We have noticed in several of the State papers, statements of the cost of holding the elections under the new law, and will give a few instances of the comparative cost of holding them under the old Democratic law and the present law. The cost of holding the elections in Mecklenburg is estimated to reach $3,000.00 while the cost of holding under the old law would not exceed $200.00. The cost of serving notices on the board of election in this county to the sheriff and clerk alone—which must be paid by the county—will not fall short of $50.00 and a reasonable and fair estimate of the cost to the county to hold this election will not be less than $300, whereas under the old law it would not have exceeded $50. All counties are in the same condition, cost the tax-payers about 600 per cent more this year than it ever has done before. This is one sample of the last legislature's economy. We also have another sample of the Fred Douglas Legislature's protection of the tax-payers, in the letting of the public printing to the Republican in Winston, instead of the Democratic applicant in Raleigh. The Raleigh correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says on the 18th inst.: "A printer has declared that last year and this year the public printing has cost the state $15,000 more than under the former contract, and that this does not include freight and express charges for shipping the matter from Raleigh to Winston and back as is necessary." Here is another slice off of the tax payers for the party purposes, as the Democratic applicant at Raleigh would have done the work just as satisfactorily as the Republican one in Winston does and would have been a great deal more convenient. These are facts worthy of the tax payers attention.

If Senator Butler is sincere in his fight against Senator Pritchard and is backed up by the other populists as he thinks he will be, Mr. Pritchard will not be able to hold the gold bug members of the next Legislature (as he calls them) to their pledges to vote for them. This fight will prove the honesty of the members of the populist party in their cry for free silver, or whether or not they are gold bug members as Mr. Pritchard calls them. It will also test Senator Butler's strength and control over his party.

However, Mr. Butler says in the Caucasian, "Democrats will not be allowed to have anything to do with the election of United States Senator, and they had just as well shut their miserable State deprecating mouths. That whatever is done, will be the proper thing." This is a gem of thought, and the expression is worthy of Senator Butler. We are sorry we have sinned against his majesty.

CONGRESSMAN A. C. SHUFORD has at last educated his conscience up to the same pitch of extravagance and corruption that Hon. J. S. Henderson's was two years ago, when Mr. Shuford would hold him up to the people as being extravagant and wasteful of their money, viz: by employing a clerk at a salary of $100. per month to do the work he was paid to do. Now Mr. Shuford says, "everybody else does it, consequently, it is right." How does such reasoning sound from this paragon of political reform and economy?

General Fitz Lee thinks there is grave trouble ahead with Spain—that war will come. The United States government is rapidly preparing for the worst.

WATSON FLAYS BUTLER.

Populist Chairman Accused of all Sorts of Crime.

Tom Watson has been rubbing more red pepper into the wounds of Senator Marion Butler. In his paper, (The Times), of November 18th, he publishes his answer to Butler, and it is without any appearance of conservatism. In his reply, Mr. Watson says in part: "You did not dare to publish it (the first letter) because you felt its arraignment of you to be unanswerable. Mr. Washburn's telegrams (to which I was no party) did not control you then in not publishing the letter any more than they control you now in suppressing it.

"The truth is, Senator, you feel yourself to be a deeply guilty man—as, indeed, you are. Instead of managing this great campaign in a spirit of broad patriotism and of courageous loyalty to your nominee and your party, you have allowed your personal ill-will toward me to divert you into a tortuous, narrow, jealous and disloyal policy which has shipwrecked the People's party and brought the success of Mr. Bryan to a crisis of extreme peril.

"You now plead with me to pull you out of the hole. I shall do nothing of the kind. You pecked your way into it, and now you must peck your way out.

"Senator, you were selected as chairman to help me with this campaign. You were expected to act with me and for me. You have acted without me and you have acted against me. In nothing have you consulted me. At no time have you told me of your plans or your purposes.

"In all this you may be right and I may be wrong. The committee called off by you to one side at Chicago has sustained you and censured me. Therefore my position is most painful. The Bryan-Sewall committee is against me, and the Bryan-Watson committee is against me. I stand alone.

