CONGRESS.—W. H. H. COWLEY, SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE.—W. A. HOKE, SOLICITOR.—F. I. OSBORNE, SENATOR.—J. W. A. PAINE, REPRESENTATIVE.—REV. C. E. WILSON, SHERIFF.—J. B. LUGKEY, CLERK OF COURT.—C. E. CHILDS, REGISTER OF DEEDS.—B. C. WOOD, TREASURER.—L. T. WILKIE, SURVEYOR.—J. C. BESS, ORONER.—C. HOOVER.

HURRAH FOR PAINE, VANCE AND COWLES.

It is gratifying to the friends of true Democracy in dear old Lincoln county to know that our candidates for the Legislature have expressed themselves as willing and determined to use their influence for the reelection of Col. Cowles and Senator Vance.

J. W. A. Paine, whom we have always regarded as one of the noblest and most reliable citizens of Lincoln county and as a Democrat "true and tried," has asked prominent friends of Democracy to go to work and faithfully aid in securing the election of Col. W. H. H. Cowles and Senator Vance.

This is gratifying because Mr. Paine is known to be one of the most prominent, true and faithful members of the Lincoln county Farmer's Alliance.

We publish elsewhere a letter from about Trinity neighborhood, written by a young man, who is a good, clever, honest boy, but who is too young to be able to handle such men as Col. Cowles and such measures as the Sub-Treasury Bill.

He should post himself as to the record of Col. Cowles, Senator Vance and all Southern Democrats in the Congress of the United States, which shows that they have ever fought with all their might and main for the very needs which the Farmers' Alliance demands—the very foundation principles of the Democratic party.

He should remember, or his older friends should teach him the danger of increasing the number of Republicans from the South in the Congress of the United States by turning against the nominee of the Democratic party.

He should post himself also as to the record of the Republican party now in power at Washington, how they have increased the tariff, demoralized silver and voted the passage of the election bill to deprive the white people of the South of their supremacy and their rights; and after he has acquainted himself with all these truths, then let him consider the fact that to vote for any but the Democratic nominee will mean the election of York or some other Republican who will try to deceive the Alliance by claiming to be the farmers' friend, when the truth is the biggest issue now between the Republican and Democratic parties are the tariff and silver questions, on which the Alliance and Democracy are and have ever been agreed.

Now there is one named Faucette, of Caldwell, who has announced himself an independent Alliance candidate; and this same Faucette was stuck in the whiskey keg Lenoir Republican convention and only lacked one more lick (vote) to be fastened up as a spout (nominee) of that Republican convention.

To be plain the names of Faucette and York went before that convention and each received six votes. The chairman being opposed to any nomination, no nomination was made and Faucette has since come out independent. He proposes to ride to Congress on the backs of dissatisfied Alliance Democrats and Republicans.

Now we want to know what hope of relief can we expect from him who has never been tried and who allowed his name to go before a Republican convention, showing himself to be at least half if not three-fourths of a Republican, to say the least. We say, knowing that Republican principles are diametrically opposite to Alliance principles, and knowing Faucette to have shown himself to be at least PART Republican by going before a Republican convention, how can we be expected to trust to such a two-sided politician for relief? Had we not better stand by the noble battle-scarred Col. W. H. H. Cowles, who is wholly and entirely every part and parcel—a Democrat with a record in the Halls of Congress known and read by this entire nation showing him up as a true friend to the PRINCIPLES of the Alliance and the Democratic party?

Now if any of our readers do not agree with us on what we say now or may say on this subject hereafter, we have no quarrel with them; for every one has a right to his honest opinion and we ask the same right for us. We want us to reason together and not fly off at a tangent.

COL. POLK'S TIMELY ADVICE.

We are delighted to be able to quote the following from the pen of Col. L. Polk, and we hope our esteemed friends of the Alliance will heed the advice:

"The Democrats must carry every district possible. They cannot afford to lose one in Louisiana. The men who are fighting Mr. Blanchard—or who oppose any Democratic candidate for Congress in this State;—the men who would cause discussions in the party ranks to-day, or bring about a split or division among the members of the Republican cooperating with Read's Congress to oppress and injure the South. Let them be known for what they really are—enemies of white supremacy and civilization."

