

The Lexington Herald

TUESDAY, NOV. 30, 1915.

Local News.

Christmas next stop. Mr. Clyde Ingle, of Asheville, spent Thanksgiving with his parents. Wake Forest Glee Club Thursday evening at the Baptist church. Miss Maude Hurley is spending a few days with Miss Nona Leonard. Mr. J. S. Coles has returned from a visit of several days to Wilkesboro. Rev. C. C. Wheeler of Southport stopped off here a short while last week. Mr. Paul Hinkle, who attends Guilford College, spent the week-end with his parents. Mrs. Dan Michael has had with her Mrs. Charles Paterson and two little sons of Concord. Miss George Price, of Charlotte, spent Thanksgiving here with her mother. Mrs. M. C. Layden attended the Virginia-Carolina game at Richmond Saturday. Miss Jessie Coyle of High Point, spent a few days here last week visiting her brother. The Southbound Demonstration Train in Davidson county next week. The full announcement on page 2. A large number of people enjoyed the dance at the Elks club Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ely, of Tennis, spent Thanksgiving with the family of Rev. J. W. Hamrick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall, and daughter, Miss Dorothy, spent Thanksgiving at Guilford College. The many friends of Mrs. Z. V. Walser will be pleased to learn that she is now on the road to recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hedrick spent their Thanksgiving at High Point with Mr. J. P. Hedrick. Miss Margaret Butts, who has been spending a few days with Miss Blanche Thompson, returned to her home at Charlotte Monday. Early advertising on the part of the merchants will insure early shopping on the part of their customers. A Moonlight School has been opened at Floyd's school house with Mr. Harry Lohr in charge. A good attendance is reported. The books of the register of deeds show that a license has been issued to Mr. T. J. Peacock and Miss Rosa Owen. A rich treat is in store for those who attend the entertainment of the Wake Forest Glee Club Thursday evening. Admission 35 and 25 cents. Miss Elizabeth Penry, who is a student at Greensboro College for Women, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. W. G. Penry. Mrs. Sam Lybore, who is a student in the University of North Carolina, spent a few days in town last week. Miss Georgia Price has returned from her work at Charlotte after spending Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Price. Mr. Fred Smith, Lexington, reports a killing of a porker 11 months old, weighing 398 pounds. Who can beat it? Thanksgiving was generally observed in Lexington. A large number heard Dr. Leonard in the sermon at the First Methodist church this morning. Mrs. P. V. Critcher has as her guests, her sister, Mrs. Warren Diggs and her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. C. Critcher, both of Williamston, N. C. Miss Margaret Coley was in Raleigh last week in attendance at the State Teachers' Convention. She reports a most pleasant stay in the capital city. Miss Kathryn Dersett has resumed her duties at the High School after having spent a most pleasant Thanksgiving with her parents at Farmer, N. C. Miss Eloise Coulling spent Thanksgiving with friends in Richmond, Va. She stopped over in Raleigh to attend the Teachers' Assembly. She reports a very pleasant time. The Elks will have their annual memorial service Sunday, Dec. 5. Hon. W. J. Cooke, of Asheville, is the orator for that occasion. Mr. J. W. Walser, of Reedy Creek, was in town Friday on his way to Greensboro on a business trip. Mrs. E. O. Hull and Miss Mary Craig had their mother, Mrs. T. B. Craig, of Rock Hill, S. C., with them Thanksgiving. Mrs. Jerome Collett and Miss Loris Collette, of Thomasville, spent Saturday and Sunday with the families of Mr. J. Arthur Lindsay. "Neal of the Navy," Pathe's greatest serial picture, may be seen at the Lyric Theatre, Friday, Dec. 3rd. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the Navy, recommends "Neal of the Navy," which is to be seen at the Lyric Theatre, Friday, Dec. 3rd. "Neal of the Navy" is picturesque, educational, romantic, thrilling to the last degree, and has the U. S. Navy as a background. See it Friday at the Lyric. The garage now being erected by the Shaw-Cox Motor Company will be two stories, 37 feet back. The walls will be reinforced so as to conform to the fire regulations. There was quite a little commotion on Main street Wednesday when the tar in the big-pot in front of the new building for the First National bank caught fire. It was soon extinguished. Trinity Glee Club in the entertainment at the Methodist church Thursday evening fully sustained the fine record it had made for itself on its previous trip and the large audience was delighted. Rev. Robert E. Koo, of Greensboro, is conducting special service this week at Grace Episcopal church at 9:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Every one is urged to attend these services. Mr. J. Frank Pooshe, Jr., special traveling representative of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, spent Thanksgiving here with his parents. Miss Edna Penry is at Southport this week, conducting a side in Domestic Science. Miss Penry reports that at Alfred last week she succeeded in making "waffles" both fine, many of the housewives also making the lessons. Rev. V. Y. Booser and Mr. C. M. Thompson attended a meeting of the Northern Conference of the North Carolina Lutheran synod at St. John's Church, Salisbury, on Friday and Saturday. December 20 is the time set for that public debate at Nokomis. A real treat is going to be in store for all who attend, as the young debaters have been making much preparation for the coming event. Messrs. Duren Shaw, Hill Smith, Don Walser and Lloyd Turnley motored to High Point to witness the football game between Guilford College and High Point. Mr. Paul Hinkle, who participated in the game, accompanied them home. Tuesday evening Miss Nona Thompson entertained her bridal party and a few of the young people informally. The bride's cake was cut and those falling heir to the following property were Miss Lena Saultz, the ring; Mrs. W. O. Burgin, the money; Mr. Paul Raper, thimble; Mr. Ralph Moffitt, button, and Mr. Paul Barnhardt, the needle. Mr. Fred Cox went to his father's, near Asheboro for Thanksgiving, accompanied by Mr. H. Clay Michael. They joined a party, which succeeded in getting 17 rabbits, 9 partridges and 5 squirrels that day. Miss Adelaide Hargrave, after spending the week-end with her parents, returned Monday morning to resume her studies at the G. C. W. The Broken Coin still draws the crowds at the Lyric each Tuesday evening. "Neal of the Navy" is announced as a great drawing card for each Friday evening. Two big serials going at the same time is going some. Mr. A. J. Perryman gave a big corn shucking at his home near the Southbound Station Wednesday evening. The big number taking part in this exercise had a big feast as ye editor can testify from personal experience having been one of the fortunate ones to sit around the table when it was all over. Messrs. O. M. Thompson and Jim Leonard took in the Virginia-Carolina foot ball game at Richmond Thursday, when the boys of our University went down to the tune of 14 to 0. Dr. J. C. Leonard had a full house at his annual lecture at the Reformed church Friday evening.

