Mr. Carpenter is an Alliance man. —The secretary kindly furnished us with the proceedings of Alliance meeting held at Machpelah last week, which we publish elsewhere. Some right interesting points are noticeable. —The College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, Raleigh, opens Fall term on September 1. Any one desiring to attend this institution should confer with the county Superintendent at an early day. —Lincolnton county is entitled to one scholarship at the Normal and Industrial school of North Carolina for girls. Application must be made before the first of August. Address Chas. D. McIver, Pres., Greensboro, for particulars. —Maj. J. O. Cobb, delegate to the Chicago convention, returned home last Saturday, overflowing with enthusiasm for CLEVELAND. He spent some time in Illinois after the convention, and he says that that State is almost certain to go Democratic. —Died near Salem Baptist church last Monday, July 18th, 1892, Mr. Hilliard Judge Yarborough, aged 80 years. He was the father of 13 children, 9 of whom are living; and the grandfather of 36, 32 of whom are living. He was buried at Salem Tuesday. —The machinery for the new roller mills which Mr. John Kadisil is building has arrived and was taken to the plant this week. The machinery is for the long roller system and the mills will doubtless be the finest ever put up in Western North Carolina. —Married on Wednesday morning, July 13, 1892, at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. R. B. Killian, a promising young physician and Miss Ella Rhodes, one of Lincolnton counties charming young ladies. They left at once for Baltimore and other points of interest. —Married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Sam'l Blackburn, of Catawba county, July 17, 1892, by Rev. J. L. Murphy, of Hickory, Mr. J. C. Wartok of this county and Miss Jennie Blackburn. The COURIER desires to extend to the newly married its hearty congratulations. —We hope to attend the Press Association convention at Charlotte next week, and if we can collect enough subscriptions in the meantime, may take advantage of the excursion to Washington and New York. The Convention in Charlotte will doubtless be the best ever held in the State. —The Third party will hold its convention here next Saturday. Wonder if our friends, Dr. Hahn and Prof. DeLane won't both be in it. Boys, if these two should lock shields in this campaign we may have to change our notion about that victory we predicted some time ago. However, we shall keep our pencil sharp and try to keep cool. —Died of consumption at this place, Wednesday, July 20, 1892, Mrs. R. M. Roseman, aged 33 years. She has been in feeble health for some time. Her death was a very sad one. She leaves behind her a devoted husband and 6 little children, the youngest of whom is only about 2 years old. The burial services, conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. Z. Johnston, took place from the new Presbyterian church and her body was laid to rest in the cemetery of the "old white church". She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and was an estimable lady, highly esteemed by all who knew her. —The American Bridge Company has had a force of hands repairing the bridge of the Carolina Central R. R. across the South Fork river near the western limits of the corporation since May 7th. They have just completed their work and return today to Roanoke, Va. Capt. Geo. Lipscomb has been in charge of the force which was composed of W. H. Forecy, P. B. Johnston, Lee Birely, Fred Blanchard, John Dunaway, and J. K. Wissenger. They boarded at the Lincolnton Hotel, and during their stay have made many friends by their industrious habits and gentlemanly deportment. We will all ways be glad to see them in our town, and there may be gentle influences here that will attract at least a portion of them back. —The word "other" has got a habit of putting itself in where it ought not to be. If people are not very careful in conversation or in writing this same mischievous word will run in and make them say very funny things, such as will furnish food for the critic. You begin, for instance, to tell of a certain man's meeting with the misfortune of being bitten by a mad dog and of a successful application of a madstone, etc. Then you go on to tell the fact that 11 dogs were bitten and what does this same word do but interject itself in where it has not the slightest right and causes you to make the awkward expression, "The dog bit 11 other dogs." This same naughty word crept into a sentence in the COURIER last week and caused us to make an awkward expression. But we have gotten our eye on the word and shall endeavor hereafter to make it take its proper position. —Some unscrupulous person has been slandering the editor of this paper in a way that deserves public remonstrance. The report by some mysterious means, has been circulated among our subscribers that the editor is a millionaire; that he does