Tillman Fears Race War and Gives His Reasons Therefor

In a characteristic speech here to people, Senator Tillman of Carolina declared that the South South was on the verge of a great race war. He said:

"There are some people who say that a race problem settles itself. but I make the prediction that in less than ten years, I fear less than five, there will be an immense number of bloody race riots, North and South, beside which the Atlanta riot will fall into insignifi cance

"I lay down the following prop ositions, which cannot be disputed "First-White men of the South are united and determined as nev er before to maintain white supremacy, politically and socially, in every part of every Southern State, "Second-The negroes were never more intent on contesting in every way that they dare this position of the whites, and the Republican national government is aiding this idea

Beel is then watery and not near so good as in the cool months. It requires, too, more expense and trouble to handle it. That is why so many houses run in the winter when the business is good, then knock off in the spring and let their customers go witbout till next fall. Then when the weather begins to get cool they set up again. Beef is then better and the people who start to patronize them say, oh well, I get better beef now than I got in the summer. Of course they do. All beef is then better. But the winter fellows right then are probably not selling them as good stuff as is the man who furnished them all the summer, but owing to the season could not give them as good meat as he is now giv-