His subject was: "The Ethics of Scouting," which proved a great delight to all. The social features in connection with this annual service were most enjoyable. Rev. A. W. Plyler, who was assigned to Wadesboro at the session of the Western North Carolina Conference, left for his new work Saturday. During the four years Mr. Plyler was in Lexington he saw the membership of the First Methodist church increased over 50 per cent, more than 200 members having been added during his pastorate. He left the work in first class shape, a much coveted honor for any pastor. Rev. W. H. Willis, the new pastor of the First Methodist church, has arrived. His two sermons Sunday have been very warmly spoken of and already he is on the job, having made a most favorable impression. His congregation here is greatly pleased that Bishop Lambeth list the appointment as at first made stood. Mrs. Willis, three sons and one daughter will arrive Thursday. Another daughter is teaching in the Statesville Graded School. Out of town guests for the Thompson-Barnhardt pupils were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barnhardt, Sr., Mr. George Barnhardt, Dr. and Mrs. Carlier, Miss Bulah Kerps, Miss Lora Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Resner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woodson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Neave, Mrs. Mary Lenka Neave, Miss Fannie Vaughn Andrew, Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bates, Winston-Salem; Miss Kathleen Deany, Greensboro; Mrs. L. M. Dibble, Orangeburg, S. C. SOCIAL Miss Blanche Thompson delightfully entertained Friday evening, her birthday, in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Butts, of Charlotte. After the dinner course the following invited guests formed a theater party. Misses Dorothy Mendenhall, Francis Holt Mountcastle, Marguerite Pugh, Hilda Sheets, Mildred Walser and Faith Price. SALISBURY POLICE PLAYING A HOLD-UP GAME Swain Spough, the colored barber, had his auto stolen Thursday. Friday he had Chief Hartness to give notice to the police in several near-by towns to be on the lookout for it, also offering a reward for its return. It so happened that Mr. Baxter Young discovered the machine Friday just beyond Salisbury in a broken down condition. He notified Spough, who requested the Salisbury police to have it brought in and he would come over and get it. He did go and paid the cost of bringing it in and repairing it. They now claim the reward and have Spough summoned to appear next Monday on the ground of getting goods under false pretenses. He will fight the case, as it appears very much like the Salisbury police are playing a hold-up game. RABBITS VERY SCARCE PARTRIDGES STILL SCARCER Mr. G. W. Hayworth of the Abbott's Creek section, who is in attendance on court, reports that in his section rabbits are very scarce and partridges still scarcer. As an instance of the scarcity of rabbits he states that the two hunting clubs that have control of practically all the hunting privileges on all the lands in that section have even shut down on the hunting of rabbits, a privilege they have hitherto granted. Mr. Hayworth also expressed the belief that this limitation on rabbit hunting will result in a great many refusing to sign away these hunting privileges in the future. DENTON CHURCH BURNS M. P. Church, Erected at Cost of $4,000 is Completely Destroyed. Greensboro News. Denton, Nov. 23.—Tuesday about 4 o'clock p. m. fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the M. P. church building. The fire appears to have caught in the Baraca roof, between the spiling and brick veneer. It had gained but very little headway when discovered but the entire building was a mass of flames in a very few minutes. The building was completed a few

