TO PLAY LOVEY MARY.

Freddy Nabel Taliadoro, Who Will Appear in "Mrs. Wiggs".
Miss Nabel Taliadoro, who will play the part of Lovey Mary in the forthcoming production of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," is one of the best known of the young actresses on the American stage. When but three years old she made her debut in "Peter Pan" and since that time has developed from the sweetest of child actresses into a young woman whose knowledge and mystery of her art perfume for her a future of brilliant success.

Miss Taliadoro has appeared in many plays. She made a decided hit in Ziegfeld's "The Children of the Ghetto" and in London a critic epithetized her as "a Duse in repose" and a Maud Adams in appearance". In this particular case Captain Jones was called to the position of second mate from midshipman and from second mate to chief officer and finally to captain, but he wasn't looked upon as full grown yet. He was a hambling lark, and he was not given to long speeches, but for some reason the steamer company had an idea that should in case among arms Captain Jones would rise to it and do them honor. If his career didn't move with the officers of the company it was because they were hampered about as lively and would have had him stuck in a hole in the wall. It was sufficient for them that he always stuck to his name, and he was wrong and he had a way of sticking him up with belaying pins and other things.
