chance to take him down.

Alfred Hobbs, who lives near town died Friday, and was buried Saturday. He was 89 years old, and a member of the Methodist church for 40 years.

S. L. Townsend, of Colorado, will soon take charge of the Rhodes gold mine, Gaston county, near where the C. & L. R. R. crosses the South Fork river.

The County commissioners met Monday and transacted the regular routine of business. No matters of special importance were up for consideration.

The editor of this paper has nothing personally against Rhodes & Co. They are not, however, the kind of people to hold office, and this paper is bold to say so.

We hear the Republican County Convention comes off here Saturday. It was advertised for last Monday, but the date was changed for some cause. Why?

Freight rates from Baltimore and Washington over the S. A. L. to Lincoln and other points reached by said system have been cut 50%, to take effect Sept 12th.

A special train will take those to Charlotte who wish to hear Bryan on the 17th. The hour of the speaking and the arrival of train here will be announced by posters.

There is no better man in Lincoln county than B. C. Wood. If you do not vote for him, you will have a poor way of proving your friendship for honest government.

Every precinct in the County should organize a Democratic Club at once! If you want to put Lincoln county in good hands for the next two years, it is high time to begin work.

David Yoder, one of the oldest men in Catawba county, died last Saturday and was buried Sunday at Theological Baptist Church, of which he was a member. He was 97 years old.

Mr. Robert A. Duncan, a grocer doing business at 211 East Trade street, made an assignment last night for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. R. H. Field is the assignee. Mr. Duncan assigns his stock, notes, accounts, etc.—Charlotte News, Sept. 5th.

The sidewalks on some of the streets of Lincolnton are worse than bad. The walk leading to Piedmont Seminary is almost impassable. It is about time to fix up the sidewalks, or repeal the law, as it now stands. Let us have better sidewalks.

F. H. Turner, Mgr. of the Lincoln Foundry went to Chester Monday evening to make arrangements with C. & L. R. Co., looking to the bringing of their locomotive repair department here. He tells us that indications of such change are quite favorable.

Gen. Earle has defeated John Gary Evans for United States Senator in the South Carolina primaries held Tuesday. Earle's majority is over 5000. A large vote was polled and much interest was manifested. Senator Tillman openly espoused Evans' candidacy.

Ephraim Carpenter, of Cherryville shot himself Monday. An officer was in the act of arresting him to carry him to Dallas jail for deserting his wife and six children, when Carpenter drew his pistol and shot himself, perhaps fatally, rather than go to jail.

Dr. Crowell, whose death is noted elsewhere, was born in Union county, N. C., in 1829. He studied medicine under the late Dr. A. J. Fox, of this county. He married Miss Beatrice Lowrance, daughter of ex-Sheriff Lowrance. To them were born 10 children.

Sheriff Rhodes and others make a statement in this issue. We print their statement as we received it. We have often referred to the incompetence of some of our fusion officeholders, and their statement in regard to DeLane's charges is additional proof.

Albert Jarrett, formerly of Catawba county, was recently killed by a railroad train out in Minnesota. A letter was found on his person from Miss Lily Kistler, of Catawba county, which led to the identification of Jarrett, who carried an accident insurance policy.

Mat Childs and Andrew Jackson, both colored, "scrapped" in Ringdom the latter part of last week. Mat used a fire shovel on Jackson. The case was tried before Mayor Saine Friday, and Mat was bound over to court. The pugilistic woman is the wife of Jim Childs, colored.

We clip the following from the Muddy Creek items of the Morganton Herald of last week: "Mr. Ed. Whitener and Misses Lillie Shuford and Dora Lowe, of Catawba county, Mr. Jake Ramsaur of Lincoln, and Miss Bertha Little, of Caldwell, visited Mr. Sam Tate's family last week. The visitors, with several of the young folks of the Creek, attended a picnic at Oak Grove given by Mr. W. W. Sorrels and his school.

The Charlotte Observer, of Tuesday, made the following editorial announcement: "It is a great pleasure to the Observer to be able to announce definitely that Mr. Bryan will arrive in Charlotte on Wednesday night of next week, the 16th, and speak here the following morning, the 17th. We make this announcement upon authority, and hereby warn the people in." Special excursions will be run and cheap rates be given. Everybody will go down to hear Bryan, of course.

Dr. Eli Crowell, of Crimsic, died last Friday night, aged over 67 years. He has been a prominent citizen of this county for a number of years, and a very successful physician with an extended practice. He served once in the legislature from this county. The funeral services were held at Zion Church, Sunday by Rev. W. F. Womble, of this place. Paralysis was the cause of Dr. Crowell's death.

MAKE THEIR STATEMENT.

RHODES, YOUNT AND SHRUM SAY A WORD OR TWO.

Mr. Coon DEAR SIR—I send you this. Documents and ask you to examine it and publish. D. L. YOUNT.

Mr. J. T. DeLane after seeing all his hopes for an office blighted turns his vengeance loose upon me to such an extent that it seems if nothing but to smirch my official acts will satisfy his Wrath. He charges me with being in collusion with the County Treasurer with intent to commit a fraud on the county.

I denounce the charge as a Willful and malicious falsehood, and an investigation by the County Commissioners, whose duty it is to investigate this matter, will confirm me in my statement.

I stand ready, waiting and willing for the matter to be investigated at any day.

C. H. RHODES Sheriff Lincoln Co. A TURNS COAT.

Mr. DeLane talks two ways for the Lincoln democrat.

As you allowed Mr. DeLane space in your paper to spit off some of his gall upon Sheriff Rhodes I beg a little space to give you a little item.

