Backet Store. Job Printing—Roberts & Wetmore. —Mr. Jas. Jettou, was in Lincoln-ton this week. —Mr. Jno. Eady is visiting his parents at this place. —Mrs. Martin of Shelby is visit-ing Mrs. J. M. Lawing. —Rev. O. E. Gower returned last Wednesday from Raleigh. —Mr. Arthur Miller returned home last week from Atlanta, Ga. —Mr. Sam Edwards and family moved into the country this week. —Miss Mattie Burgin, of Rath-erfordton, was on a visit here last week. —Mr. Jno. Anthony, we are in-formed, will return to Lincoln-ton to live. —Mr. Tyler Haynes, of Charlotte, was in Lincoln-ton Saturday and Sunday. —Mr. J. W. Lane, of Machpelai, spent Monday night of this week in Lincolnton. —Dr. J. D. Mundy, of Denver visited Lincolnton Thursday night of last week. —Miss Julia Johnston, of Denver, spent Thursday night of last week with friends in Lincolnton. —The Legislature has increased the school tax from 12 1/2 cents to 15 cents on the $100 worth of prop-erty. —Mr. Lauder's new shingle ma-chine has been at work again this week and it turns off shingles quite rapidly. —We learn that a number of our young people are contemplating a mountain trip during the coming summer. —Miss Jennie Johnston is teach-ing in Piedmont Seminary this week in the absence of Prof. Hot-tenstein. —On the outside of this paper we give an account of the burning of the Monroe High School. It was indeed a sad event. —Rev. Mr. Miller of Concordia College, will preach in the Lutheran church at this place on the 4th Sunday in this month. —Judge W. A. Hoke returned home last Wednesday from Mor-gantown at which place he has been holding his first term of court. —Misses Malvina and Lila Rich-ardson returned last Tuesday from South Amboy, N. J., to their home at Woodside, near Lincolnton. —A number of our young people enjoyed themselves very much at a candy pulling last Thursday night at the residence of Mr. W. W. Wells. —Mr. Hugh Jenkins of the firm of Jenkins Bros., left Thursday of this week for Northern markets to lay in a stock of spring and summer goods. —Prof. A. C. Hottenstein, principal of Piedmont Seminary, was called away last Monday to Pittsburg, Pa., to attend the funeral of his father. —Mr. J. A. Harrill, the "Weldon Printer" was in town last Wednes-day. He says he is looking out for a suitable point at which to estab-lish a bank. —Mr. J. Thos. McLean, Evange-list Five's Bible Agent, returned home Wednesday from Greenwood, S. C., and reports a grand meeting at that place. —Mr. T. H. Hoke, of the firm of Hoke and Michal, left last Tuesday for the Northern cities to lay in a new stock of goods for the spring and summer. —More new subscribers this week; It is gratifying to note the increase of our subscription list. The pros-pects of the COURIER are brighter now than ever before.

—A new lot of Paper, Envelopes &c. has just been received at the job office of Roberts & Wetmore and more has been ordered. See new ad, for job office. —Reports from different parts of this county state that the Alliance is rapidly gaining in numbers and increasing in interest. The meet-ings are said to be well attended and much enthusiasm is manifested. —The merchants purchase return tax was repealed by the Senate, but Mr. Wilson informs us that it was not concurred in by the House, and that the law has not been changed. Mr. Wilson voted against the Re-venue bill, because of that purchase tax section. —A correspondent of the Char-lotte Chronicle gives the number of bills introduced in the recent leg-islature as 1,610, which is 58 more than at the session of 1889 and more than was ever introduced in one session. The number of bills rat-ified is given as 939. —A petition was sent to the Gen-eral Assembly asking the passage of an act to prohibit the sale and manufacture of liquor within two miles of any schoolhouse in Lin-colnton township and the petition was granted by that body, so Lin-colnton township has virtually se-cured prohibition. —We are requested to announce that Rev. C. A. Starr will not be able to fill his appointment at the German Reformed church here next Sunday, March 15, not having wholly recovered from injuries received in the railroad accident, while on his way to Newton from this place last month. —Died, at this place, Thursday morning March 12th, 1891, Mrs. Cathrine Houser, aged about 74 years. She leaves four sons, T. L. Lynn J. Lee and Robert Houser, and one daughter, Mrs. Peter Hil-derbran. Mrs. Houser had been a suffer for some time gradually growing worse till death removed her peacefully and quietly away. —Our highly esteemed and hon-orable Representative Rev. O. L. Wilson, returned home from Ral-eigh last Tuesday evening. We believe that Lincoln county has had, in Rev. Mr. Wilson, a fair, concen-tious, energetic, intelligent and worthy representative, and that she will have no cause to regret the choice she has made. —Hon. J. W. A. Paine, the wor-thy Senator, of Lincoln and Cata-wba counties, returned last Tuesday evening on the Carolina Central, stopping off at Iron Station from which point he went to his home. We have no reason to doubt that Catawba will join Lincoln in com-mending Mr. Paine as a faithful, energetic, impartial, honorable and intelligent Senator, wholly worthy of the honors which the people of these counties have conferred upon him. —We have received the informa-tion that Albert Williams, of North Brook, very unexpectedly died last Sunday night, aged about 22 years. He was the son of Wesley Williams, deceased. He