Good Times Come and Good Times Gone.

While on a visit to this his native county in the fall of 1903, Rev. G. W. Belk of Charlotte met a colored man whose conversation led him to write the following two poems:

Good Times Come at Last.

Bin longin', an' a-lookin' fo' to see dat happy day When a man kin mek a livin', an' a little time to play.

Good Times Come at Last.

It seem' as I would not be lef to see dat time arrive. But, bless de Lord, it dome have come, an' I am still alive!

Good Times Come at Last.

We he'd a hard time comin', but we keep a addin' some. An' 'lyin' by a little to de 'rainy day' to come.

Good Times Come at Last.

An' I heah de chillun readin' 'bout de worl' a turnin' round. Tel it meks me kinder dizzy as I stan' upon de ground.

Good Times Come at Last.

Ole Marster mighty good to us, de white folks treat us kin'. An' we ain't fo' got de favors when we use to git behin'.

Good Times Come at Last.

Las' ye'r I thought dem good ole times had sholy come to stay. But when I brung my cotton up to town de udder day.

Good Times Come at Last.

Dem 'Publicans, dey tole us dat if Rosemelt went in De price ob cotton certainly would not drop down again.

Good Times Come at Last.

My John, he see, if Parker hed bin 'lected, sho' as sin, Dat folks would say de prices fell 'cause de put him in.

Good Times Come at Last.

It sho looks discouragin' to us dat till de groud', To see de price ob cotton still keep on a drappin' down.

Jurors for Three Terms of Court.

The following business, transacted last Tuesday by the commissioners was too late for our issue of last week.

One-tenth of the bond issue of $7,500 to fund indebtedness of the county was paid and bonds were burned to ashes.

The following jurors were drawn for the term beginning Monday, February 20, 1905:

FIRST WEEK. W. T. Morgan, J. J. King, S. M. Glenn, Elijah Simpson, J. B. Staten, B. L. Goodwin, W. H. Norwood, Sylvester Strawn, C. C. Taylor, W. Baxter Long, A. F. Tyson, J. T. Price, J. T. Hane, J. A. McCollum, C. F. Harrell, W. A. Hemby, J. C. Hayward, H. M. Furr.

SECOND WEEK. Hampton Brewer, Paul F. Huntley, D. F. Short, S. L. Lowry, J. G. Glenn, L. R. Crook, J. C. Winchester, S. F. Broom, W. J. Rudge, C. W. Kindley, J. C. McIntyre, G. W. Dees, C. T. Williams, J. F. Ross, R. C. Newcom, E. E. Leonard, E. W. Thomas, W. C. Edwards.

For one week's term beginning Monday, March 20, 1905: J. P. Simpson, Ed. J. Bivens, J. D. Faulkner, Jonathan Gordon, J. A. Bennett, J. P. Ritch, C. H. Braswell, S. E. Belk, Mark Brewer, Hiram B. Secrest, I. C. Clonts, R. W. Killough, T. B. Stinson, G. Frank Crowell, J. H. Harkey, I. H. Helms, F. G. Henderson, W. M. Perry, C. J. Hudson, E. D. Worley, J. Enos Hinson, G. A. Marsh, Walter Hane, Martin Snipes, W. T. Lathan, W. R. Outen, B. I. Simpson, C. L. Youngblood, J. D. McCorkle, W. F. Orr, J. M. Carrier, Jno. A. Secrest, R. W. Elliott, N. W. Brooks, Marion Mattox, T. C. Griffin.

The petted young beauty in the carriage looked with dismay at the mud that lay between her and the sidewalk.

"I think it was Sir Walter Raleigh," she said, "that threw his cloak upon the ground on a certain memorable occasion in order that his queen might not get her shoe muddy."

"You're my queen, all right," replied the young man in the case, "but if Sir Walter Raleigh had been a clerk on a salary of $15 a week he would have done exactly what I'm going to do."

When upon he carried her to the sidewalk—but did it so nicely that she forgave him.—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. J. L. E. Stacey of Waxhaw is the leading citizen in regard to the number of sons who are following the profession of education. He has just received a visit from his sons, Prof. M. H. Stacey of the University of North Carolina, and Prof. Walter Stacey of Carolina Academy; and another of his sons, Prof. H. E. Stacey, is principal of the Wesley Chapel graded school.

