It is now conceded that, at its quarterly meeting to be held in Lenoir on the fourth day of July, the Caldwell county Alliance will vote to disapprove the absurd sub-Treasury bill.—Lenoir Topic.

Some new machinery arrived this week for the Elm Grove Cotton Mills. This factory is receiving a general overhauling and will be put in first class condition by Fall, with considerable machinery added.

We had several fine showers here this week, and the coming crop around Lincoln is very promising at present. The prospects of the cotton crop were never better at this season of year than at present.

Lightning struck Mr. L. S. Killian's dwelling in this county last Wednesday a week, and knocked out the lights of a window, struck a bedstead and tore off some weather-boarding. Fortunately no one was injured.

Capt. P. J. Pate, agent of O. C. depot, has been off for several days taking vacation visiting Capt. W. T. Massey, of Trzah, S. C., and spending some time with friends at other points. He also spent a few days at Portsmouth, Va.

A force of hands are now at work on our streets. We suggest that the town authorities buy or rent a rock crusher and then begin at the worst places and begin a substantial grading of the streets, doing as much as the treasury will admit each year.

The Lincoln Courier says that Mr. W. L. Lackey, of Lincoln county, has, in a period of six weeks killed thirty-six crows, five hawks and two sheep killing dogs. The people of his neighborhood should give him a handsome present.—Progressive Farmer.

Mr. S. P. Sherrill, census enumerator for Lincoln township, has nearly completed his round, but when he is through we will know about as little of the census as before, as he is sworn not to reveal anything, not even the number of inhabitants.

Died, June 20, 1890, little Louise McKenzie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Jenkins, aged 16 days. Another little lamb taken into the tender arms of Him who said "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Let everybody see to it that those attending the Union Meeting of the Baptist Church are well provided with homes free of charge. The discussions on to-day and tomorrow will no doubt be highly interesting and instructive, and a large attendance is expected.

We regret exceedingly that an overflow of job work prevented our attending the Gaston College commencement this week. Judging from the programme, we are quite sure it was one of the best they have ever had. We hope some one who was there will give us a full account next week.

Death of Mrs. George P. Cotehett.

The death of Mrs. Cotehett, wife of Mr. George P. Cotehett, which occurred Sunday last from a congestive chill, was a great shock to her family and friends. She leaves five children, the youngest only ten days old. The funeral took place yesterday evening from St. James' Church, the interment being in Oakdale Cemetery. It was attended by many sorrowing relatives and friends. Mrs. Cotehett was the daughter of the late Col. James G. Green, and was greatly beloved for her many estimable qualities.—Wilmington Star.

Mrs. Cotehett and children had many friends and acquaintances in Lincolnton. She spent a portion of last Summer here, the guest of Mrs. Dr. J. M. Lawing.

The Entertainment.

A very plausible entertainment was given by The Presbyterian Sunday School in the Court House Hall last Tuesday night. The attendance was good, but not so large as it should have been, considering the excellency of the performances and the worthiness of the object for which the entertainment was given. The exercises consisted of choice selections of music and a farce most of which were received with hearty applause.

The little play "Who Killed Cock-Robin" was very nice and was very well received by the audience. But the most touching part of the programme was the dialogue song of a little beggar girl and a young lady. Both characters in the piece performed their parts well. The most laughable part of the exercises was the farce, "Poortfoot Junior" and the acting is quite deserving of praise. Miss Carrie Motz gave a beautiful rendition of a good night song for which she was heartily cheered until she returned and gave another good selection.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be used towards the building of a new Presbyterian Church at this place.

From Orleans

Some old people say the past few days has been the hottest weather they ever knew in June. Some corn and cotton is suffering very much for rain, while other farms only a mile or two away are too wet to be plowed.

One threshing machine started out to-day, guess the others will be out soon; it's a race to see which gets the most work to do. The peach crop in this section is almost a complete failure while apples are also very scarce.

Messrs. Dock and Daniel Anthony of S. C. are visiting their mother who is very feeble from old age and general debility. Mr. Frank Grigg, a young man twenty-five or six years old, who lived near Hulls X Roads in upper North Brook, died a few days ago after a few hours' sickness. In justice to the physicians who attended him it should be stated that the report that he was given a dose of morphine from the effects of which he never rallied, is absolutely not true. Mr. Grigg had suffered a great while from heart and lung trouble.

Mr. Geo. W. Bess took the contract a few days ago to build a large new church at Bess' Chapel. The little son of Mr. Berry Ledford who was bitten on the ankle by a snake a couple weeks ago did not suffer any inconvenience whatever, the snake evidently not being poisonous. It is not true as was reported that his leg had to be amputated. Our philosopher says "truth is a word which you will find in the dictionary but you can't find much of it about here these times." Says the people are so bad about telling falsehoods that he can hardly believe what he tells himself.

S. A. M. Orleans, N. C., June 24, '90. It would be impossible to get a fairer price than the one on which Gaster's magnetic cholera cure is sold. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded by Dr. J. M. Lawing, Ag't, Lincolnton, N. C.

UPREPSY. This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. The thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not.
