Hon. A. C. Aycock, Attorney General of the eastern district. The western district is still in doubt as to who will receive the collectorship and the attorney's place. The matter will probably be settled, however, by the first of June.OUR WASHINGTON LETTER this week contains some interesting reading. The purpose of the Democratic leaders to take a stand for a change of the election law, tariff law, establish income tax &c., is encouraging. These are burning questions and something on these lines are earnestly expected by the people of the Democratic party and we have great hopes that when Congress re-assembles something of importance will be accomplished in that direction. If these purposes are carried out, and we believe they will be, then there will be no further excuse for a Third party.

TO BE OPEN ON SUNDAY.

CHICAGO, May 12.—On and after May 21 the World's Fair grounds will be open every Sunday. This decision was reached at a meeting of the exposition in the Rand Mc-Nally building this afternoon. President Higginbotham had called upon Edwin Walker, who is chairman of the committee on legislation, to submit an opinion whether or not the exposition can be opened on Sunday in spite of the restriction placed upon this feature by Congress when the appropriation of $2,500,000 was granted.Mr. Walker presented his official and legal interpretation before the directors, which is to the effect that the law passed by Congress stipulating that the exposition should be closed on Sunday applies only to the buildings containing exhibits. Mr.
Walker's construction of the act further says that the buildings excepted for other uses, the grounds, the Midway Plaisance with its varied human panorama and things pertaining thereto may be thrown open to public inspection. After considerable discussion a resolution was proposed to open the gates on and after May 21 and to close the main building containing the exhibits. The resolution was carried by a vote of 22 to 7.Of the seven who voted nay six were in favor of opening the fair in every department and the seventh was opposed to opening the gates under any condition. Thus, upon the technicality named, the Columbian Fair will be to all intents and purposes open, leaving the public to visit throughout the grounds, to ride on the electric launches, to enjoy the novelties of the Venetian gondolas, to patronize any of the booths, and varied attractions of the Plaisance and to have a good time generally.The price of admission on Sunday will be reduced to 25 cents.[So the closing of the World's Fair on Sunday has turned out to be a farce. And more than that a premium has been set on the Sunday visits to the grounds by reducing the admission to 25 cents!—

Isn't This Rather Sudden?

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The President to-day appointed S. W.
Cramer assayer of the mint at Charlotte, N. C.—Charlotte Observer.[Mr. Cramer is the present Repub-

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

The "National Republican League" held a meeting in Louisville, Ky. last week and it was said to be attended by 5,000 Republicans.
We take the following from the New York World:LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—The National Republican League and the National Republican Committee began their work to-day. The latter, in pursuance of a caucus decision made last night, adopted resolutions confirming the action of the Executive Committee in making Thos. C. Carter chairman of the National Committee. The resignation of Chairman Campbell was accepted and Joseph H. Mauley was made secretary in place of Mr. Mc-Comas, resigned.The preliminary work was soon despatched and then President Clarkson delivered his address. The delegates cheered him so loudly and so long that he had to make several attempts before he could get down to the work of praising the G. O. P. and denouncing the democrats.He repeated all the worn-out explores of his party, and said pleasant things of the young men to encourage them to remain in the sinking ship.He discussed at length the negro question. Then he said that the country would look to the Republican minority in Congress for the safe legislation, and finally he enumerated the "new grounds and new departures" in which the Republican party might safely lead.Among these he enumerated a one term Presidency, a new plan of civil service reform, the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people, Governmental control of telegraph, courts of arbitration and conciliation for the settlement of labor disputes, improved roads and equal political rights for women.The trend of things show plainly that the Republican party proposes to try of get on a new platform.
Their eyes have evidently been opened to the fact that their past practices and doctrines will no longer be acceptable to the people. If, however, they adopt some of the plans suggested by Clarkson they will find themselves in a worse dilemma than ever.

Bissell, the Pot-Bellied Provincial.

Law Partner Bissell on Saturday last went a step beyond any previous ruling when he gave out that no presidential postmaster would be removed before the expiration of his term, except for cause, and no fourth class postmaster (these having no term) would be removed in the absence of charges. And then the block head added insult to injury by saying that this policy would be best for "doubtful States like Virginia and North Carolina." How did this pot-bellied provincial from Buffalo acquire the experience in politics or the knowledge of the situation in these two "doubtful States" which justifies him in making such deliverances about what is the "best policy" for them? We have resisted the conclusion as long as possible. Bissell is what the Chicago Herald says Ward McAllister is—just an ordinary, every-day, mouse-colored ass.—Charlotte Observer.Denial as to the Use of Ali-RALLIEGH, N. C., May 11.—We the undersigned officers of the N. C.