"But, Senator, I was a Populist while you were still camping with the Democrats and I have been a Middle-of-the-Road Populist, while you never have been. A fusionist you have always been and you bargained with both Republicans and Democrats.

"God only knows which bargain you intend to keep.

"As for me, I turn from you and appeal to the real, true-hearted Populists. If I have sinned against principle and right in demanding that our party and its nominees and its creed be represented by the Democrats who had come to you for help, then I want party to say so and I will bow to its decree.

"But I do not recognize your right to put me under the heels of the Democratic tricksters and bosses, and I shall continue to claim the privilege of speaking and writing for the national nominees of the People's party.

"I do not believe that time has yet come when Populists will say it is treason to be loyal to the Populists ticket. It is unnecessary for me to say that my letter of acceptance must stand just as it is written. Yours, etc., "THOS. E. WATSON."

A Strike in Richmond. Over one hundred of the employees at the works of the Virginia and North Carolina Wheel Company, just below Richmond went on a strike Monday, Nov. 23 when noticed that a reduction of 10 per cent in their wages had been made. The management informed them that this had been made necessary by the fact that the trust, with which the works are competing, had reduced its prices more than 20 per cent. in the past week and that in order to meet these prices and live the Virginia and North Carolina Wheel Company had to make a cut in wages. The men were, however, unwilling to work for the reduced wages, and they accordingly left the shop, quietly, though, and with the understanding that any of them who desire to do so, and who present themselves at the office by to-morrow night can return to their jobs. The employees who quit work will, it is said, send a petition for the restoration of their wages to Mr. McMahon, of New York, the principal stockholder in the company.—Charlotte Observer.

Killian & Beal's Store Broken Into.

Last Sunday night about 7 o'clock p. m. a guard which had been sent to Killian & Beal's store and Chronicle near Denver to look out for robbers found upon arriving there that some one was in the store helping themselves. The burglars ran out the back door. The guard after ordering them to stop repeatedly and being ignored, fired several shots at them, but they ran on. It is thought that two of the shots took effect in one of the fugitives, but with slight damage, as they were charged with No. 7 shot. They both escaped. Upon investigation it was found the robbers had packed up about $25 or $30 worth of goods on the counter, and as they ran had dropped a lot of things they had with them.

Search was at once begun for the guilty parties by the guard, but they were not found until Monday night. Some one called at Mr. W. H. Hewitt's to inquire the way to Newton. Upon being asked his name, replied it was "Sam Jones". Mr. Hewitt said he was glad to see "Sam Jones" and told Sam to come in. Sam came in and Mr. Hewitt arrested him and had him searched, and a pistol taken out of his pocket, also a scarf Sam said he had found in the woods. Later Sam confessed being at the store watching while his partner went in. He told where his chum, Frank Little, would probably be found. The officers went to Sandy Ross' house near Newton, on Tuesday morning, and found Frank Little, the chum of "Sam Jones" then in bed, suffering from a wound in his leg which he said was caused by some one down the country shooting him. Frank confessed to being in Killian & Beal's store Sunday night, but said Adolphus Blackburn, alias Sam Jones, was with him also, in the store. Both Frank Little and Adolphus Blackburn were lodged in Newton jail. They live in Hickory, are colored boys about 19 and 21 years old, and have been seen around this store acting suspiciously since Saturday. Nothing was lost to amount to anything.

A Newspaper Man Right.

J. P. Clarkson, a reported on the Florida Times-Union, was last Friday, given the alternative of going to jail or divulging the name of the party who gave him information of an indictment having been brought in by the Circuit Court grand jury and published in the Times-Union. Mr. Clarkson went to jail rather than give the name of the man who gave him the information. Last Wednesday the grand jury brought in several indictments, and among them was one against J. D. Allen, indicted for manslaughter. Allen was conductor of a street car, on which ex-Policeman Jonas was a passenger on April 18th, and who got into a row with some negroes on the car. In the row it is alleged that Jonas was pushed off the car and left to fight with the negroes, four in number, and the row ended in Jonas being killed.

