acting at the end was a delicious though entirely unconscious piece of retaliation upon her father for a rather brutal method. Her Destemons had been exquisite; she had made her what she was herself, a child, innocent and submissive and adoring.

But in the last act, when Othello strode toward her with uplifted dagger, la Malibran, truly frightened out of her wits, ran away from him and made for windows and doors, frantically trying to escape. When her father at last cought hold of her, so real had the whole thing become that, seizing the hand with which he was supposed to murder her, she bit it till it bled. Garcia gave a cry of puls, which the indience took for a cry of rage, and the act ended in deafening applause for when he is actually being hoisted out father and daughter.

The People's Bank of Monroe.

This Bank has been operated in the interest of the people at large as well as its stockholders. Its officers have done their best to build up flonroe and the surrounding country. It provides every safeguard for the depositor and is always liberal to the borrower. No reasonable person could be dissatisfied with its methods. Remember what it has done for the people thus far and let everybody know that it will meet all legitimate competition in the future. Patronize it with your accounts and thus show your sympathy for a progressive and obliging institution. It is your friend and it is here to stay.

EYOND the Rockies Lies the Ruins of Frisco: D the great West in mourning, proud America in tears: the world in sympathy with the homeless thousands, millions of dollars flowing to a stricken city: what a liberal people we Americans are. But it was something else I wanted to say, and I must first admit that my building is not as high as the Rockies nor as broad rs the great West: nor does my trade reach across America, and probably has not been heard of around the world: nor am I receiving millions, but I am getting part of it, and the price of my goods will prove that I am one among the liberal. So don't forget that I keep a full stock of Heavy and Fancy Groceries and Country Produce, the very best goods at the very lowest prices, and by fair and honest dealing we expect to build a trade in Monroe that will stand. We are here to stay, but before we settled in your lovely city we visited several towns and counties looking for a location, and actually stopped a few days in Charlotte, but what is Charlotte by the side of Monroe?
