$1.50 A YEAR THE LINCOLN COURIER ONE DOLLAR ANDA

HALFIA

YEAR.

Since we changed the price of the Courier to One Dollar there has been but little variance in the Subscription list and we therefore conclude that the people who want a county paper are willing to pay $1.50 for it, at any rate we cannot afford to publish the Courier at $1.00 a year. Henceforth we will hold to our original price $1.50 a year.

WE GO FORWARD.

The Industrial Convention Talks Sense.

It was 10:30 o'clock yesterday when President Bargwyn's gavel tell and the Convention came to order.

The Counties to Act. Col. Jno. D. Cameron, from the committee on resolutions, submitted the following report, which after debate was adopted: RESOLVED, that the Board of County Commissioners of each county in the State and the Justices of the Peace of the same in their joint session in the month of June in the present year be requested to take the proper steps to have the products, industries and evidence of the resources of their respective connties collected and exhibited at the Southern Inter State Exposition to be held in Raleigh in October and November, 1891, and that these exhibits be placed in the hands of the managers of the North Carolina exhibit to be shown at the Columbian exposition at Chicago in 1892. The Board of Health.

The following resolution regarding the Board of Health was adopt-

That the co-operation of the North Carolina Board of Health, the State Medical Society and prominent physicians residing in North Carolina he requested to farnish to the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau information on the sources and quality of drinking water, the climatic condition or other informaitary condition of North Cato'in . The Committee on resolutions recommended the adoption of the following and it was adopted:

RESOLVED, That while we recogn nize the importance of agriculture and that it will long if not always continue the chief course and basis of the material - prosperity of our State, we believe that our peop'e should study and encourage a dir versity of pursuits in our midst and that with a paternal and charitable feeling for the prosperity of all our sister States, we think that when such pursuits are established in our State by North Carolinians or others, the people here should do all in their power to foster them.

Mr. Sparger then offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, it is announced that call has been made by land and development companies and real estate agents throughout the South to hold a Convention to the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 24th of June,

RESOLVED. That we request the cits izens of Raleigh to organize for the proper reception and entertainment of that body which will be composed of gentlemen from many Southern States, and further that the railroads be requested to issue special excursion rates to this important gathering so the people of North Carolina may meet progressive busigess men that are doing so much for the development of the Sou'b.

Tue Convention then adjourned subject to the call of the Presiden .
