RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 7 .- News eccived here to-day of a most important decision of the United States Supreme court in the Halifax sase involving the liability of the wanch lines of the Wilmington and Veldon railway to taxation. The State Supreme court said their exemption from taxation was void besause it was a perpetuit, and in tue ation of an exclusive privilege for odden by the constitution. This lectsion of the State court is affirm ed by the United States court, which toes even further. The decision is of great moment to the state.

The board of directors of the inane a-ylum met to-day. The an ual report was made and was a very avorable one. No public institution mywhere is better managed.

the report of superintendent Wood was submitted. It is the best over made and shows that while nere are rooms for only 204 pasients there have during the past wo years on a general average beet ighty more than that number and at one time there were 330. The annual appropriation is $26 000 and he saving has been $12,000 verily a providing for so many within the oppropriation for a much smaller auarber. The mortality during the year was under 6 per cent and the percentage of cures of nearly 22 per sent. Fitt-en thousand dollars was two years ago appropriated for improvements, and this has been most indiciously expended. The hoard was formished with plans for hospity als for infirmaries and will ask the Legislature to appropriate $40,000 tor these. They are absolutely necessary. The board has been forbed to decline admission to 700 insane, who need treatment, and will go before the Legislature and lay be fore that body the pressing need for the building above named. The case is an urgent one and relief must be
