meno, THE MONROE JOURNAL.

VOLUME XIV. NO. 29

MONROE, N. C., TUESDAY OCTOBER 22, 1907.

One Dollar a Year

the shore The Spoilers. By REX E. BEACH. Copyright, 196, by Rox E. Beach, granted that there would lie the scene

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I - At Unalaska Glenister and Dextry, gold miners boand to Nome, save a young woman from a party of salors. The three sail north on the Svinta Maria, the girl as a stowaway in the miner's cabin, while the meng ob e-low. Dextry has been warned to guard his claim and to beware of a man named McNamar, who backed by the contri-we'd better make ro out," said another. " his claim and to beware of a man named McNamara, who backed by the court, is going to Nome. The girl overhear Glenister say he considers her "spoils of war." II—The girl, carrying im-portant papers, had left Seattle for Nome on the Ohio, which, with small-pox aboard, had been quarantined at unalaska. She had field from the Ohio in order to reach Nome as soon as pos-sible. III—The girl tells Glenister her name is Helen Chester. She is "bring-ing the law" to Nome. He tells her he will guard his mine himself. He kisses her against her will. IV—As Helio her against her will. IV—As Helio heaves the cabin on the ship's arrival at will guard his mine himself. He kisses her against her will. IV-As Helen leaves the cabin on the ship's arrival comber rose out of the sen behind leaves the cabin on the ship's arrival at them. rearing high above their leads. Nome she is seen by Mrs. Champian of Nome. Struve, the lawyer whom Helen has come to see, is found drunk. Glen-ister saves Helen from accidental shoot-ing. Glenister and Dextry take Helen, for safet to the mine man the Mide rash the deluge engulfed them. There ing. Glenister and Dextry take Helen, for safety, to their mine, the Midas V-Judge Stillman, Helen's uncle, ar Other arrivals are Alec McNamara, a political schemer, and Dunham, partner of Struve. McNamara and the two lawyers plot to "jump" the Midas claim. Their agent, Galloway, has been driven off by Dextry. Struve, acting on instructions in the papers brough innocently by Helen, has cloaded the titles of the richest placers in Nome. McNamara is head of a scheme to oust the rightful mine owners. There have been many attempts to "jump" claims. Glenister promises Helen that he will not Glenister promises Helen that he will try to become civilized and will not shoot the claim "jumper." VI-Me-Namara, as receiver for Galloway, takes charge of the Midas by order of Judge Stillman. He has already seized many other claims. Glenister suspects Judge Stillman despite his belief in Hele... He prevents one of his men, Siaplack Simms, from shooting MeNa-mara. VII-In a Nome saloon, dance hall and gambling hall Cherry Malotte, a mining camp woman, in love with a mining camp woman, in love with Gleniater, fills for a short time the place of Bronce Kid, the faro dealer. Glen-iater had been infatuated with Cherry. of Bronco Kid, the faro dealer. Glen-ister had been infatuated with Cherry, but had broken with her. He tells her of the "jumping" of his claim, now a week old, and the vain attempts at le-gal relief made by his lawyer. Bill Wheaton. McNamara is supported by federal troops. Cherry becomes jealous of Helen when Glenister tells he intends ito marry the newcomer. Bronco Kid, in love with Cherry, is jealous of Glenister. VIII-McNamara falls in love with Hel-en. The girl tells Dextry that her miss-ing brother is somewhere in Alaska. She attracts the attention of the Bronco Kid. McNamara seizes all the property on the claims. Glenister and Dextry believe that judge, prosecuting attorney and marahal are all conspiring with Mc-Namara against them. McNamara's move leaves them without funds. Dex-try delies and threatens McNatuara and Judge Stillman. IX -Dextry declares his intention of killing McNamara if the latter has "fixed" the higher courts in San Francisco, Judge Stillman is to move his court to St. Michael's for a month, leaving McNamara free to work the claims. Glenister Dextry and breathless daylight saw the ship hugging the lee Island, mlies to the westward, while the surf, white as boiling milk, boomed and thundered against Word had gone through the street that Bill Whenton was abound with a writ or a subpoena or an alibi or whatever was necessary to put the "kilosh" on McNamara, so public excitement grew. McNamara hoarded his gold in the Aluska bank, and it was taken for