not, therefore, need any financial help; that subscriptions need not be paid, in as much as he can afford to live without them. "What" say these bearers of evil report "does a millionaire need with subscriptions? Let him wait till we have more money than we need, and then pay him." Now the fact is, if it were not for the editor's garden, he would be without food, as well as without money. He does not know who started the evil report referred to nor does he know that any such report has been started at all, but he does know that subscriptions are in great distress for want of attention and that, owing to the editor's deep sympathy for subscriptions he is in the same state of existence. He is, therefore, in an awkward position. Here is an editor probably accused of being a millionaire, while the fact is he is not able to bear the expense of prosecuting the bearer of such slanderous report. He has decided, however, that if those who have entertained the idea that he does not need his pay, will abandon their error and act in accordance with the fact that he is in great need of that to which all things render humble submission, he will promise not to make any prosecutions. A HORRIBLE MURDER. A Young Man Smith Found Dead in the Road Near Trinity Church. Late last Sunday evening news reached Lincolnton of the killing of a young man by the name of Will Smith near Trinity Church on last Sunday evening, about 3 miles above Reepsville in this county. The coroner was sent for, but that office being vacant, Mr. J. B. Heime was qualified by the Clerk of Superior Court. A jury of inquest was held over the dead body on Monday. Drs. Crouse and Sa'n examined the wound and found that a 32 caliber ball had entered the body near the third rib, passed through the lung and lodged against the spinal column. The body was found about a half mile from the church, in a by road that is not much used. A number of witnesses were examined and it was shown that Smith, the murdered man, had been seen on that morning with a young man by the name of Bob Jonas. The two were seen again leaving the church together after preaching, about 1 o'clock. After examining a number of witnesses the jury rendered a verdict that in their opinion the deceased came to his death by a ball shot from the pistol of Bob Jonas. A warrant was issued for Jonas, but he has not yet been captured. He is said to be dodging the officers. Will Smith was the son of Frank Smith who lives a few miles below Lincolnton. Judge Schenck. The many friends and admirers here of Judge D. Schenck, of Greensboro, were glad to see him in Lincolnton this week. He was accompanied by his estimable wife. A committee of our Democratic club waited on him with a request that he remain over till Tuesday night of this week and address the club on the political issues of the day, but he declined to speak for us so that we were deprived of the pleasure of a speech from him. He assured us, however, that he was the same old Democrat that he had always been, and that he hoped that all his old friends and acquaintances of Lincolnton county would put forth every effort to lead the Democratic party to a glorious victory. He assured us further that he would speak here some time during the campaign. We hope he will be able to come at an early day. The people of Lincolnton will hail his coming with delight. County Alliance at Machpelah. The Lincolnton County Farmers' Alliance held its Third quarterly meeting with Machpelah sub-Alliance July 14, 1892. The Pres. and vice-Pres. being absent, Bro. M. M. A resolution was offered by the committee on "Good of the Order," to wit:—Resolved, That the committee be instructed to invite Bro. A. C. Shuford, Dist. Lect., to speak

Hoover was elected delegate to State Alliance, with Bro. G. W. Hahn as alternate. On motion, reaffirmed our allegiance to the St. Louis platform by a vote of 47 to 6. Bro. W. A. Graham offered the following resolution: Resolved, That this Alliance endorse the Hickory Mercury for its bold defense of our doctrines, and as our organ. We earnestly urge the members to give it that support it so earnestly deserves. Adopted. The officers elect were installed. Sec'y was ordered to send the proceedings to Hickory Mercury for publication. A resolution was voted Machpelah sub-Alliance for hospitality, especially the dinner (it is useless to say it was plenty and good, for all who know the Machpelah people know that). Adjourned to meet with Triangle sub-Alliance 2nd Thursday in October at ten o'clock sharp. M. M. LUTZ, Pres. Wm. H. HOOPER, Sec. P. S. The meeting was harmonious and the reports of sub-secretries show the Alliance in good healthy condition and an increase over last quarter. Sec'y. A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone. Just received a lot of the celebrated Featherbone Corsets. Why are they better than all others? 1. They fit better. 2. They wear better. 3. They are more stylish. 4. They are more comfortable. 5. They are cheaper.
