

Tribute to An Old School Teacher.

Where are all my school mates? Echo answers "They are they!" Many of them have crossed over the river, while some have moved away to distant lands, and a very few others are just scattered here and there.

A HANGING AT STATESVILLE.

The Murderer of Mrs. Beaver Pays for His Crime on the Scaffold—Felt Sure That He Would Go to Heaven.

Special to The Charlotte Observer: Statesville, Sept. 10.—Wilford Roseboro was hanged here today, for killing Mrs. Beaver. He was put on the scaffold at 12 o'clock and as he did not want to make any public statement Sheriff Summers threw the trap at 12:05 o'clock.

He dropped six feet and four inches. His neck was broken and his pulse ceased to beat in six minutes and the physicians pronounced him dead in 15 minutes. After the trap was thrown there was one or two slight contortions of the body.

The execution was conducted in the jail yard. There were two or three thousand people here to see the execution and when the prisoner was put on the scaffold the crowd tore down the improvised enclosure prepared by the sheriff to make it more private.

Two of my school mates lost their lives in the war. One was killed at Manassas, the other died in prison. I never had a whipping at school, but there was a time when I thought I ought to have had one.

I then began to hunt in, and said, "No, Bill, you needn't go; I don't want you to."

"Oh, yes," he said, and started. "Go back, Bill," I said, "I was just joking."

"Oh, no," he said. "So I had to proceed on home with my unweakened gait."

I had an older brother in the school who owned a fine little pen knife. One evening after school was out he had his knife out whittling and said: "Bill, what will you give me for your knife?"

"Well, I believe I'll give you a fater," My brother, just for fun, agreed. Bill had an older brother standing nearby watching the negotiation, and seeing the trade about to be consummated he sprang forward with the exclamation, "You Bill, you goin' to give a fater for that knife?" and snatched the potato from Bill's hand.

What is Life? In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble.

I want your old Iron.—J. D. Parker. For putting in prime condition any horse or mule the best of all remedies is Ashcraft's Condition Powders. These Powders are wonderfully effective because they create appetite, the digestion is made perfect, worms and parasites destroyed, and the system cleansed of all gross humors.

Ashcraft's Condition Powders are wrapped in doses. In fact, in their preparation the same care is used that a druggist would exercise in the filling of a physician's prescription.

Two days after the murder Sheriff Summers arrested Roseboro in Polk county, where he was at work with a squad of railroad hands. He was kept in jail in Charlotte until Wednesday, Aug. 12, when he was brought to Statesville, tried by Judge Allen and sentenced to be hanged.

During Roseboro's four weeks' imprisonment here, awaiting his execution, his conduct puzzled those who frequently saw and talked to him in his cell. A few days after he was put in jail he confessed that he had killed Mrs. Beaver; said he choked her to death. But when questioned as to details connected with the crime his memory was blank.

He claims that he was drunk and did not know what he did. His mother said he was not drunk as she could detect when he went home, shortly after he committed the crime.

A Cow's Tail Curtailed. Mr. W. N. Davis' Holstein-Jersey family milk cow is minus the major portion of her caudal appendage—and thereby hangs a narrative. Saturday the cow was tethered out to graze in the thin patch of woods near his slaughter-pen, just outside the southern limits of town.

In the afternoon the negro man who has charge of the slaughter pen found the cow still grazing, but over two feet of her tail was hanging to a small pine tree nearby. The tree bore marks of having gone through a strenuous tussle and it is supposed that the cow, having wrapped her tail around the tree, in her efforts to extricate herself pulled her tail in, to a rather unusual happening indeed.

The protruding leaders and ragged edges of the hide preclude the supposition that it was cut by some person and placed around the tree. The bark was torn off and the tree had evidently been pulled close to the ground. Mr. Davis has had many years' experience with cattle but this is the first accident of this kind that he has encountered.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Has world-wide fame for marvelous cures. It surpasses any other salve, ointment, or balm for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bolls, Sores, Felons, Ulcers, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Chapped Hands, Skin Eruptions; Infallible for Piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. at English Drug Co's.