Miss Mary Leonard, daughter of Mr. J. T. Leonard of Lanes Creek township, died on Jan. 1st, of typhoid fever. The young lady was eighteen years of age, just blossoming into womanhood, and her death is sad indeed. She was a member of the Baptist church, and possessed a lovely christian character. The funeral was held on the 2nd, conducted by Rev. J. A. Bivens.

Mr. J. L. Walkup of Waxhaw has moved his store to the old McCall building, and Davis Bros., who were burned out, have moved into the old stand of the Jackson Drug Company. Messrs. C. Broom & Son succeed Broom & Garrison, successors to C. Broom & Sons at the time of the death of Mr. Hugh Local Happenings.

Dr. W. D. Simpson has located in Cheraw, S. C., for the purpose of practicing medicine.

Mr. C. J. Braswell, carrier on route No. 1 from Unionville, has resigned and Mr. John W. Love, Jr., has been appointed to succeed him.

The Journal was mistaken in the date of the robbery of Mr. Phillip Whitley's store. It was Monday night after Christmas instead of Friday night.

Prof. C. R. Clegg has succeeded Prof. Phillips, who has gone to Indian Territory, as principal of the Wedding School. Mr. Clegg formerly taught there with great satisfaction to all, and his return is a great pleasure to the people.

Mr. S. J. Howard of Vance township died on Jan. 1st. He was stricken with paralysis and lingered a few days. He was a quiet man, a good citizen and a humble christian. As a magistrate for many years, he served faithfully and justly. For many years prior to his death, he was a faithful member of the Methodist church. He was about 50 years old.

The fine new building of the Mt. Prospect graded school, in Jackson, was burned last Tuesday night. The building had just been completed, and was a splendid one of six rooms, and was worth in the neighborhood of $2,000. The school, taught by Prof. R. W. Elliott and Miss Maggie Walkup, was in progress and was the first school taught in the new building. Since the fire the people have decided to carry the school on in the church building until arrangements can be made for a new house. The people of this community have shown themselves to be among the most enthusiastic, energetic, and meritorious of all the county. Not only did they vote a good tax on themselves to run their school, but they built their splendid new house themselves without asking aid of the county. This loss is a severe setback, but it will not dampen the ardor of the Mt. Prospect people. Already they are talking of building even a better house. This building was insured in the Farmers' Mutual for $1,200.

Mr. J. Reece Blair of Troy, whom his friends here and many other places had given over to eternal bachelorhood, is married—and as romantic a marriage as you please, too. The bride was Miss Ada Allen of Troy, and the ceremony was performed in the Rex Hospital at Raleigh, where Mr. Blair had been sent as the result of a railroad wreck on the Page road near Aberdeen. This occurred Monday, as Broom. Mr. Garrison retires and Mr. Cecil Broom will be manager of the new firm. The old wooden building of this firm, which was one of the first built in Waxhaw, is being torn down to make room for a brick one.

Since the days when Union county had but two terms of court each year, it has been hard for an ordinary citizen to keep in mind just when "court week" comes around. Paste the following schedule in your hat, and you'll know the run for this year: A term of one week beginning January 16th, for the trial of criminal cases; a term of two weeks beginning February 20th, for the trial of civil cases; a term of one week beginning March 20th, for the trial of criminal cases; a term of two weeks beginning July 31st, for the trial of criminal cases; a term of two weeks beginning October 30th, for the trial of criminal cases.

Mr. Blair was making his usual journey to Raleigh at the opening of the legislature. Wednesday having been set for the wedding day, and the groom on his back in the hospital with his ribs broken, Miss Allen, at Mr. Blair's request, went to Raleigh in company with Mr. Blair's genial friend, Solicitor W. C. Hammer, and they were married in the hospital ward. Mrs. Blair took rooms at the Yarrowborough to wait for her husband's recovery. This writer had the pleasure of eating a picnic dinner last summer with the young lady and young gentleman who are now Mr. and Mrs. Blair, and can testify to their open-heartedness, joviality, mutual congeniality, and all round suitableness to each other, and we extend congratulations.

