In these days of rush and hurry cour- tey is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our life little things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its res- ultant headache, may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodol for dyspepsia. It digests what you eat and puts your stomach back into shape. Sold by K. L. Lawing.

It is just as easy to fall in love with a rich girl as it is to fall in love with a poor one, but it is gen- erally easier to marry the poor one. —St. Joseph (La.) Press-News.

The famous Alabama was affloat twenty-two months. In that time she destroyed fifty-one vessels.

No one would buy a sail boat with sails that could not be reefed. There is always that possibility of a little too much wind that makes a cautious man afraid to go unprovided. The thinking man, whose stomach some- times goes back on him, provides for his stomach by keeping a bottle of Kodol for Dyspepsia within reach. Kodol di- gests what you eat and restores the stomach to the condition to properly per- form its functions. Sold by K. Lawing.