and his sister were living together, and the latter had gone on a visit to her brother-in-law Sunday night and when she return-ed home Monday she found her brother in the bed dead. We have not learned the cause of his death. —Since writing the foregoing, full particulars reached us, but too late for this issue. —Marriages. On Feb. 22, 1891, by L. D. Haynes J. P., Mr. Lee D. Smith, of Cleve-land county, and Miss Jennie Huss, of Lincoln county. March 1, 1891, by A. G. Harrill, J. P., Mr. A. F. Hoffman of Lincoln and Miss E. Jannie Smith, of Gas-ton county. Feb. 2, 1891, by Jno. F. Davis, J. P., Mr. Daniel Reel and Miss Ellen Stillwell, both of Lincoln county. March 5, 1891, by Philip Carpen-ter, J. P., Mr. Jno. A. Plouk, of Gaston county, and Miss Anna Hoover, of Lincoln. Feb. 26, 1891, by L. D. Haynes, J. P., Mr. Joseph Hardin and Miss Martha J. Erwin, both of Lincoln county. —Judge Hoke's First Court. Judge W. A. Hoke is holding his first court in Morgantown this week. His charge to the grand jury was short but pointed and has been gen-erally approved and complimented. He presides with ease and dignity suggesting to strangers years of ex-perience. He is quick and clear in his rulings and discreet and merci-ful in his judgments. He gives promise of long and useful service on the bench, and neither his sup-porters nor opponents need have any regret at his promotion. The docket in Burke is small, as the de-fendants in the worst cases did not appear.—Press and Carolinian. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT By St. Mark's Church, Gaston County. WHEREAS, It hath pleased God in his Providence to remove from us our much loved and esteemed pas-tor, Rev. M. L. Little, who labored so faithfully in behalf of our spiri-tual welfare, Resolved, That, while deploring our loss, we bow in humble submis-sion to the will of our Father in Heaven, knowing that the Lord do-eth all things well, and that all his judgments are not without a right-eous purpose. Resolved, That we lay to heart the solemn lesson thus addressed to us, that we endeavor to be more faithful in the discharge of our Christian duties, and that we live more closely to those truths and principles which our departed pas-tor ever held before us. Resolved, That we tender the be-reaved and afflicted family our heartfelt sympathy, praying that God may comfort and sustain them in this their sore distress. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the Dallas Eagle, the LINCOLN COURIER, and the Gastonia Gazette, with request to publish. JOHN A. ADERHOLDT, MICHAEL CARPENTER, EMANUEL RUDSILL, } Committee. Trinity Dots. [The following was received too late for last week's issue.—ED.] Mr. Daniel Yount has been very ill for the past while. William Fairbright and Miss Em-ma Lay were married at Esq. John son's last Sunday. We wish them much joy. Mr. John Downs, near Trinity, was married in Gaston county last week and brought his wife home last Monday. The people around Trinity are rejoicing that to-day is the last day of the present Congress, and we hope that there will never be such a rotten set of men elected to fill their places. Mar. 4, 1891. T. L. Lowesville Letter. ED. COURIER:—Again I have to chronicle the death of a prominent citizen of Lowesville. Col. George Whitfield Kincaid was born March 4, 1811 and died March 7, 1891, aged 80 years and 3 days. He was for many years prominent in county matters, taking a lively interest in everything that pertained to the welfare of his county and State. For many years he has been a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, dying in full faith of having a part in the first resurrection. He has been an invalid for three years. He seemingly did not die, but just went to sleep. Such is the death of the righteous. Frank Riley was found dead in his horse-stable one day last week. He lived in "The Bend" in Gaston county. Miss Ann Kincaid is still quite low with pneumonia. Hon. D. Kincaid is supposed to be taking pneumonia. He is quite sick. Mrs. Sophia Davis is quite sick also. Every-body is complaining of being unwell. Miss Martha Hewitt of Catawba, N. C., is visiting friends at Hager's, N. C. The incessant rains have about stopped all travel on the roads, and farm work is entirely out of the question. The farmers look a little "blue" but have not lost all hope yet. If the rains continue another week, it will make planting late. The "prophets" say we will have a dry summer. Success to the COURIER. BILL SHANKS. Lowesville, N. C., March 9, '91. For the COURIER. Letter From Trinity Church. TRINITY CHURCH, Mar. 9, '91. There has been a Sunday School organized at Trinity, with Mr. John Rudisill as president, and Mr. Hen-ry P. Killian vice-president, Mr. Lawrence Camp Secretary. Mr. Camp has to see about procuring books and Sunday School Leaves. We hope every body around Trinity will attend Sabbath School and do all they can to help the good work along. There was not any preach-ing at Trinity last Sabbath on account of the inclement weather. It being so disagreeable that the Rev. J. F. Austin could not reach here, therefore there was no Church ser-vices. There is some sickness in our neighborhood, Mr. Luther Abernathy is very ill, he has had a spell of that much dreaded LaGrippe, and has taken a relapse with fevers. It has rained so much, and people have traveled the roads so steadily that it seems that there is not any mud holes, but the whole road is a deep mud