The indictment was withheld from publication, but the information was received by Mr. Clarkson from B. H. Hopkins, foreman of the grand jury, and he published it. The court began an investigation and Mr. Clarkson was summoned as a witness. He refused to give the name of his informant and was committed to jail and locked up in the same department with murderers, thieves and forgers. Later in the day Mr. Hopkins appeared before the court and explained that he had given the information, being innocent of having violated his oath as a grand juror. Judge Call then ordered the discharge of Mr. Clarkson.—Jack souville cor. Charlotte Observer.

The Watson-Butler Letter.

The merry little war between Thomas Watson and Senator Butler is beginning to get warm; and the second round has taken place. This is the publication of Butler's letter to Watson when the letter of acceptance of the vice presidential candidate was received, in which Butler refused to make public the letter unless Watson modified what Butler regarded as in effect advice to Populists not to vote the fusion electoral tickets, and in which the Senator delicately points out the non-success of Watson's policy of non-fusion in his own State.

The next round is now looked for and Watson will force the fighting this time. He will attack the North Carolina man in vigorous fashion. Butler will counter, and there will be fun.

It is an interesting fact that Senator Butler has carefully preserved every line of correspondence between himself and Watson, and that if the latter goes too far the Senator will give the whole matter to the press. He does not propose that Watson shall abuse him as he did Sewall without having to take pepper in return. It will not be a one-sided affair this time. Each man has a paper and each is a forcible writer. Their papers circulate about evenly in Populist circles. It is going to be a knock-out fight and the last round must be fought before 1900, when one or the other will be dead politically in his own party. Butler has the advantage of being in the Senate, which will give some additional weight to what he has to say.—Washington Star.

Trains Collide at Round Knob.

In a collision between the helper engine and the west-bound Norfolk-Chattanooga vestibuled train on the mountain division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, near Round Knob, Fireman Howard, on the vestibule, was killed and Engineer Will James so badly injured that he will die. Helper Engineer Terrill and Fireman Washburn were severely bruised. The helper engine had assisted the first section of Kingling Bros.' circus train to the top of the mountain and was on the way to the foot for the second section when the collision occurred. None of the passengers were hurt. The cause assigned is a misunderstanding of train orders.

[Engineer James lives at Salisbury. One of his legs was crushed, his skull was fractured and he was injured internally. He was still living last night. His young wife left Salisbury yesterday morning to attend his bedside. Fireman Howard was killed instantly. His home also was in Salisbury. The baggage-master and a postal clerk were badly injured. Engineer Terrill has been running an engine for 25 years and for 15 years has been doing service as the helper engineer over the mountains at Round Knob. There were a number of extra trains Tuesday night, and he had forgotten about the schedule of the fast passenger train—his first "slip-up" in a day and night service, in all kinds of weather, through a quarter of a century. What a pity it is!—Charlotte Observer.

Castillo Talks of War With Us.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—Le Journal publishes a report of an interview with Senor Canovas del Castillo, Prime Minister of Spain, in which he says that the relations between Spain and the United States are excellent. The United States government, the Premier says, he always observed a correct attitude and he does not believe it will change its policy for the sake of the Cuban negroes and adventurers. If, however, the United States should do so, Spain would cause her rights to be respected. While he is in power, Senor Canovas is reported as saying, he will make no concessions to the rebels, nor will he show the weakness of drawing back before anybody. Spain, the Premier added, regards the Cuban question as one of international politics.

Concord special to the Observer says: "Philip Lambert, 21 years of age, living with his father, J. Leonard Lambeth, near Mission, Stanly county, was accidentally killed last Saturday afternoon. He had laid his gun upon a bale of cotton, lying in the gun yard of Lambert & Co., and in attempting to lift the gun with the muzzle pointing toward his body, the hammer caught in the bagging and when he finally jerked the gun loose it discharged, emptying both barrels in his stomach, on the right side below the ribs, with an upward range to the breast.