State Alliance, in answer to several statements by newspapers and individuals, again denounce as false the report that $4,365.18 or any other sum was appropriated or allowed to be used in the interest of the People's party last year. Not one cent of Alliance funds were used for such a purpose. By order of the executive committee at the May meeting last year, all the Alliance lecturers were withdrawn from the field, this being several weeks prior to the first start to organize a new party. Not a cent was paid for lecturing after that time and no money was used for other than legitimate expenses of the Alliance.Signed, S. B. ALEXANDER, Correspondence of the COURIER.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1893.— Speaker Crisp, after spending a week in Washington, left for home Saturday night. He was in a glorious good humor, as he had a right to be, for it is now as certain as anything in the future can be that he will be elected Speaker of the next House. President Cleveland informed him before he left that he had fully decided, notwithstanding the arguments presented by prominent members of the party in favor of an earlier date, not to call an extra session of Congress before September.The leaders of the democratic party have it is stated agreed upon four things to be pressed when Congress meets, and it is probable that President Cleveland's message to Congress, and may be his proclamation calling the extra session, will be largely devoted to arguments for speedy action upon them—the repeal of the obnoxious Federal election laws; the levying of an income tax; the repeal of the Sherman silver law and of the tax on the currency issued by state banks, and a complete revision of the tariff, lowering the duties.Secretary Carlisle defied the high muck-a-mucks of mowmowery who tried to bulldoze him into retreating the republican chiefs of divisions in his department, and is proceeding to replace them with democrats, just as he at first intended to do, and working democrats admire him more than ever.Reforms in keeping with democratic ideas are being quietly introduced into all of the Government departments as fast as their heads have an opportunity to investigate abuses which have grown up under republican rule. Secretary Herbert's order that no more naval officers should be granted leave of absence to enter private employ was followed by Secretary Lamont's determination to stop similar abuses in the army, and not only to refuse to allow it in future but to revoke the leaves of all those officers now engaged in other occupations, except those granted by special acts of Congress. Sec. Lamont has also announced his intention to make almost a reorganization in that important branch of the War department known as the division of records and pension. This division is closely associated with the Pension Bureau, as it has to verify the army record of every applicant for a pension. Some forty or fifty changes have already been made in this division.It may be true that Comptroller of Currency Eccles has had no experience in the actual details of banking, but the promptness with which he has acted during the past few days, when the suspension of national banks for a time were frequent enough to be alarming, has convinced the Treasury officials and the banking world that he is thoroughly posted upon the laws that govern banks and that as a cool-headed business man he has never had a superior in that office. He has proven himself to be a valuable assistant to Sec. Carlisle and his promptness in dealing with suspended banks has had no little to do with restoring that public confidence without which banks of no kind can long exist. Mr. Cleveland made no mistake in selecting that young man for comptroller.Commissioner Lochren is already finding his place a very hard one to fill, but he is not disappointed; he did not suppose that he was selected to take charge of the Pension Bureau merely to draw a salary already a series of frauds, all put through by one pension attorney, located at Norfolk Va., have been discovered and a force of expert examiners are now engaged in investigating every case that this attorney has had anything to do with, the Commissioner being determined to get to the bottom, and to punish the guilty. The worst thing about the crooked work done by this attorney is that it was called to Commissioner's Raam's attention last year and he declined to prosecute him, because it might injure the republican party. The amount of money obtained by these fraudulent pensioners cannot be exactly stated until the examiners have concluded their investigation, but it is already known that it is more than $100,000.
But there is one thing that can be positively stated, and that is, that the frauds will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law by Commissioner Lochren, just as fast as the necessary evidence can be gathered,regardless of who or what may be injured thereby. Judge Lochren has abrogated the notorious "completed files" rule, which was made by Raam to please the pension attorney who indorsed his notes for twenty odd thousand dollars soon after he took charge of the Pension Office.Hoke Smith and Congressman Livingston Fighting over the Patronage.WASHINGTON, May 13.—Representative Leonidas F. Livingston, of the Atlanta district of Georgia, and Secretary Hoke Smith, of that State, are having a regular monkey and parrot time over the question of who shall control the patronage in the Atlanta district. For several years these eminent Georgians have been bitter personal as well as political enemies. Hoke Smith's paper fought Livingston vigorously for Congress, and Livingston retaliated by doing all in his power to prevent Mr. Cleveland appointing Hoke Smith to the Cabinet. Mr. Smith has given orders to the young men conducting his paper at home that Livingston's name shall never appear in it unless there was something unfavorable to say about him.
The fight between them has, however, been outside the newspapers until now, but open war was declared yesterday. It came about in this way:A half dozen men in the little town of Conyers, in Georgia, made application for the Postmastership at that place. Mr. Livingston went home to see who the people of the town wanted. During his absence and before he had filed any of the papers, Secretary Smith went to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Maxwell and asked for the appointment of George W. Weaver.
The appointment was made without advising with Mr. Livingston, and Mr. Bennett, Secretary Smith's private secretary, telegraphed to Weaver's friends that the appointment would be "made without Congressional interference."When Mr. Livingston, who was at Conyers looking into the matter of making a selection, heard of the announcement and read Mr. Smith's telegram he rushed back to Washington on the first train and demanded to know of Headman Maxwell what he meant by making an appointment in his district without consulting with him, especially when he had promised to do nothing in the matter until his return. Mr.
Maxwell replied that Secretary Smith and Senator Gordon had requested the appointment, and he felt it his duty to honor their request."Then I want to know if Mr.
Smith is to revise all my recommendations?" asked Mr. Livingston, with an air of indignation."I don't know about that," replied Mr. Maxwell."Well, I shall see the President about this matter," said the Geo-rganian. "If the Administration intends to allow Mr. Smith to appoint fourth class Postmasters in my district then I am going to hit back."Mr. Livingston is indignant at this attempt on the part of Secretary Smith to belittle him with the people of his own district, and is determined to use his good right arm upon the person of the Secretary."There is no denying the fact," said he, "that Hoke Smith means to destroy me politically, if it be in his power. He despises me and I haven't a much kinder feeling for him. But he has declared war now and I mean to fight.""Mr. Livingston will see the President on Tuesday, when the matter will be laid before him.—Charlotte