hole, in traveling along the road now, one would think that the bottom had fallen out of the whole road. There will be preaching at the Oak Bank Church next Sabbath by Rev. L. Lohr, every body invited to attend. C. C. H. How Progressive Towns do. The city of Providence, R. I., pro-poses to spend $4,000,000 on public improvements, increasing water works, extending streets and parks, and building school houses. The capitalists of Cincinnati, a few years ago raised a howl because it was proposed to expend $4,000 for sim-ilar purposes in that city, but the work was done, and it is now con-ceded that the money could not have been more judiciously expend-ed. We know personally that the same thing is true, on a smaller scale, of Charlotte, N. C. Cities that expect to keep in good compan-y must make a decent appearance and provide some spending money. It is not expected that Monroe will make such extensive appropriations as those mentioned, but it is obvi-ous that some step in the same di-rection is badly needed.—Monroe Inquirer. Colored Agricultural College. The bill to establish an Agricul-tural and Mechanical College for the colored race and appropriating $2,500 therefor was taken up. Senator Bellamy championed it and the bill passed without a dissenting voice.—State Chronicle. The Grady Monument. ATLANTA, March 6.—The Grady Monument Committee to-day unan-imsly resolved to invite Governor David B. Hill, of New York, to make the address on the occasion of the unveiling of the monument of Hen-ry W. Grady in Atlanta during the summer. It is understood that he will accept. A Statue To John Wesley. LONDON, March 2.—To-day being the one hundredth anniversary of the death of John Wesley, the great theologian and founder of Methodism, a statue erected in his honor was unveiled in the presence of a large concourse of people to front of the City Road Chapel, the headquarters of the Wesleyans. Rev. Frederic William Farrar, Archdeacon of Westminster, took part in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the statue, and afterward, with Sir Robert N. Fow-ler, one of the members of Parlia-ment for London City Road Chap-el, extolling the virtues of Wesley. Miss Bessie H. Bedloe, of Bur-lington, Vt., had a disease of the scalp which caused her hair to be-come very harsh and dry and to fall so freely she scarcely dared comb it. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave her a healthy scalp, and made the hair beautifully thick and glossy. The Woman Who Beat Ingalls WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25.—Mrs Mary A. Lease of Kansas, the Farm-ers' Alliance speaker, who claims to have beaten Ingalls and elected Peffer, broke loose at the Woman's Council last night and created a sensation by her vicious anarchistic utterances and her personal abuse of Senator Ingalls. She had en-deavored to make her Kansas cam-paign speech during the afternoon, but Miss Frances Willard, the pres-ident of the Council, with a keen sense of propriety, stopped her. She refused to be subdued, howev-er, unless she was promised an op-portunity last evening. There was a long programme and it was near-ly eleven o'clock when the last reg-ular address was finished. Mrs. Lease, who had patiently waited throughout the long evening ses-sion, arose and began. Although's Opera House had been packed, nine-tenths of the audience being women, but when Mrs. Lease's turn came the house was only about two-thirds full. The Hon. Jerry Simp-son and the Alliance Congressman-elect in the city were present. Mrs. Lease is tall, angular and apparent-ly bloodless. She was attired in black, and her face was severe in its expression. Stepping to the foot lights she repeated in dramatic style, and in a voice that would put a Kansas blizzard to blush, the fol-lowing words: Swing outward, oh gates of the morning. Swing inward, ye doors of the past. A giant is coming from the east. The people are waking at last. Then she entered into a harangue which partook in some measure of the tariff lunacy of the Hon. Roger Q. Mills, but in a greater degree of the incendiary utterances of Lucy A. Parsons. It was the same speech with which she crazed the farmers of Kansas, and she turned it on the defenseless members of the Wom-an's Council. She then went on with a long harangue, in the course of which she attacked Senator Ingalls as a con-summate rascal. JENKINS BROS. ONE PRICE CASH STORE. SPRING MILLINERY. THE EXTREMELY LOW PRICES Which I Have Made on EVERY LINE of My MAMMOTH STOCK of Goods During the month of November, has filled my store with eager purchasers, and, in consequence thereof, although ALL classes of goods have advanced in price, I will continue to sell every article now in store at LESS than its INTRINSIC VALUE. It is only fair to my customers that they should share with me some of the benefits of the low prices I obtained for the CASH. So, until my entire stock is exhausted, the consumer will find me waging war against the tariff of high prices. I am offer-ing the best values in Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Jeans, Blankets, Comforts, Shoes, Hats, Hardware and Clothing at less than they can be had elsewhere. A saving of one-third is guaranteed to every purchaser of an over-coat or suit of clothes, and I can fit anyone from a 3-year-old boy up to "Jumbo." My OIL GRAIN SHOES are the "wonder of the world" at the price. Sell your cotton and come to me for bargains. RESPECTFULLY, JNO. L. COBB.