Where Human Life is Cheap. Charlotte Observer. The press dispatches from Con stratinope assert that from 30,000 to 40,000 people have been massacred by Turkish soldiers. There are doubtless two and two places in the world where such things could occur without causing a stir—in the Balkans and in China. The world has become a regard-human life in these countries as exceedingly cheap.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents.

Soft Core. Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere. The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil. For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

Mulberry Trees for North Carolina Farmers.

The two past seasons' experience in silk growing in North Carolina have proved a most gratifying success. It has demonstrated that the women and children of the State may by light and interesting work during six weeks of early summer earn, without interfering seriously with their ordinary duties, from $30 to $40. Those who can devote more time to the work can earn even more.

To place silk growing upon a permanent basis, we must increase the output of silk cocoons so as to attract to the State silk reeders and weavers, thus creating a home market for the product of the silkworm.

The first and most necessary step is to increase the available supply of silk-worm food. We must plant mulberry trees until each farm suited for this kind of product has at least 100 trees. Every farm having dry soil, lying between Goldsboro and Asheville, can successfully grow mulberry trees and produce silk.

In order to encourage the planting of the mulberry, the State Department of Agriculture will distribute during the fall of 1903, among the farmers of North Carolina, rooted seedling trees in lots of 50 and 100 of the varieties best suited for feeding the silk worm. Not more than 100 will be sent to one person. Those who want more will be supplied at actual cost prices. We do not recommend the planting of more than 100 trees by any one farmer. Recipients of trees will be required to pay postage or expressage at the rate of one cent per tree. This amount must be enclosed with application. Send stamps or money order—not bank checks.

Trees will be delivered during November, which is the best month for planting in this State. Full directions for planting and caring for the trees will be sent to each applicant.

We send out only seedlings of the White Mulberry—Morus alba. About one-half of each lot of trees will bear fruit. The fruit of seedlings is for the most part of poor quality, though excellent for poultry and hogs. The trees grow rapidly while young. Their roots spread widely near the surface of the soil and will prevent even steep hill sides from washing away.

Recommend that farmers plant seedling mulberry trees 12 x 12 feet apart, allowing the plants to branch low and grow in shrub form. Use the field as a run for poultry or hogs and allow the children of the family to have the leaves for feeding silk-worms as a means of raising pocket money.

Applications will be filed in order of reception. Order now. Address applications to and make money orders payable to the undersigned, GERALD MCCARTHY, Biologist, N. C. Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, N. C.

Jury men for Next Term of Court. The following jury has been drawn to serve at the term of Superior court which convenes in November: W. A. Biggers, W. H. Presson, M. A. Mullis, W. E. McManus, C. M. Broom, J. A. Jones, H. B. Edwards, E. B. Pusser, J. V. Trull, James B. Cox, J. E. Hooks, R. C. Nesbit, H. D. Griffin, S. A. Robertson, W. T. Haney, C. Leader Helms, W. H. A. Klutz, R. H. Wincheater, Jas. R. Bateman, C. A. Mullis, E. J. Griffin, J. B. Sullivan, J. J. Moody, H. B. Shute, J. S. DeLaney, Ellis M. Griffin, W. V. Simpson, Jas. F. Mills, J. C. Huggins, H. A. Norwood, T. B. Liles, Miles S. Bivens, W. Murphy Starnes, W. W. Laney, C. H. Richardson, J. E. Broom.

Peach Seed. The Chronicle says a negro who came to Charlotte the other day with peach seed for sale was very much surprised to find no market for them. Peach seed find ready sale on the Statesville market at $1 per bushel. Mr. R. V. Brawley, who advertised in the Landmark for 1,000 bushels, has bought great quantities of them.

Ought to be Contagious. Greenville Reporter. At Charlotte a white man has been sent to jail for drunkenness and falling to provide for his family. Oh, if that kind of justice would only become catching and spread all over the state.

Sometimes Soap Instead of Perfumery. Gastonia Gazette. It is reported in the papers that the perfumery bought for the King of England this summer cost over $9000. Many people need things they don't get, but haven't you observed that there's one thing of which they may be safely said that the folks who need the most usually get the most? It's cologne. But it is a most deceptive fancy—this yearning after perfumery; so many people imagine they want cologne when what they really need is soap.