RESULT OF MINT COLA VOTING CONTEST FOR WEEK ENDING, November 27th, 1915.

Table listing names and vote counts for the Mint Cola voting contest. Includes names like Mrs. J. B. Hayworth (4660), Mattie Johnson (3760), Lenora Seagrins (2680), Vera Myers (2340), Fitzhugh Robbins (1740), C. J. Johnson (1620), Jack Harvey (1220), Martha Hunter (600), James McDonald (20), C. F. Freeman (140), Gertrude Couch (830), Emma Eyerhart (220), Ed Nally (160), Grady Crouse (20), Jonas Bishop (980), Marion Beck (60), James Clodfelter (60), Pearl Clodfelter (120), John Barr (20), Lewis Eyerhart (460), Toyrell Freeman (500), Grady Forrester (200), H. C. Gibson (20), J. E. Hayworth (20), Lloyd Hanes (20), Joe Link (140), Ralph Myers (60), Clyde McIntyre (140), Kelly Latham (20), Joe Parks (20), Joe Smith (20), Grady Thompson (20). Total: All those having less than 200 votes will be dropped when the list is again published.

Get Busy and Win These Beautiful and Valuable Presents.

PUBLICITY ITEMS. THE NEW STUDIO WILL DEVELOP... OUR ARTISTIC FRAMING DEPARTMENT... WANTED-FIFTY BUSHELS GOOD... WANTED-PART AND OVERALL... WANTED-TO BUY FOUR QUARTER air dried pine lumber... BRING YOUR LAUNDRY TO THE Chinese Laundry... WANTED-ALL THE OLD HENS... BUY YOUR FISH READY FOR THE pan at Green's Market.

We Are Ready. To meet your every need in the way of GROCERIES AND PRODUCE. Our stock is well selected and is being increased daily. We will see to it that your dollar does its full duty here. We pay the highest market price for all Country Produce. Come to see us before you Buy or Sell. SINK & GREEN. F. C. SINK B. F. GREEN. Phone 217. On the Square.

NEAL OF THE NAVY, WITH WILLIAM COURTLEIGH. A tale of Romance, patriotism and stirring adventure. Approved and recommended by Josephus Daniels. A Serial dealing with other things than you have been accustomed to in other pictures. SEE IT AT THE LYRIC THEATRE, FRIDAY, DEC., 3rd. AFTERNOON AND NIGHT

RUGS! RUGS! RUGS! See the big display of Rugs on exhibition in our window. Then come in and see them. We will save you money on all floor coverings. We have a peach of linoleum for all purposes. LEXINGTON HOUSE FURNISHING CO. THE HOUSE OF QUALITY. J. A. LINDSAY J. W. LINDSAY.

The Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co. Has more insurance in force in Davidson County than any other company and has loaned more than FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS to Davidson County People. E. B. CRAVEN MANAGER. At Commercial and Savings Bank.

THIS PAGE FADED