I met Mr. DeLane on Aug. the 14th and he said Mr. Rhodes was an honest man and had made us a good Sheriff and he was a Rhodes man.

Mr. DeLane in his article of last week issue thrust at Sheriff Rhodes and myself for the purpose of making us bear the burdens of his disappointment.

I am a populist and have been from the beginning and I see no objection to Mr. Rhodes.

J. L. SHRUM.

FALSE CHARGES.

Mr. J. T. DeLane in his article of last week issue thrust at Sheriff Rhodes and myself for the purpose of making us bear the burdens of his disappointment.

He charges us with being in collusion for the purpose of defrauding the Co. and, adds that a cloud hangs over our heads. This is altogether false and if Mr. DeLane will let his truthful nature (if he has any) come to the front, I would ask no better witness than he to prove my statement.

As for myself I will say that I have guarded the interest of Lincoln County to the best of my ability and ask the public to investigate my record and be the Judge whither I have done it well or not.

As for Sheriff Rhodes I can conscientiously say that I have never saw anything in his settlements with me to arouse the least suspicion but have found him honest and upright in all his business, and a collusion was never hinted to me.

I would just remind Mr. DeLane that such charges may serve his degrading purpose and tinkle the ears of an enemy in this world, but when the day comes that falsehoods are used as fuel to mend the fire and truth for decorating crowns, and allthings shall be known as they are the smiles of the enemy whom he shall face in that day shall add no comfort to his soul and it is only to be hoped that this deed will not be more than he can explain away.

I hope Mr. DeLane will think of this when he retires for rest at night.

D. L. YOUNT Treas. of Lincoln Co.

Revenue officers Means and Redmond, with J. H. Bisaner and E. W. Keener made a raid in Gaston county last Friday night, and captured a still in the neighborhood of Lander's Chapel. Moss Eaker had charge. He was brought here Saturday morning and given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner S. P. Sherrill, and went to jail in default of $200 bond required for his appearance at Federal Court. One man escaped.

DAVID YODER.

A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE LATE DAVID YODER, OF CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

David Yoder was a son of David Yoder and his wife Elizabeth, who was the daughter of Adolphus Feib, who was born and lived about two miles west of the beautiful village of Lincolnton on the South Fork River before marriage. His father, David, was the son of Conrad Yoder, who had come to this section from the state of Pennsylvania and settled on Jacob's Fork, where he purchased two hundred acres of land from Henry Weidener in 1762. He married Bostain Klein's daughter, who also came from Pennsylvania. David, the father of the late David, was born in the year 1770 and was the youngest child of his mother, who died in 1770. David married Elizabeth Reib about the year 1794, and they had the following children: Conrad, Adolph, David, Solomon, Eli, Andrew, Betsy, Fannie, Catharine and Sarah.

Conrad, the oldest son, was in the war of 1812, and after peace was restored he went to his uncle, Jacob Yoder's, in the state of Indiana, and there married one of Jacob Yoder's daughters, and after some years removed to Andrew county, Missouri, where he died at the age of about 87 years.

Adolph also was in the war of 1812, and then enlisted in the regular army and all traces of him were lost.

David, the third son, the subject of this biographical sketch, was born on September 22, 1799, about 29 years after his father David was born, and about nine years after the death of his grand father Conrad. He was born on the old homestead of Conrad Yoder on the Jacob's Fork river a few hundred yards south of his grand father's residence. In after years his father sold this farm and his brother John bought it. Then he bought a farm about five miles south on Potts creek.

David married Ruth Wilson, daughter Thomas Wilson and wife Rebecca and had the following children: Elisha, Franklin, Elizabeth Leticia, and Julian. Ruth, his wife, died about 28 years ago. Elisha was a house carpenter and died in South Carolina a single man, about 25 years ago. Franklin died while a youth and was buried at the Wilson grave yard. Leticia died after the birth of her child. Elizabeth and Julian are yet living.

David Yoder was a good, kind hearted man, never in any difficulty, always a law abiding citizen, and connected himself to the Baptist church about 28 years ago. He was always a stout and robust man, never excitable and took the world easy. Never used any tobacco, or intoxicating liquor. He was a good, kind neighbor, and a good citizen. His first presidential vote was cast for Andrew Jackson. He lived in every presidential administration from John Adams down to President Grover Cleveland's Administration. He died on the 5th of September 1896, making his age 96 years, 11 months, and 13 days. He was buried at Theological church, his place of worship, on the 6th of September. A large crowd assembled to see his remains laid to rest to await the general resurrection of the dead. In addition, we would still add a few more words. He had but one grand child and great grand child. He was a plain man in his manner, always dressed plain in home spun clothes. Never lived in high style or luxury, but always plain, with such things as he had. Never over anxious about anything, never complained or murmured about anything, but was always thankful for what God had given him. He never was extravagant, always economical and given to hospitality. He was a plain old German, and lived on Potts Creek where he had a good farm. He died with chills and fever, was sick about two weeks.

G. M. YODER.

Moss Eaker had charge. He was brought here Saturday morning and given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner S. P. Sherrill, and went to jail in default of $200 bond required for his appearance at Federal Court. One man escaped.

LOYD NEWS.

Joseph Brown has fever also. J. P. Beam & Co. will, in the near future, erect a roller mill in this township.

Brother farmers, suppose we do not sell our cotton at 7 cents, but wait till the market fully responds to the size of the crop. Speculators already agree the crop will be seven million bales or less. Some body must have ten or eleven cents for his cotton, and why not that somebody be the farmer?
