—Miss Connor Lawing is visiting friends in Shelby.

—Mrs. Sowers and daughter, Miss Annie, visited Iron Station last Saturday.

—We were glad to receive a call from Dr. Will. C. Kiser of Reepsville, this week.

—Mr. Willie Stokes of Davidson College, visited his Aunt Mrs. J. C. Fields last week.

—Miss Lucy Cauble and Mrs. P. D. Hinson visited relatives in Gaston county this week.

—WANTED—Several bushels of Irish potatoes. Would be glad to take them on subscription.

—Miss Lina McDonald, of Shelby, visited Lincolnton last week, the guest of Mrs. J. M. Lawing.

—Miss J. Ella Carpenter, and Mr. Lee Canipe, were married at Esq. Carpenter's on the 22d inst.

—Maiden is to have another cotton factory of $100,000 capital, $75,000, of which, we learn, has already been secured.

—Reepsville is agitating the subject of a cotton factory near by that place. We hope they will succeed in establishing the same.

—Mrs. Polly Favell died at this place last Sunday night, aged about 80 years. Mrs. Favell and her son, Price, came here from Missouri in 1881.

—Mr. Paine has introduced Lincolnton's bill to authorize the town commissioners to order an election to vote on the issuing of $20,000 in bonds for water works and other improvements.

—In our little brief "write up" last week, the type made us say "there is not a desirable dwelling house in town," when the word "vacant" should have been printed before "dwelling house."

—The bill introduced by Mr. Paine to change chapter 17, laws of 1881, incorporating Tucker's Grove Camp Ground in Lincoln county, was amended so as not to close any licensed store within the territory, and passed third reading.

—A colored section hand was killed on the C. C. railroad between Wilmington and Cronley's last Friday by an eastbound freight train. The negro was drunk and was lying on the track and was not seen by the engineer in time for him to stop his train.

—Mr. A. R. Rudisill, of King's Mountain, and Messrs. M. E. Rudisill, Willie Aderholdt and P. C. Beam, of Cherryville, a few weeks ago purchased the Buffalo Shoals in Cleveland county, for $2,300; and a stock company has been formed and they will at an early day have a cotton factory in operation at that place.

—We believe the members of the Farmers' Alliance are, for the most part, a reading people and the COURIER is grateful to its many friends among them for their patronage. One of the purposes of that organization is to encourage education and intelligence and it is accomplishing great good in that direction.

—Gill Thomas, the "musical phenomenon," gave a very excellent entertainment in the court house Wednesday night of this week. The night was very rainy, but notwithstanding, there was a tolerably good audience. He is an orchestra within himself, performing on two guitars, violin, French harp, bass violin, and "oboe." "Music is good for the soul."

—We were glad when we were told that Ralph Bingham, of whom we had heard so much praise as a "boy orator" and violinist, would great the people of Lincolnton with one of his performances. He came and had a splendid audience in the court house last Thursday night. The Ladies' Aid Society is to be congratulated upon its success. Ralph Bingham is a Southern boy, a native of Va.

—Lieut. James Rath, of Co. 2, 121 Reg. Penn. Volunteers was shot at Gettysburg and his sword was captured. His son is anxious to find the lost weapon, and it is hoped this notice will be the means of finding the same. Rath's name is on the sword. Anyone knowing anything about it will please write to Mr. E. S. Edwards, at Lincolnton, N. C. Capt. James Ashworth's sword was returned to him from Lincolnton.

—Gaston county is having a lively time over the subject of prohibition. Two petitions have been circulated, the one for and the other against prohibition, and both are said to have a large number of signatures. The petitioners are to go to the Legislature and are touching the question of holding an election on prohibition in Gaston county. Judging from the number on the petition the county is pretty evenly divided on the subject.

—Two little children of a section hand on the C. C. Railroad, between Shelby and Rutherfordton, were playing on the track last Friday morning, in a deep cut near a curve when the passenger train came upon them. One of the children stepped off but the other started to run on the road and the train came up on it before the engineer could stop. The child was struck by the pilot and severely injured, but later intelligence is to the effect that the child will live.

—Mr. E. C. Wood, our worthy Register of Deeds, and Capt. C. E. Childs, our esteemed Clerk of S. Court, are all smiles this week. They have had furnished to their offices some handsome furniture in the shape of tables and desks. We have no time to describe them, but they are certainly convenient and handsome pieces of furniture, and the above named officers have reasons to be glad; and nobody has any right to blame them if their gladness does creep out and show itself in their countenances.

—Cherryville is to have a cotton mill. Already half the stock necessary has been secured. Mauney Bros., of King's Mountain, are behind the movement, and that means success. Mr. S. S. Mauney, Cherryville has the subscription list, and will be glad to take any subscriptions from those who desire to encourage the enterprise. It will be a good investment for the stock holders and give employment to those seeking labor. By all means, let the good works go on in Gaston until we spin and weave all our cotton at home.—Dallas Eagle.

