Capital Social Rivalry.

Mrs. Fairbanks, wife of the vice president, is planning quite an elaborate social campaign, one likely to make an epoch in the annals of the capital. Signs indicate that there will be at least a certain sort of rivalry between her and Mrs. Roosevelt. The close friends of both re-pudiate any such idea, but others are of the opinion that the coming season will see two moons shining in the social firmament. In any event it seems clear that the dual splendor will make the second Roosevelt administration one of historic social brilliance.

The greatest mistake that Canada ever made was in failing to join the other colonists in the rising of 1775 against England. Had Canada done this she would constitute ten or twelve states of the Union by this time, have 25,000,000 people instead of 6,000,000, as she has now, and would be part of the greatest country on the globe instead of being a dependency of a nation 3,000 miles away .- St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