Postmaster Bailey of Raleigh, who is postmaster of rural free delivery carriers for North Carolina, says the payroll for August was $17,000. There are 367 routes in the State.

MR. CARELOCK THE MAN.

Young Farmer Near Wingate Shows Up With No. 131, the Lucky Ticket in the Buggy Contest. Mr. J. L. Carelock, a young farmer who lives near Wingate, a grandson of the late Ervin Medlin, proved to be the lucky man in The Journal's buggy contest, having received number 131, which responded to be the lucky one. Mr. Carelock was naturally very proud to receive so nice a gift. He has a good buggy already, but says he thinks that he'll sell it and use the Journal buggy. He is 24 years old, and has been married about two months. He writes the following letter:

To the Readers of The Journal: This is to certify that I held ticket No. 131 in The Journal buggy contest, and that the same has been redeemed with a pretty and well built buggy of fine quality. I was very happily surprised to find that I was the lucky man. I had only one ticket, and if I remember correctly, I paid for my paper on July 11th and received the ticket. I think that if all the other ticket holders knew how proud I am of my good luck they would not feel disappointed. With best wishes for The Journal, which I think is a splendid paper, I am, Very truly, J. L. CARELOCK, Wingate, N. C.

Cotton's New Disease. Raleigh Chronicle. Mr. J. L. Banks, who cultivates an extensive farm about ten miles from Raleigh, brought a large cotton plant to the agricultural department for inspection by the State chemist. It was a well developed plant but had started dying on several of its principal branches. Mr. Banks said there are great quantities of cotton in his fields and on a number of adjoining plantations afflicted as this one is. After examination the State Chemist found that it is infected with anebaceous or cotton fungus. They attack the plant, cause the leaves to dry up and shed and the bolls in many instances to die at partially decay. It has a tendency to spread and evolution of crops is about the only thing that will rid a field of its presence.

Dr. Kilgore, State Chemist, said that a similar germ, or at least one which has a similar effect on the plant, has attacked tobacco in Granville county and in portions of Durham and Wake counties. It is known as tobacco wilt. It is a bacterial disease and causes a plant attacked to wilt in a very short time. Considerable damage is being done by it in infected localities. This disease is being discussed now in all farmers' institutes held in tobacco sections.

Dr. Stagg Has a Wish. Charlotte Observer. Rev. Dr. John W. Stagg is nothing if not practical. A little while ago Mr. R. O. Alexander, whose religion enters into every detail of his life, showed Dr. Stagg over his magnificent home in Dilworth. After all the rooms and porcelain bath tubs had been duly examined, Mr. Alexander said: "The Lord gave me this house, Dr. Stagg. He gave it to me because I am His servant, and asked Him for it."

"He did, did he?" replied Dr. Stagg. "Well, I wish you'd ask Him to give me one, too."

Sewed Up His Heart. Chicago Dispatch. On an operation on the heart of Matthew Plovman, who was stabbed in a fight with James Cornett Saturday, may save the man's life. At Mercy hospital, where he was taken, physicians took out his heart and sewed it up. Then oxygen was administered continuously and last night he was said to have a possible chance of recovery. Plovman was stabbed with a bread knife in the left breast. The wound almost cut his heart in two.

Gently Breaking the News. Washaw Enterprise. Somebody has just discovered a germ to which bacteriologists have given the name of "hook worm," and have declared it to be "the germ of laziness." So hereafter when you may wish to intimate in mild and inoffensive terms that your neighbor is not very energetic or industrious you can merely remark that he has "hook worm" and everybody will understand.

War Between Turkey and Bulgaria Coming. Cleveland Star. It appears that there is no way to avoid a war between Bulgaria and Turkey. The bloody and cruel Turk has carried on a war of extermination in some of the provinces in quelling insurrections, and there is every indication that war will be formally declared before September ends.

Married 63 Years. Statesville Landmark. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Haithcox, of Troutman, Iredell county, aged respectively 85 and 83 years, are now in their sixty-third year of married life, have seven children, three sons and four daughters, and their family circle has never been broken by death. The venerable couple are yet hale and hearty and have fair promise of several years longer in their earthly pilgrimage.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from two drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., TOLEDO, OHIO. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's family pills are the best.

