

THE MONROE JOURNAL.

VOLUME XIII. NO. 38

MONROE, N. C., TUESDAY OCTOBER 30, 1906.

One Dollar a Year

Big Price for Cotton

Cotton is 11 cents, but Henry Sahadi's goods are the same low prices they have always been.

I have just returned from the Northern markets, where I bought goods from the manufacturers. I don't have to buy from wholesale houses or jobbers, but I buy direct from the ones that manufacture them, therefore I can sell you goods cheaper than the merchants can buy them.

ANOTHER THING!

I don't have clerks to hire, therefore I can sell cheaper. Call in and give me a trial and that trial will win you a regular customer for me. I handle everything in dry goods, notions, shoes, clothing, jewelry and other things too numerous to mention. Watches, ladies and men's suits, sweaters and ladies shawls, all kinds of linens, caps, fancy work, in fact, everything from pens to diamonds. Remember the place and the name. Thanking you one and all for your past trade and hoping to sell you more in the future, I am

Yours very truly,

HENRY SAHADI.

Cleanliness Always.

Phone 149 and we will send one of our wagons promptly to your residence. While we make a specialty of laundering SHIRTS, COLLARS and CUFFS, we are prepared to do CLEANING, PRESSING and DYING of all kinds.

We will wash and dry your clothes at Three cents per pound, dry weight; or wash, dry and starch them at Four cents per pound.

Please send your work, together with a list of same, as early as possible in the week, and we will always have it done on time. If you do not send list of articles, we cannot be responsible for count.

Monroe Steam Laundry,

J. J. Lockhart, Proprietor.

Fall Goods at the Big Stores.

Never before in the history of Southern Merchandising has there been assembled such a stock of fashionable Coat Suits, Wraps, Jackets, Furs, Dress Goods, Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Shoes, Gents' Furnishings, etc.

Our counters are literally teeming with immense stocks of the very latest in Fall Wear and every piece was personally selected by our buyers from different departments.

We are of the opinion that we have this fall the very best variety and the greatest bargains in the Ready-To-Wear Department that has ever been offered in Charlotte. This is saying a great deal because our stocks in the past have not by any means been other than up-to-date.

Millinery Department.

While our departments have been filled with everything that is strictly reasonable, there has been no pains or expense spared this department that is so extremely popular with all the ladies. If it is a hat that you want, we can supply you. Everything that is artistic, and salespeople that know to offer suggestions and see that you buy only that which is becoming and suits the purchaser, provided you wish their advice.

We Make a Specialty of Wedding Trousseau.

Transportation is paid to all parties coming to Charlotte within a radius of 50 miles of Charlotte, upon purchasing from stores, members of the Retail Merchants' Association, goods to the amount of $40.00.

THE LITTLE-LONG DEPARTMENT STORES

BANK of UNION

MONROE, N. C.

This Bank has been operated in the interest of the people at large as well as its stockholders. Its officers have done their best to build up Monroe and the surrounding country. It provides every safeguard for the depositor and is always liberal to the borrower. No reasonable person could be dissatisfied with its methods. Remember what it has done for the people thus far and let everybody know that it will meet all legitimate competition in the future. Patronize it with your accounts and thus show your sympathy for a progressive and obliging institution. It is your friend and it is here to stay.

Some of Sam Jones' Sayings.

The death of Rev. Sam Jones, last week, caused some of the papers to reprint a great many of his unique and famous sayings. Below we print a few of these:

The roar of commerce, the click of the telegraph and the whistle of the engine have well nigh drowned out the voice of God.

If I had a creed I would sell it to a museum. Creed shows itself in the laws of the last few hundred years. It was over creed that men fought and not over Christ. Orthodoxes are what have ruined the world.

He has either a mighty long head or a mighty short creed who believes only what he understands.

Many a fellow is praying for rain with his tub the wrong side up.

Repentance is the first conscious movement of the soul from sin towards God.

Thank God this old world has never seen the time when it did not take its hat off and make a decent bow to a good woman.

I believe the greatest moral monstrosity in the universe is an impious woman. I can understand how a man can be wicked and turn his back on God and live in sin, but the greatest moral monstrosity is a woman with the tender arms of her children around her, their eyes looking up to her eyes with innocent love, and that mother despising God in her heart.

Every day ought to keep good company. There is not an angel in heaven that would not be corrupted by the company that some of you keep.