You must support the regular "Democratic candidates" otherwise there will be a "split" and you will therefore become "allies of the Republicans." Hurrah for Cowles and the Democratic nominees!

Questions and Answers.

QUESTION: What is a Democrat? ANSWER:—He is a man who believes in equal laws and the rule of the people.

Q.—Who are Democrats in North Carolina?

A.—All the white men in the State except a few old men who joined the Republicans on war issues and a motley crowd of fellows who form a hungry bread and butter brigade.

Q.—What is the duty of a Democrat?

A.—To support Democratic principles and vote for Democratic nominees.

Q.—Suppose a man calls himself a Democrat and votes for a Radical, what is he?

A.—He is NOT a good Democrat.

Q.—But what is he?

A.—He is a betrayer of his party and his race.—State Chronicle.

New Revolution.

Under Republican rule great inequality in the distribution of wealth has resulted. A few men have more wealth than they can count and the many are in want.

Every day the gap between Dives and Lazarus widens. Poverty and crime are on the increase. Agriculture languishes under burdensome taxation and for want of a foreign market. The masses are growing restless and turbulent. It seems that America is about to follow the bloody footsteps of Rome, Athens, and France. The pillars of justice and the foundation stones of liberty are crumbling under Republican misrule. The point is now about reached when if the downward tendency is not arrested, our republic will rush wildly and madly into a bloody revolution. We warn the people of Mecklenburg county and the people of North Carolina, and the people of the South that there is danger ahead. The Anglo-Saxon race is in danger of losing the liberties for which it has struggled for many centuries. The people of the South must unite now as they never have before to wrest the reins of government from the hands of the Republican party and to inaugurate a revolution in favor of restoring the government to the high plain of justice upon which it was built; a revolution in favor of conforming political statutes to moral laws. We are going down hill with great velocity and now is the time to obstruct and reverse the tendency. In a few years it will be too late. The 4th of November, 1890, is the time to begin this revolution. It may be too late in 1892. The Democratic party is a party of moral principles and can never die though its name may change. It has been the motive power of civilization and it is only through that party that political progress can continue. The man who deserts Democracy deserts moral principles.—Mecklenburg Times.

Letter From Trinity.

EDITOR COURIER:—In your last week's issue we saw a letter written to the Lenoir Topic, signed "A true Alliance Democrat," of which we wish to make a few remarks. "He says to beware of Independent Candidates, that they will lead us into the Radical camp." In connection with this we say beware of office seekers for they will lead us into the Plutocrat camp. He says the Democrats have incorporated the Alliance demands into its State platform. Mr. Democrat seems to be talking to Alliance men, of which I have the honor to be a member. He says "the Democratic party has always fought and is still fighting for your principles." He also says "if you are an Alliance man from principle you are necessarily a Democrat." To this we assent; but we also assert that if a man is a Democrat from principle and not for the sake of office alone, he is by his position an Alliance man in principle.

We wish to ask that true Alliance man or Democrat when Col. Cowles pledged himself to support the Alliance demands, he, Col. Cowles, does not pledge himself in his letter to the F. A. of the 8th Congressional district addressed to Col. B. F. Logan, of Cleveland. Col. Cowles says "the demands are Democratic in principle, and that he has advocated them all except the Sub-Treasury bill. But his insinuations are that none but a coward would sign them. We also ask that true Alliance Democrat, Why? Col. Cowles says the Alliance principles are Democratic and refused to sign them.

The State Democratic Convention incorporated those demands into its platform as Democratic principles, and signed them. 80,000 Alliance men of the wealth producers of the State, say the demands are Democratic in principle, and they have signed them.

Now if that true Alliance Democrat will tell us when Col. Cowles signed those demands, then we will be satisfied. But if not, then who is the Democrat? If Col. Cowles is a true Democrat, then 80,000 Alliance men and the State Convention are left in the dark, and will remain in the dark till Nov. 6th.