Black Hair. "I have used your Hair Vigor for five years and am greatly pleased with it. It certainly restores the original color to gray hair. It keeps my hair soft."—Mrs. Helen Kilkenny, New Portland, Me. Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either. You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Personal Items from Wardlaw.

The farmers are very busy in the fields this week, cotton picking and fodder pulling are the most important topics of conversation amongst our people. Miss Helen Hoyle is visiting at West Spring, S. C., this week. Mr. N. S. Matthews returned from Hickory last Tuesday. Mrs. U. J. Beck of Sanford, Fla., is visiting at Mr. Hunter's. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howie of Mineral Spring visited at Mr. A. J. Price's last week. Dr. J. W. Stephenson and son spent a few days last week at Mr. W. J. Hudson's. Mrs. R. W. Lemmond and children returned home Saturday. A protracted meeting is in progress at Weddington. Rev. Mr. Hoyle is ably assisted by Rev. Mr. Stacy of Waxhaw. Miss Gussie Hunter returned from a few days visit to Pineville Saturday. Miss Jessie Matthews left last week for her home near Concord, where she will enter the Sunderland school. Misses Maude Hoyle, Mary Matthews, and Lula Price leave next Monday for Greensboro Normal. They have our best wishes for success in this year's work. Grim But Effective. Charlotte Chronicle. Two negroes who are employed as porters on Southern and Seaboard Air Line trains, respectively, met on East Trade street the other day and engaged in a discussion as to the number of passengers hauled by the two roads. The Seaboard darkey described at length the heavy passenger traffic of his road, saying it exceeded all past records of railroads in the South. The Southern employee waited until his friend was through and then squelched him by saying: "Shah, nigger, you don't know what you're talking 'bout. Why, we kills more folks ev'ry day than you took nothin' but his watch. New York Tribune.

"There is an old negro living in Carrolton," relates the Bosworth, Mo., Star Sentinel, "who was taken ill several days ago and called in a physician of his race to prescribe for him. But the old man did not seem to be getting any better, and finally a white physician was called. Soon after arriving Dr. S. — felt the darkey's pulse for a moment and then examined his tongue. "Did your other doctor take your temperature?" he asked. "I don't know, sah," he answered feebly; "I ain't missed nothing but my watch as yet, boss."

Money Couldn't Allure Him. Washington Post. Iowa has a minister who made the greatest sacrifice hit on record by turning down an offer to play baseball at $3,000 a year in order to retain his pulpit at a salary of $500.

Fearful Odds Against Him. Bedridden and destitute. Such is the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Heavens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by English Drug Co.

The Negro Leaders.

The Monroe Journal writes temperately and sensibly in the issue of last week on the nameless crime, putting the blame for the prevalence of the evil upon the educated and influential negroes who, instead of using their power to suppress the evil among the brutal and vile, spend all their strength and influence denouncing mob law. They, as the Journal well says, have the matter in their own hands. The newspapers can not reach the rapists, for they do not read newspapers, but the leaders among the negroes are in close touch with all classes and are perfectly able to make public sentiment so strong that the evil will be greatly lessened, if not entirely suppressed. But these leaders rarely say a word against the crime for which so many negroes are lynched; on the other hand they intensify race hatred by assailing the mob, which will continue to kill every negro who lays his hand upon an innocent woman, and they are entirely silent about the crime which causes the deterioration of law, which we all deplore. This, to us, is the most discouraging thing about the education of the negro. If education made him morally stronger or better there would be far more hope for the race; instead of that, however, it seems only to give him shrewdness enough to save his own hide, without lifting his life an inch higher than that of the low level of the ignorant and degraded. With all the money spent on the education of the negro and all the facilities that have been given him for enlightenment, the crime continues to increase and the moral force (if there be such a thing) among the educated has not been arrayed on the side of virtue and purity. Education, whether among white or black people, that is untouched and unchastened by religion, is more of a curse than a blessing.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from two drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., TOLEDO, OHIO. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's family pills are the best.