The back door of a church ought to be opened once a year, to give all who have not lived up to its rules a chance to pass out.

In a Georgia town a number of girls married men to reform them, now the town is full of little whirlpool widows.

The greatest rascals are those who are scrupulously honest. If I see a man walk across town to pay a nickel, I watch him.

Whiskey is a good thing in its place and that place is in hell. If I get there I will drink all I can get, but I won't do it here.

The capacity of a woman for making everybody about her uncomfortable, cannot be calculated by any known process of arithmetic.

The matter of church doctrine is an accident. If my mother and brother Witherspoon's mother had swapped babes he might have been a Methodist preacher.

The Christian who will do things in New York that he would not do at home is a very poor Christian.

It takes less sense to criticize than anything else. There are a great many critics in the asylum.

I don't think much of dignity. My observation is that the more dignity a man has the nearer dead he is.

There is more religion in laughing than crying. If religion consists of crying I have the best boy in the world.

When you find a man that is first-class at some one thing, you will find him pretty good for everything else.

I have known women too poor to own a pair of shoes, but I never knew one too poor to own a looking-glass.

You don't believe what you don't understand. Do you understand why some cows have horns and some are muley?

Let us quit singing the Sweet By and By and sing the Sweet Now and Now.

If you tell me what you love and what you hate, I will tell you your character.

If the devil ever puts his foot upon a woman once she never gets up any more.

The biggest fool God's eyes ever looked upon is the woman who stirs the toddy for her husband.

If my daughter only had one dress that should be a whole one. If it lacked anything at all I should cut it off at the bottom not at the top.

They will put you in jail for stealing a man's money, but you can be an average church member and steal a man's character.

It is worth something to a man to belong to a good family.

A man is not a sinner because he is an infidel; he is an infidel because he is a sinner.

Until 25 years of age I was the biggest fool you ever looked at, only when you looked in the mirror yourself.

Every barroom is a recruiting office for hell.

Sow whiskey and you will reap drunkards.

Christ won't stay in a house with a cellar full of whiskey.

I never saw a first-class billiard player who was worth the powder and lead to kill him.

I would rather be dead than be in fashion.

I rather like the expression of that good old woman who cried out: "Oh, Lord, if you will only save me in this world, you shall hear the last of it in the next."

The more bent, mashed and warped the lady's hat is the more fashionable it is.

Shall I come to Baltimore and ask your little duds and dainties how to preach the Gospel?

Religion don't help a fellow to quit his meanness, but it helps him to stay quit.

Repentance is quitting your meanness.

I am not a muddy physician, and I am not kin to any.

Infidelity is nine-tenths mouth.

Give your hearts to God and he will comb the kinks out of your head.

I have got as much respect for those fellows with striped clothes as I have for you who hop around at every tap of the devil's drum.

There is many an honest fool—after all that is the best class.

I am sorry for a fellow who's got nothing but money, for when that is out he's out.

If you won't pay your debts nobody won't pay you.

I would rather do anything than stand up before the tongue of a mad woman.

The biggest fool I know is a woman who marries a man, knowing that he is dissipated all the time.

You make the coffee bitter and get mad because your husbands say it ain't sweet.

I am sorry for any woman who will sit and listen to gossip about her husband.

I like a man who can prove by his wife that he's got religion.

Whenever a man is out of a job he sits right down and gets to telling lies on Sam Jones.

The way to get more grace is to use what you have got.

He who dresses, eats and sleeps wisely is physically religious. A true gentleman never swears.

A Protected Form of Robbery

Well-Known in America.

"The new government next took in hand the crying evil known as the 'Company Store,' and abolished it," says Charles Edward Russell, writing of New Zealand in "Soldiers of the Common Good," in the Nov. Everybody's. "Did you ever consider the company's store? It is a beautiful thing for highway robbery, safe, efficient and immensely profitable. A good reliable company store is better any day than a sand-bag or brass knuckles—never leaves a mark and the police don't bother about it. Once New Zealand had many company stores, and, as with us, one of their sweet results had been that some of the families enslaved to these delectable institutions never saw any money from one year's end to another. They were continually in debt at the company store; whatever they needed they must get at the company store; if they inherited they could have to their children was this life long and hopeless account at the company store. Even when the purchases were made at reasonable fair prices the thing was a swindle. The employer owned the store. He therefore in effect paid the men in goods at retail prices that he had bought at wholesale prices. But the cases where the prices were reasonable were few, and where the employer made diligent use of his opportunity the game was burglary. Some years ago, when I was investigating the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania, I found that the run of prices at the company's store averaged thirty per cent higher than they should have been, and the miners were compelled to buy at those prices or be discharged. At the same time the law of the State absolutely prohibited company stores, and almost every coal mine had one. Well! What would you expect? It was Pennsylvania, you know, and names were so easy!