Col. Cowles says it would be cowardly to sign those demands. Is it possible that out of so many Alliance men in the State that there is only a couple refused to sign them? Col. Cowles says to sign those demands would be plying a club in the hands of his competitor to knock him on the head with.

As to the head knocking, the people of this neighborhood think it best to keep the club in their own hands till Nov. 6, and knock in the head whoever they think needs it the worst. PETER PINEKNOT.

Congress Outlines.

Both houses of Congress adjourned sine die yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock; the proceedings of the closing hours were of the usual character, and no business of general interest was transacted; in the Senate Mr. Blair made a determined effort to secure consideration for his labor bill, but he finally gave it up, finding that there was no disposition to favor him; the President and Secretary Blaine entered the Senate chamber a few moments before the adjournment and were warmly greeted.—Wil. Star.

Kickers.

Are you a dissatisfied Democrat? Is there any one on the Democratic ticket you don't like? If so beware of scratching the Democratic ticket. Remember that in the primaries you vote for men but at the polls you vote for principles. Every true Democrat votes the straight Democratic ticket from corner up. The Darkest Democratic crowd is better than Republican buzzard. "United we stand, divided we fall."—Meck. Times.

The courts of Cincinnati, under the new law in that State, sentenced two men to the penitentiary for twelve months for pointing guns that were supposed to be unloaded at other people. This was wrong. They should have been sent to the lunatic asylum.—Wilmington Star.

To Die For the Farmer.

Mr. Faucette, the Independent Alliance Republican Liberal Double-Back-Action candidate and teacher's short card appears in this issue of the Aurora. His love for the Farmers' Alliance is touching and pathetic, exceeding the love of Damon for Pythias or Jonathan for David. Mr. Faucette loves the farmers and is almost ready to die for them, if they will vote for him and elect him to Congress. As the Republicans did not see fit to nominate him at Lenoir and they thought Dr. York his equal, the Republican refused to nominate Mr. Faucette who has had no legislative experience, a new and untried man, who loves so dearly the farmer. Why does he court the Democratic Alliance farmers? Because he knows the Republicans to a man, black and white will vote for him or "any body to beat Cowles," yet the Republicans back 2770 votes of a majority to defeat Cowles. So they have set a trap to catch weak Democrats and want Democrats to be foolish enough to drift from their party and elect a Republican. "Walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly, the prettiest little parlor you ever did spy." Democratic Alliance don't let this Republican spider catch you. If they were not in a hopeless minority of 2770 against the Republican, they would not have such intense and said love for the farmers. Mr. Faucette has lived many years, perhaps two scores or more, but said nary word to help the farmer and charged the farmer's boy as much tuition as the lawyer, or merchant. He never knew what oppressed the farmer or how to put money in his pocket's pocket until this year of jubilee. Now, he says elect me, brother farmers, and you will "afford me inexpressible pleasure" and $5000 a year.

"The farmers have a hard time and are oppressed." Who is oppressing the farmer? Name your man and knock him down with a club. If you, the vast majority of the world, let other men oppress you and keep your nose to the grind stone, live hard and die poor, is not your lot the common fate of humanity in all ages and climes. Some farmers get rich, while many farmers get poor and die poor. Some few merchants accumulate money and lands and live in palaces, while ninety five out of every hundred "burst" and die poor and penniless; this is not fiction, but a sad fact shown by statistics. Only one out of a hundred dies a millionaire, while thousands leave as a heritage for their families only a noble name and a few dollars. Some farmers work hard and die poor, yet who say their lot is not that of mortals? The man treading the deck on the billowy main envies the farmer's lot and wishes some day for a cottage beside the sea. The physician travels in sunshine and storm, works hard and dies poor. Then your lot is the common heritage of man. Be a hero in the world's battle, do your duty and all will be well.—Shelby Aurora.

An Artesian Well.

A number of owners of Charlotte real estate are forming a stock company to bore an artesian well here. They think an artesian well in the city will have a good effect on property values in general. The company has not been formed yet, but active steps are being taken in that direction by interested parties.

W. N. Failing, of New York, who owns about fifty acres of land adjoining the 4 C's property, is taking a leading part toward forming the artesian well company.—Charlotte Chronicle.
