-WANTED: For the COURIER office one or (wo loads of dry oak wood.

-Mrs. Henry Haynes and grand daughter, of Greenville, S. C., returned home last Tuesday.

-The continued cold weather woodpile-and a word to the wise is sufficient.

.-Dr. Howell, recently of Cherryville, who had been off to Atlanta for the past month, was in Lincoln. ton this week

-Miss Vivian Mauney of Caston College, passed through Lincolnton last Saturday, enroute for Cherryville to visit her parents.

-The Methodists are going to build a parsonage in Lincolnton in the near future. The location is, we believe, not yet definitely settled.

-Proceedings of the General Assembly will be found on the 4th and editorial pages of this paper. We publish only such as we deem of interest to the general reader.

-Dr. J. M. Pressley, who has been in New York several months taking a post graduate course of Lectures, returned home last Fris day and his numerous friends are glad to have him at home again.

-Mr. J. T. McLean, Bible Agent for Evangelist Fife, returned home from Kinston this week. The meetings, it seems, were not as successful at Kinston as elsewhere. Mr. Fite begins a series of meetings at Lexington next Sunday. -Mr. A. Nixon, tax collector, is in the western part of the county this week hunting up the taxes. We saw him start off with a pitchtork last Monday, and we presume, therefore, he will "fork it in" in no small sums before he returns.

-A special from Shelby to the Charlotte Chronicle says that on last Monday night Charles Williamson, a young white man, shot and killed his brother, Erastus Williamson, at Washburn's store, about nine miles from Shelby. They were drinking.

-Mr. Robt. Haydn, of the Charlotte Chronicle has resigned his po. sition as editor of that paper and the Journal of Commerce, of Baltimore. Mr. Haydn is a bright writer and a clever gentleman, as well as a live, wideawake editor. Our best wishes go with him to his new field.

-We have received a copy of the report of Western North Carolina Asylum, at Morganton. The board of directors speak well of Dr. Murphy and his assistants, and the report shows that the institution has been a great blessing to the State. It is proposed to the present General al Assembly to change the name to "State Hospital at Morganton." The change will no doubt meet with general approbation.

-Maj. J. C. Cobb and wife and Mrs. D. Mutt. Thompson, her son, Dorman, and adopted daughter, Lucy, left Lincolnton this week for Gainsville, Fla. Maj and Mrs. Cobb will take a pretty general tour over the State of Fiorida, and Mrs. Thompson will spend the time durs ing her absence with her husband, Prof. Thompson, who has charge of the Graded Schools at Gainsville. We wish them all a pleasant trip and a safe return home.

-Gill Thomas, the "Musical Phenomenon," who gave an entertainment at the Academy a few years remembered by the people of that from dandruff and itching erups ago, will give an exhibition at the community.

Court House next Wednesday night Jan. 28, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Let everybody come out.

Death of Mrs. Dora Hoke,

Entered into rest on the 24th of December last, near Lincolnton, Mrs. Dora, wife of G. A. Hoke, after having lived, as we believe, a good Christian life, a good member of the Episcopal church, a good wife, a good mother, a good neighbor, a good citizen, and one of the very best members of Hickory Grove Alliance. She was buried at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Lincoln Co.

"I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write: From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord : Even so, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors."

HICKORY GROVE ALLIANCE.

Hon. C. L. Wilson.

We are pleased to note that our esteemed Representative has been placed on some important committees in the house.

The committees to which he has been assigned are the Committees on Privileges and Elections and on Banks and Currency.

"To Fight The Indians."

Two of Lincoln county boys taking it into their heads to enter upon the service of the U. S. Army, started out on their mission last week and the result of their procedure furnished the Charlotte Chronicle with the following item of news:

"Chief of Police Griffith, yesterhas made a big hole in the editor's day received a telegram form C. L. Henner, at Mt. Holly, to watch for two boys, aged 15 and 16 years, (system of water works. This, we | ivory, but he never was more than and if found, to arrest them.

Police Irvine was on band at the arrival of the train, but the boys weren't. They afterwards reached this city, and in 20 minutes after they landed here were arrested at the house of Geo. Forman, by Police Irvine.

One of the boys was named Hoover, and the other Wilson. They ran away from their home 9 miles above Lincolnton, Tuesday morning and were not missed until too late to overtake them on the road. When taken in charge yesterday by the policeman they were thoroughly imbued with the idea that the United States needed their services, and were, they said, starting west to help fight the Indians.

Their outfit consisted of an old valise, a few matches, and a barlow knife. Thus armed they were prepared to do and die in the name of their country, but their career was cut short, as they were joined here by irate relatives who took them back to the parental roof."

How Many Bales?

We want every cotton buyer in Lincola county to furnish us with the number of bales of cotton bought by him during the last year. We have the number from Denver, which is 300.

We want also, as near as possible, the average price paid per pound. It will only cost you a postal card and we hope you will kindly furnish us with these facts and we will give them to our readers.

We has accepted a position as editor of | could hear the noise of buggies, and the shouts of the merry crowds in the distance, and it seemed that all were attracted to one common centre-the residence of Mr. P. A. Helms. The writer was not forgotten by the party. We were invited to a seat in a buggy, and soon we were wending our way toward the home of Mr. Henry Leonhardt's. We learned that the next point on our way was Fsq. Foster's, and that it would be our pleasure to see Mr. Henry Helms, and Miss Etta White united in the holy bonds of matri-

We now turned our course, and after a pleasant drive, found ourselves again at the home of Mr. Helms where Mrs. Melms and her lady friends had prepared a table freighted with delicious viands . We all did our part well at the table, and spent the remainder of the day in pleasant chat around the fireside.

As the shades of knight closed in upon us, and we were enjoying the pleasures of a comfortable home, our attention was directed to delightful music, by a string band, just outside the window near the happy pair.

LINCOLATON BOOMING

Real Estate on the Rise -Water Works,

We have always thought that here would be a time when Lins cointon would make a move forward and we have reasons to believe that that time is now upon us. Here are some of the evidences of the certainty of the unpending boom,

About three years ago Mr. J. C. Fields came here from Florida and are reported from the Riviera. purchased what was known as the Postell property for about $650.00. Last week Mr. Fields sold the same or about $1500.00 without having made any material improvements. The purchaser is Mr. S. II. Hopkins.

Hurrah for Lincolnton!

A Card From I, D. Davis.

Mr. Editor :- I desire through your columns to state that the six years and six months, I was stationed at Lincolnton, was as pleasant a time as any one could wish to spend. I commenced my first busmess, in trade, with the firm then known as Beal & Edwards, and continued as long as they remained in business, without one feature of dissatisfaction on either side, and from thence to other firms, yea, I believe that I have dealt with every firm in Lincolnton, and am glad to say I do not wish to be treated any better anywhere, than I was treated there, and through your columns I wish to return to them my thanks. I shall never forget Lincolnton, and the kindness I have received. Now sir, please send the COURTER to my address-I am now teaching and preaching at this place.

I. D. Davis. Yours, Governor of New York Will Go to the Senate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 .- In the Democratic caucus this evening Governor David Bennett Hill was nominated for E. S. Senator to succeed Senator Evarts.

The nomination was made by acclamation.

It is understood that the Governor will accept.

Mr. Evarts was renominated for Senator by the Republican caucus to-night.

LATER: Hill has been elected.