A Badly Burned Girl

or boy, man or woman, is quickly out of pain if Buckle's Arnica Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it in my family for cuts, sores and all skin injuries, and find it perfect." Quickest pile cure known. Best healing salve made. 25c. at all druggists.

At Donalds, S. C., last week a negro driver hauling five bales of cotton struck a match to light his pipe and the five bales were burned.

True and tried friends of the family—DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best for results and best to take. Roxy cheeks and sparkling eyes follow the use of these dependable little pills. They do not gripe or sicken. Sold by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

IF YOU TOUCH your tongue to ALUM and look in the glass—you will see the effect—You can't help puckering—it makes you pucker to think of tasting it.

By the use of so called cheap Baking Powders you take this puckering, injurious Alum right into your system—you injure digestion, and ruin your stomach.

AVOID ALUM

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Royal is made from pure, refined Grape Cream of Tartar—Costs more than Alum but you have the profit of quality, the profit of good health.

The Spoiled Child.

In "The Autobiography of An Only Child," in the November Everybody's, the anonymous writer sums up her case in the following fashion:

"In spite of better judgment, I fear every one of us who are only children in his heart likes himself, having in short, a monopoly of his parents. And that is because we are, most of us, spoiled, as is the common report about us. 'He is a sweet-tempered child,' they say, 'but spoiled;' meaning that he is imperious, selfish, self-willed; meaning, in fact, that he has not had normal and necessary opposition. Indulgent parents are quite capable of spoiling thus half a dozen, but it seems sad to say that the child's chances of remaining unspoiled, in spite of his parents, increase with the number of his brothers and sisters, because his parents' attention cannot be centered on him, and the conditions thus become more nearly normal. 'Conversely, it is almost impossible for an only child to remain unspoiled, however wise his parents merely because the conditions of his life cannot be normal. Inevitably, he is overemphasized; inevitably, his wishes too often control; he is not forced to make a sufficient number of adjustments to others, and so misses his full efficiency. This, and not his loneliness, is the deeper reason for regarding the only child's Christmas and his solitary playroom as pathetic. From out of my own experience, I have pity for the only child, pity for the parents to whom a second child is denied. But to the parents, who for any selfish reason refuse their child a companion, it seems to me the scriptural rule might well apply. 'Prom that hath not, shall be taken away even that which he hath.'

A Young Mother at 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth, Maine. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets stomach, liver and kidneys right, purifies the blood, and cures malaria, biliousness and weakness. Wonderful nerve tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

A soldier on duty as a sentinel at a Russian prison in St. Petersburg was publicly thanked and rewarded with $5 for shooting a young woman prisoner who appeared at her prison window and made fun of the soldiers. She did nothing more and was shot without provocation or warning. The soldier who killed her is held up as an example to be patterned after by his commander.

Keep the bowels open when you have a cold and use a good remedy to allay the inflammation of the mucous membranes. The best is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates, moves the bowels, drives out the cold, is reliable and tastes good. Sold by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

For some time past there has been trouble brewing in Mexico and several half-completed schemes to overthrow the government have been frustrated. Last week another deep laid plot was exposed. It is to be confidently expected that when President Diaz dies, there will be some kind of a revolution in the republic. As it is, he holds things with an iron hand. He is really more of an emperor than a president, and as such is a much more efficient ruler than a mere president, as we understand it. The Mexican people, as well as all the Latin people, need a strong semi-despotic government, and do their best under such control.

When a horse is overworked it lies down and in other ways declares its inability to go further, you would consider it criminal to use force. Many a man of humane impulses who would not willingly harm a kitten, is guilty of cruelty where his own stomach is concerned. Overdriven, overworked, when what it needs is something that will digest the food eaten and help the stomach to recuperate. Something like Kodol For Dyspepsia that is sold by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

John Cross Hammond, aged 24, who choked his aged wife, 53 years old, was sentenced to life imprisonment in New York last week. He said they had a little scuffle and in it he "somehow got his arms around his wife's neck and pinched a little." The body was found in a trunk at his home and Hammond disappeared for four months, at the end of which time he walked into police headquarters and gave himself up.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of coughs and colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Mrs. Geo. Wallis of Forest City, Maine, writes: "It's a godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quick-ly ends them." It prevents pneumonia, cures the grippe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c. and $1. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottle free.

