Babies in a Mixup.

When one baby called another "Daddy" in front of a Sixth avenue department store yesterday it started such a row that there came near being a riot...

It all came about so suddenly that Policeman Thomas of the Probationary Squad was taken almost off his feet...

The mothers were on bargains bent. There was a special sale of crockery or diamonds or Subway franchises or what-not in the store...

"Don't try to swallow 'em," said Policeman Thomas, leaning over and patting the contortionist's toes...

At that the youngster took the hint and dropped the foot that had been so perilously near slipping down his or her throat...

The plunge upset the coach. On the way over it hit another coach, upsetting it also...

But they got the babies and the coaches sadly mixed, and just then the irate mothers came trooping out of the store...

Died of Broken Heart While Detained on Ellis Island.

Mrs. Sella Weinstock, wife of Herman Weinstock, a plumber, who lives at No. 114 Monroe street, died a prisoner on Ellis Island Monday night...

Weinstock took his two children to the neat apartment he had furnished in Monroe street. He visited his wife on Ellis Island every day...

This was a great blow to the husband. He used every influence to induce the immigration officials to admit his wife...

Believing that some mistake had been made, the lawyers called on the Commissioner of Immigration. He told them that Mrs. Weinstock could not be admitted under any circumstances...

At last Mrs. Weinstock's courage gave way and she grew thin and pale. Mr. Weinstock visited her as often as the attendants would permit...

The lawyers wrote to Washington and tried to interest the Bureau of Immigration. This letter was mailed on July 10, but up to yesterday no answer had been received...

Mrs. Weinstock became so ill Monday that she went to bed. On this day Mr. Weinstock's business made it impossible for him to visit her...

"They are murderers," he declared last night. "I had been separated from her four years, and expected to have a happy reunion when she came here..."

A recent meeting of the International Cotton Spinners held at London, England, on August 1st, indicates very clearly that the producers are to be bitterly fought by the spinners during the next three months...

The present plan of the foreign spinners, it now appears, is to crush the Southern Cotton Association and its efforts at the opening of the fall season and force the farmers to sacrifice their cotton on a depressed market brought about by combination and concert of action among the spinners and bear speculators...

The Southern Cotton Association will meet at Asheville, N. C., September 6th, and at that time will fix a minimum price on the present crop which will be fair and just to both the producers and spinners...

GREAT WESTERN FAILS.

Mining Venture Exploited by W. P. Fife in Bad Way—Many Stockholders.

It will doubtless interest a great many Charlotte people, as well as hundreds all over the State, to learn that the famous Great Western Gold Company, the mining enterprise promoted so extensively by W. P. Fife about two years ago, has become involved in legal complications...

The Chronicle learns today that suit has been filed in the United States Circuit Court at St. Louis asking for the appointment of a receiver for the concern, which has its headquarters there. The complaint filed alleges that the mining property now owned by the Great Western Gold Company was purchased for $15,000 and made the basis of a capitalization of $12,000,000, and further that several times that amount of stock has been sold...

The allegations set forth in the complaint are true it probably means the sudden and inglorious end of the venture exploited so extensively in Charlotte and North Carolina. No estimate could be secured today of the amount of stock held in Charlotte, but it is known that a number of business men and some prominent professional men here hold certificates of stock, and that some of them are interested in the future of the Great Western Gold Company to the extent of several hundred dollars...

Excursion Train Disaster.

Train Falls in River—Many Passengers Killed and a Large Number Injured and Missing.

One of the most terrible accidents in the history of railroading in this State occurred near this city soon after noon today, when the engine and three cars of a crowded excursion train shot through an open draw. Seventeen persons were killed, besides an unknown number missing. The victims were plunged into twenty-five feet of water in the Elizabeth river.

The engineer of the train, which was running over the Atlantic Coast Line railway, from Kinston, N. C., to Norfolk, failed to see the open bridge near Bruce's station, about eight miles from Portsmouth and nine from Norfolk. The coaches were crowded with 300 negroes, women and children, who were to spend a few days at Norfolk.

As soon as the news of the accident reached Portsmouth every physician in the city was summoned to the scene and a relief train was dispatched bearing medical necessities. The wrecked train left Kinston at 7 o'clock this morning with 165 excursionists for Norfolk. The wreck occurred at 12:30 o'clock. The locomotive was in charge of Engineer Reig and Fireman Cooper. Two coaches are submerged with a third passenger coach hanging from the bridge.

The wrecked train was due at Norfolk at 1 o'clock. Following it was another excursion train over the same road bringing 300 excursionists from Rocky Mount, N. C. Proceeding the wrecked train there was another excursion train having 300 merchants from Augusta, Ga., Charleston, S. C., and Jacksonville, Fla., bound for Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

The first train arrived here at 8:30 o'clock in the morning without accident. The passengers will leave for the North by water.

According to the report, a man named Holden went home Sunday, and that night began abusing his wife. A quarrel ensued over a trivial matter, and the man kicked and beat the woman into insensibility. Mrs. Holden never recovered consciousness and died during the night. Holden was arrested and placed in jail at Webster. It is said that feeling against the man is high.
