-A severe storm prevailed at Iron Station last Sunday afternoon during the funeral of Mr. Monroe Lineberger in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Geo. A. Sparrow preached on Saturday and Sunday and conducted the funeral. The rain wind thunder and lightning made it peculiarly distressing and several horses fell from the shock in the grove.

Died Suddenly.

Mr. J. W. Bean, a former resident of Lincolnton but more recently of Gastonia, came to this place last Saturday to visit his children who still reside here. He had been in feeble health for some time and came here with the hope of being improved. He stopped with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Doty. On Sunday he suffered some severe internal pains, and on Monday morning about two o'clock he was stricken with convulsions from which he died at 2:20 o'clock His wife was telegraphed for and arrived on the 10 o'clock train Monday. His remains were laid to rest at one o'clock on Tuesday. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. F. Jones, of Gaston-

Hood's Sarsaparil la does this, as thousands of grateful and happy men and women can testify, and increased use of this standard spring medicine is of more real practical importance in promoting health and quiet in the business world than reams of abstract theorizing.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure -Mr. C. H. Odell returned home with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufre ared by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constiintional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts dis rectly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Addres-,

Born a Genius Disease Threatens to Cut Short a Noble Career

But Hood's Sarsaparilla Restores Good Health.

Lillie May Bentley is an accomplished elocu-tionist and natural born speaker of only 12 years of age. She is the only ohlid temperance lect-urer before the public. Her genlus, however, did not exempt her from an attack of a disease of the blood. Her own words best tell the story: C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"I heartily join with the many thousands that are recommending Hood's Sarsaparills. I had been troubled from infancy with gatherings in the head. I was compelled to leave school upon the doctor's advice. He thought it was the only thing to save my life, but I