Death of Mr. A. J. Harrison. Mr. A. J. Harrison died on the 27th of November, and left the following sketch of his life: Editors of the Marietta Journal:—I, A. J. Harrison, being in a very low state of health and apprehensive that death may come at any time, have concluded to write a short sketch of my life. I was born at Black Walnut, a village in Halifax county, Va., one of the best sections of countries I have ever seen, on the 13th of December, 1834. I was educated at the famous Hughes school in the same county, and at which place I completed the full course of studies, taking first honor in all my classes. After leaving school, I read law at Judge Bailey's law school in Buncombe county, N. C., and was admitted to the bar at Raleigh, N. C., being examined by Chief Justice Pearson and Associate Justices Manley and Battle, after which I located at Leesburg, Caswell county, N. C., and did some practice in the inferior courts. The war coming on at this time, I volunteered and went to the front as Sergeant Major of the 4th N. C. Regiment, Col. Henry Morehead commanding. I was in some of the fiercest battles of the war, but never received a scratch during the three years I served, but was captured and taken to Elmira prison, New York, at which place I remained 13 months, and was kindly treated by the officers that had charge of my barracks. I had a rough time managing our own men, they being badly clothed, poorly fed and worn out with hard fighting and rough camp life before capture. I was released from prison on the 16th of May, 1865, and got home on the 25th of June, same year. I commenced teaching school in a short while, there being a greater demand for teachers than lawyers. I taught very successfully for a number of years. I quit the school business and came to Georgia in 1886 and took charge of my sister's farm, and have been farming ever since—by much hard labor and close economy one can make a good living, but little money. I joined the Presbyterian church a number of years ago and I do hope and trust that I have been an exemplary and consistent member, but from numerous circumstances have been prevented from attending church as often as I would like. I put my trust in my Savior and feel that I am ready to go whenever he calls, and ask my good friends in and around Marietta to meet me in that better land where all is bliss and eternal happiness. Being comparatively a stranger in Georgia has prompted me to write this sketch of myself. (Signed) A. J. HARRISON.

[Mr. Harrison was well known in Monroe to the older citizens, he and his sister having lived and taught school here several years, leaving probably 16 or 18 years ago.—Ed. Journal.]

Saved from Terrible Death. The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at English Drug Co.'s.

"Did you see the tag on that lovely bunch of American beauty roses at the Muntoburns' Christmas banquet? Whose name was on it? I forgot to look."

"There wasn't any name on it. It was the florist's price mark—$24 a dozen. They pretended they had forgotten to remove it."—N. Y. Sun.

The Good Old Way. A severe cold or attack of the grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overcome it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old-fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boschee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater vogue than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old-fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation, and effectually stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. Trial size bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by English Drug Co.

Mrs. Grouch—If I should die you never would get another wife who would look after you as I have done.

Mr. Grouch—No; not if I could help it.—Chicago News.

A Very Close Call. "I sneek with my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Ia. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by English Drug Co. Price 50c.

Magistrate—You are bound over to keep the peace toward all his majesty's subjects.

Prisoner—Then heaven help the fast furriner I meet.—Tit-Bits.

Tonic to the System. For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Sold by English Drug Co. and S. J. Welsh.

Notice of Administration. All persons are hereby notified that I have this day qualified before E. A. Armfield, C. S. C. of Union county, N. C., as administrator of the estate of the said deceased and shall present the same to the court on or before the 10th day of January, 1905, or this notice will be published in the public papers of this county. All persons indebted to said estate should make prompt payment and save costs. This the 10th day of December, 1904. J. M. KINGS, Adm'r. of James G. King. Redwine & Stack, Attys.

Re-Sale of Land. By virtue of an order and decree made by E. A. Armfield, Clerk of the Superior Court of north of Union county, in a special proceeding wherein The Savings, Loan and Trust Company, administrator of the estate of the said deceased, and Frank Osborne, T. J. Price et al. are defendants, I will, on Monday, February 6th, 1905, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, all the court house tract in Monroe, N. C., a certain lot or parcel of land, lying and being in the county of Union, State of North Carolina, and near Unionville, containing three (3) acres more or less, and being the lot described by J. F. Horn to Sallie Osborne November 11th, 1890, which said deed is recorded in the registry of Union county, N. C., page 28, to which reference is hereby made for a full description of said lot.

Terms of sale—one-third cash and the remainder on a credit of six months. Title retained until all the purchase money is paid. This the 2nd day of January, 1905. E. A. ARMFIELD, C. S. C. Redwine & Stack, Attys.