P. G. Raissie, dying of cancer in Washington, proceeded in a business like way to arrange for his burial. He went to the undertaker's shop and selected his coffin. Then he had the undertaker to visit him and he selected his pall-bearers. Having completed all details, he gave delirious, broke away from five attendants and jumped through the window, landing below on his head. It did not seem to hurt him and he was put to bed.

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

The opening of an inland waterway reaching from the Massachusetts coast to the mouth of the Rio Grande river, is being seriously considered these days. If such a canal were constructed along the Atlantic coast, it would furnish an invaluable waterway for warships in time of war and would greatly increase our coastwise commerce. It would cost millions, however, and would be long in the making even if the government took it up.

Can you win? You realize that to win in anything these days requires strength, with mind and body in tune. A man or woman with disordered digestive organs is not in shape for a day's work or a day's play. How can they expect to win? Kodol For Dyspepsia contains the digestive juices of a healthy stomach and will put your stomach in shape to perform its important function of supplying the body and brain with strength building blood. Digests what you eat, relieves indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart and constipation. Sold by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

Editor Keeley, of the Chicago Tribune, was given a check for $5,000 last week for the capture of Paul O. Stensland, the bank wrecker. The paper effected his arrest. He promptly turned the check over to the receiver of the defunct bank to be included with its other assets for the payment of creditors. It cost the Tribune $5,000 to capture the defaulter, so it is out $10,000, but has got a million dollars worth of good advertising.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

Two white girls of St. Louis, held in bondage by Musgrave, a wealthy white farmer of Arkansas, have recovered $625 and $1,000 each in a damage suit against him.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in old or young. Sold by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

A French submarine boat sank for keeps one day last week with fifteen sailors aboard. It was going abroad through submarine evolutions when something occurred that took the boat downward and kept it there.

Sick Headache Cured.

Sick headache is caused by derangement of the stomach and by indigestion. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets correct these disorders and effect a cure. By taking these tablets as soon as the first indication of the disease appears, the attack may be ward off. For sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

The question of tainted money has arisen in England. Sam Lewis, a Jew, and England's greatest money lender, bequeathed millions to Jewish charities, but there is some hesitation on the part of the leading Jews in accepting the money since they frown down on usurers among the Jews. It is the great aim of the leaders to suppress usury among their people and thus remove the popular idea that every Hebrew is a Shylock. The chief rabbi will not receive a usurer in his house.

Saying that "Whiskey had the best of him and that he could not live without it," William Martin, an employe of a Richmond envelope factory, attempted to shoot his head off with a pistol. His wife got the gun away from him after he had snapped it once. The gun hadn't been used in 20 years, so William was safe in giving his better half a fright.

Blood Poisoning

results from chronic constipation, which is quickly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. They remove all poisonous germs from the system and infuse new life and vigor; cure sour stomach, nausea, headache, dizziness and colic without gripping or discomfort. 25c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Under the auspices of the Belgian government and the authorities of South Carolina, 258 skilled Flemish weavers are enroute from Belgium to Charleston, to take work in the mills of that State. This is the beginning of a considerable immigration movement.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough, and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Busard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

In removing bodies from an old cemetery at Baltimore, a number of them were found to be petrified. One woman who was buried two and one-half years ago was found to have turned to stone through the strange chemical process that produces petrification.

Torments of Tetter and Eczema Allayed.

The intense itching characteristic of eczema, tetter and like skin diseases is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve and many severe cases have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by C. N. Simpson, Jr., and Dr. S. J. Welsh.

Mrs. William Bengert, wife of the gardener of E. S. Gary, son of former postmaster-general Gary, at Clearfield, Maryland, last week threw a pound of paris green into the well from which the family of Gary drew the water. The woman admitted it and said she did it to avenge herself on one person, another servant, on whom she hoped to have the blame put for poisoning the well. Fortunately, nobody got any of the poison, it being discovered before any drank of the water.
