

NERVOUS PROSTRATION CURED BY PE-RU-NA

Mr. Hal P. Denton, Chief Department Publicity and Promotion of National Export Exposition, writes: Philadelphia, Dec. 20, 1906.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., Gentlemen:—"Toward the latter part of August I found myself in a very much run-down condition. I suffered particularly from catarrh of the stomach."

"My family physician said I had nervous prostration and recommended a sea voyage. I gradually grew worse. A kind friend who I had known in Ohio recommended Peruna. Though skeptical, I finally yielded to his advice."

"After using one bottle I was much improved and with the fifth bottle complete recovery. I am in perfect health to-day and owe everything to Peruna."

Very truly yours, HAL P. DENTON.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice free.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

McKinley's Favorite Hymn.

Eliza and Sarah Flower were gifted English sisters whose lives began and ended between the opening and the close of the first half of the last century; and yet in that brief period both left their impress on their generation; and the younger Sarah, achieved undying fame by composing the beautiful hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

"They say," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that she married him under a misapprehension."

"Oh, no, she didn't," replied her hostess. "I see under a bell made out of some kind of red flowers."

Attacked by a flob and beaten in a labor riot uncovered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was soon sound and well.

"No," declared Mr. Nagget, "there never was a woman on earth who could refrain from turning around to rubber at some other woman's clothes."

"No!" replied his wife, sweetly. "Didn't you ever hear of Eve?"

Comments Here and There.

Our readers should not overlook the significance of the article that we published last week from the pen of Prof. W. F. Massey, who is perhaps the best authority on agriculture in all the South.

A few years ago there was a great hurrah about progress in the towns, while nothing was said about the development of the rural districts.

"I know that there is nothing left for me in the world now except what I can realize through my children," said a man whose head is silvering to the writer.

"The cotton growers will give by their proposed meeting, the most potent endorsement to trust and monopoly that has ever been given in this country, and the wonder to me is that the Southern press, by their marvelous dumbness on this question, seems to be either afraid to express itself or else has reached the conclusion that it ought to stop the fight it has been prosecuting so long and go in and get by wrong methods what it has not succeeded in securing by right."

Mr. Kerr is unnecessarily alarmed. He has down many miles out of the orbit of reason in order to jump at a conclusion. There is no more analogy between the Standard Oil Company and the Cotton Association than there is between Mr. Kerr's reasoning and good logic.

The Peace of Portsmouth

Reflecting an agreement between Japan and Russia, President Roosevelt has won a splendid victory. His part as peacemaker at Portsmouth is the crowning achievement of his brilliant career.

Every American, whether he be Democrat or Republican, has just reason for pride and patriotism in Mr. Roosevelt's triumph over tremendous obstacles. Full credit is his for his unprecedented audacity, for his deliberate courage in stepping in between the warring nations.

Not less praise belongs to Japan for her magnanimity and noble self-sacrifice. She has surrendered her self-interest and her just demands in the interests of humanity and peace.

Great is the rejoicing throughout the whole civilized world over the close of the war in the East.

"Can the South continue to denounce John D. Rockefeller for fixing the price of coal oil, and the Armour's for fixing the price of beef, or any other man or set of men for fixing the price of anything, when our people openly and without apparently one single doubt as to their right to do so, meet and fix, arbitrarily, by combination and a pledge to stand by it, the price of the largest and most necessary commodity on this continent? I have not seen or heard of a newspaper that has suggested that there was even an impropriety, to say nothing of wrong, in such a meeting for such a purpose."

Mr. Kerr is unnecessarily alarmed. He has down many miles out of the orbit of reason in order to jump at a conclusion. There is no more analogy between the Standard Oil Company and the Cotton Association than there is between Mr. Kerr's reasoning and good logic.

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation better act promptly like W. C. Barber of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and cold dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds."

"My brother belongs to a psychiatric society." "Yes, I was reading in the papers that the wheel craze was being revived. Do you ride, too?"—Cleveland Leader.

Three Jurors Cured of cholera morbus with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Ala. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some some meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture but the drug sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I was after, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the box I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and S. J. Welsh.

"But," protested the bridegroom during their little quarrel, "you promised to love, honor and obey me." "Maybe I did," replied the bride, "but I had my fingers crossed."

Got Off Cheap. He may well think he has got off cheap who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c. at English Drug Co.'s; guaranteed.

American Downs Jap at Hendersonville.

At Hendersonville last night P. D. Beale of that place defeated A. Koizumi, the Japanese, in a wrestling bout before an audience numbering from 600 to 800 people. The match was for the best of three falls but there were only two rounds. Mr. Beale winning both falls in quick order. The wrestle was interesting and exciting from start to finish. The contestants went at each other from the drop of the hat and it was roll and tussle until the Jap's shoulders and hips touched the floor and the referee gave the fall to Beale. The first fall was won in a few seconds and the second fall in one minute. At 9 o'clock G. A. Westcott of Annapolis Naval Academy, the referee, called the men to the mat. The men shook hands and then like a lightning flash the Jap tackled. Beale was too quick and, giving the son of Nippon the rear-hammer lock, sent Koizumi to the mat with both shoulders touching. He was declared the winner of the first fall. Mr. Koizumi took exception to the referee's decision.

Ten minutes rest was given and the American and Jap again appeared on the mat amid the applause of the audience. This time the men were stripped to the waist for catch as catch can tactics, the first fall having been wrestled with both men wearing the jiu-jitsu shirts. Both men again tackled swiftly. Koizumi tripped and Beale did likewise, and the wrestlers rolled over and over on the floor and off the mat. They were called back by the referee. Koizumi then threw Beale to the mat on his hands and knees. Beale waited for the Jap to again tackle and, in the language of Big Tom Frisbee, "grape-vined" his opponent's legs and sent the Jap to the mat. Beale this time made his victory complete by securing a full Nelson on the Jap and pressing his head, shoulders and hips to the mat. He was declared the winner and was carried to his booth by admirers. Mr. Koizumi also came in for applause and three lusty cheers were given the defeated wrestler. Mr. Koizumi received an injury to his eye, but the hurt was not serious.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; in fact, out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