Taken from a Grave Alive.

HENDERSON, N. C., May 12.—Dr.
F. S. Harris received a letter from his mother who is visiting at Max-ton, in which she recalls the history of some strange happenings there in the long ago, the high character of the writer being guaranteed that it is authentic. Your correspondent is permitted to make the following verbatim extract from Mrs. Harris' letter which is dated Maxton, N. C., May 9, 1893:"We went last Friday and spent the day with Mrs. Margaret Hines McIntire, and had a pleasant day.
They live in a large, old-fashioned house that was built seventy or eighty years ago. It has been in their family sixty years ago. Two old ladies live in the house. They tell me that a rich family named Stewart lived there before they bought it. Mrs. Stewart died and was buried. That night the negroes dug her up to get the rings off her fingers, and she waked up and came to life. She went to the house and knocked at the door.
Her husband knew her voice and asked if she was 'in the flesh' or 'in the spirit.' She said: 'In the flesh.' He let her in, and she recovered entirely and lived many years. She

A Friend

Wishes to speak through the Register of the beneficial results he has received from a regular use of Ayer's Pills.
He says: "I was feeling sick and tired and my stomach seemed all out of order.
I tried a number of remedies, but none seemed to give me relief until I was induced to try the old reliable Ayer's Pills. I have taken only one box, but I feel like a new man. I think they are the most pleasant and easy to take of anything I ever used, being so finely sugar-coated that even a child will take them. I urge upon all who are

In Need of a laxative to try Ayer's Pills."— Boothby (Me.), Register."Between the ages of five and fifteen, I was troubled with a kind of salt-rheum, or eruption, chiefly confined to the legs, and especially to the bend of the knee above the calf. Here, running sores formed which would scab over, but would break immediately on moving the leg. My mother tried everything she could think of, but all was without avail. Although a child, I read in the papers about the beneficial effects of Ayer's Pills, and persuaded my mother to let me try them. With no great faith in the result, she procured

Ayer's Pills

and I began to use them, and soon noticed an improvement. Encouraged by this, I kept on till I took two boxes, when the sores disappeared and have never troubled me since."—H. Chipman, Iron Estate Agent, Rouses Point, N. Y."I suffered for years from stomach and kidney troubles, causing very severe pains in various parts of the body. None of the remedies I tried afforded me any relief until I began taking Ayer's Pills, and was cured."—Wm. Goldard, Notary

ONE PRICE CASH STORE
Over 300 Ladies Hats in Six Days.

How Does that Sound for Old Lincolnton?

We said at the beginning of this year, that we were going to make this our most successful business year, and in order to do this, we started out with the determination of selling the very best quality of goods at the very lowest cash price, consistent with the quality of the goods. And as we have always been careful in advertising, never to make a statement that we could not fully stand up to, therefore the public at once took for granted that we meant exactly what we said, and have been showing their appreciation of our efforts, by patronizing us in a most liberal way.This week we are going to make it lively by offering Special inducements in the following