—The editor of the COURIER has purchased a lot on the S. E. corner of Congress and Poplar Streets, near the residence of R. Z. Johnston. A bill of Lumber has already been given to the lumber men and work will soon be begun on the residence. We hope, therefore, every one indebted to the COURIER will call to see us as you know it requires money to build. We feel that the LINCOLN COURIER is a permanent institution and we are grateful to our many friends for the encouraging patronage we have so far received at their hands.

—The wedding at Washington of Miss Florence Cooper, a niece of Mrs. Vance, and Charles Manley Busber, of North Carolina, was one of the prettiest home weddings of the season. The bride was attended by Miss Sallie Badger Hoke as maid-of-honor, who wore a gown of white faille. The bridesmaids were Miss Norris, Miss Justice, Miss Mand Weller, Miss Mary Bullock, Miss Nancy Bowles and Miss Helen Fowle. Theodore Davis, Attorney-General of North Carolina, was best man. The bride and bridegroom left Washington that evening for a wedding journey North, and will make their home at Raleigh, N. C.—New York Tribune.

Captain vs. Captain.

Considerable excitement was created in town Wednesday of this week, by a difficulty which occurred between Capt. B. F. Grigg and Capt. E. W. Ward, of this place, in which the science of pugilism was put into lively practice for some little time. The persons referred to have not been friendly for some time, and it seems that the two gentlemen met in the middle of the sidewalk going in opposite directions and neither being willing to give way to the other they, as a natural consequence, collided and this produced both superficial and internal friction causing an overflow of pent up anger which resulted in a fight. Capt. Ward's son came up and took his father's part, but all were separated before any serious damage was done, save that of bruises. The friends of both parties very much regret the unfortunate occurrence.

How Many Bales Ginned.

Last week we made request to know how many bales of cotton have been ginned in the county. We also ask the ginner to give the number of bales that have been ginned in the county this season. We hope our friends will furnish us with this information on a postal card or otherwise.

Lincolnton Has

- Three cotton factories in and near town.
- One wool factory.
- One foundry and machine shop.
- Three flouring and grist mills.
- Three woodworking machine shops, with furniture factories and sawmills attached to two of them.
- Three blacksmith shops.
- Two competing railroad lines.
- A first class male and female high school.
- Four churches and a new one soon to be erected.
- Two hotels in town, and the fine modern hotel at the Lithia Springs, two miles from town.
- A number of the most successful merchants in the State.
- One religious paper and one news paper, the LINCOLN COURIER (and by the way the best published in the county.)
- The most healthgiving waters and climate in the State, and many other things that make it a most attractive location for homes and manufacturing establishments.

Miller & Broom Manufacturer.

J. C. Worlick tells us he has become a public servant, he has lately moved to and taken charge of his father's mill. By the way it is one among the oldest mills in the county. The miller says he noticed on the husk frame a few days ago, the initials of two men, D. W. and P. W. with the year 1810 carved. The mill has always had a good reputation when it had a good miller. We would speak for the miller, from the public, his share of patronage when you go to mill. And he has moved his broom factory with him, so when not employed in grinding he is busily engaged making brooms. We have tried his brooms and know they are good and substantial. Thanks to him for one as a present it was not a holiday present but we will use it just the same, he wants his friends to raise all the broom corn they can, he will make it up at 10cts. a broom (if the tariff don't get too high), or he will pay 5cts a pound for good bright cured brush with about three inches of stalk with brush.

Vox Populi.

REEPSVILLE, N. C., JAN. 23, '91. In the most august assemblage of the people, goaded, impelled, constrained by the ubiquitous edicts of truth, justice and equity, we, the citizens of Howard's Creek Township, hereby hasten to express our bitterest denunciation, abhorrence, detestation and condemnation of the audacious, reprehensible crime perpetrated against one of our fellow citizens. Inasmuch as a certain fellow of the aforesaid township, by the name and title of W. Lee Canipe did wittingly, willingly, willfully, presumptuously, premeditatedly transgress against the pleasure, the peace, and the feet of our friend and fellow citizen, M. O. Carpenter, by compelling him, in broad daylight, on the 22d inst., in the presence of a giddy horde of spectators, at Esq. Philip Carpenter's, to dance in a most gallant, most appalling hog trough. Therefore, we, the Sovereign People, do condemn the said W. Lee Canipe to be incarcerated in the cannibal Elysium, tasked by Hy-men, and bound by Gordons till he shall have propitiated his villainy.

By a very ingenious and original process, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, Mass., are enabled to extract the essential properties of the materials used in the preparation of their famous "Ayer's Sarsaparilla," thus securing a purity and strength that can be obtained in no other way.
