ONE OF THE REASONS the Republican party held on to the government so long was because when they were in power they honored by appointments those who honored them at elections.

Secretary Smith's Policy.

Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith recently outlined his future policy to a representative of the New York Herald, according to a published interview in that paper.

Under Another Name.

The present political situation in Georgia makes timely the ancient adage that "Unceasing vigilance is the price of liberty."

Marion Butler in Cabarrus.

The passing through Concord this morning of a member of well known Third party men elicited inquiries which revealed the fact that they were en route to Mt. Gilead, where Marion Butler has an appointment to speak.

What the People Should Keep in Mind.

The people of North Carolina should always keep in mind that the Third party leaders are not Democrats, but are as much opposers to the confirmed supremacy of the Democratic party as the Republicans themselves are.

to us that while the Democratic party should seek to induce the return to our ranks of the substantial voters who at the last election turned away from their old party, yet those who have caused all the trouble ought to be tabooed.

Cleveland's Statement Inspires Confidence.

By Southern Associated Press. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—The authoritative statement of Mr. Cleveland yesterday in which he announced the present and future policy of the administration relative to the use of gold reserve, has taken the edge off of the excitement that followed the act of the Secretary of the Treasury in dipping into the Treasury. If there has been any danger of financial flurry that danger appears now to have passed.

A People's Party Paper.

Special to the Charlotte Observer. CONCORD, April 20.—After a session of the Alliance here this morning Mr. Butler delivered a two hours speech to a crowded house. There were a number from Rowan and Mecklenburg present.

Raleigh Simply Disgusted.

Special to the Charlotte Observer. RALEIGH, April 20.—Quite a ripple of excitement was caused in political circles here, yesterday afternoon, by the publication of the classification of the post office received from Washington City. When it was generally conceded that the application of the civil service regulations would be made to cover the letter carriers and perhaps the minor clerks of the office, it was not expected that it would involve the entire force.

The Axeman Must be Weary.

The New York Press prints a story to the effect that President Cleveland instructed Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell to appoint to Congressman Conn of Indiana. Mr. Conn has recommended fifty-two fourth class postmasters in his district to Mr. Maxwell.

Liberty Bell Starts for Chicago.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Liberty bell was lowered from its position in Independent Hall Saturday. To-day it was placed on a truck especially constructed for the purpose and escorted by the Philadelphia contingent of the Pennsylvania National Guard to the Pennsylvania Railroad depot whence the train bearing the bell and escort will leave for Chicago to-morrow morning.

Washington News.

Correspondence of the Courier. WASHINGTON, April 24, 1893.—Christopher Columbus is in Washington. Not the discoverer of America, but his descendant, the Duke of Veragua, who is in America as the specially invited and honored guest of the United States, for the purpose of attending the opening of the Columbian Exposition held in honor of his illustrious ancestor.

Mr. Conn angrily left the room, after telling Mr. Maxwell he would have nothing more to do with him, and saying that he proposed to help the people of his district know that he was not entitled to any consideration from the administration.

Then, the story goes, Mr. Cleveland heard of the affair and sent for Mr. Bissell and Mr. Bissell sent for Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Maxwell sent his card up to Mr. Conn and apologized and promised to do better in the future with the fifty-two Indiana applications.