of the struggle. No one supposed for an instant that the usurper would part with the treasure peaceably. On the third morning the ship lay abreast of the town again, and a life-boat was seen to make off from ber, won't do it." whereupon the idle population stream-"She'll make it to the surf all right, "Why-you"-"We'd better make ready to haul 'om fingers.

"Let's get to the judge quick."

tel they spied McNamara ontering. It was evident that he had slipped from the rear door of his office and beaten

"I don't like that," said Glenister.

So it appeared, for they were fifteen minutes in gaining access to the magistrate and then found McNamara with him. Both men were astounded at the change in Stillman's appearance

During the last month his weak face had shrunk and altered until vacillawatching McNamara's slightest move ment. It seemed that the part he play-

The judge examined the papers per functorily, and, although his air was man to surrender the mine and everything connected with it. Now, sir, we want you to enforce these orders."

Stillman glanced at the silent man ularly and make application in court in the proper way, but I tell you now that I won't do anything in the matter

Wheaton stared at him fixedly until

"You say they are certified copies

The lawyer grew very white at this

"Come, come," he said; "we'll carry this thing through in open court. May be his nerve will go back on him then

McNamara has him hypnotized, but he won't dare refuse to obey the order with expedition was evidenced by th

fact that the Swedes were close upo

Others had followed, sensing some elbow. "What's the matter?" he cried

Gleuister.

"We want Alec McNamara," sal

The manager of the bank appeared and Glenister spoke to him through conversed softly an instant, while the impatience of the crowd grew to

"Let's go in and drag him out," and the rumble at this was not pleasant anger. Some one cried:

Morehouse raised his hand.

"Is McNamara in there?

suid.

of the circuit court of appeals."

and stammered until Glenister drew

"You will, of course, proceed in the window and replied:

the old man snapped out:

signed them yourself."

him out of the room.

them to the judicial car.

"He's up to something."

ed sat heavily upon him.

out," said another. "It's mighty dan-crash the deluge engulfed them. There remained nothing but a swirling flood tion was betrayed in every line, and he had acquired the habit of furtively delfberate, his fingers made clumsy work of it. At last he said: "I regret that I am forced to doubt bystanders seized a limp form which the tide rolled to them. It was the the authenticity of these documents." "My heavens, man!" Wheaton cried. second sailor, his scalp split from a "They're certified copies of orders blow of the gunwale. Nowhere was from your superior court. They grant Wheaton. the appeal that you have denied us

Glenister had plunged to the rescu and take the case out of your hands altogether. Yes, and they order this first, a heaving line about his middle. and, although buffeted about, he had reached the wreek, only to miss sight of the lawyer utterly. He had time for but a glance when he was drawn outward by the undertow till the line at his waist grew taut, then the water surged over him and he was hurled high up on the beach again. He stag-gered diznily back to the struggle. when suddenly a wave lifted the capsized cutter and righted it, and out from beneath shot the form of Wheaton, grimly clutching the life ropes. How do I know they are? The signa-tures may all be false. Maybe you They brought him in choking and "I got it," he said, slapping his streaming breast. "It's all right, Glenister. I knew what delay meant, so I took a long chance with the surf." The terrific ordeal he had undergone had blanched him to the lips, his legs wabbled uncertainly, and he would have fallen but for the young man, who thrust an arm about his walst and led him up into the town. "I went before the circuit court of

"He won't, ch? Well, what do you think he's doing right now?" appeals in 'Frisco," he explained later, of they beyond orders allowing an appeal from this court and gave me a with leaving McNamara free to work with of supersedeas directed against e claims. Glenister, Dextry and old Judge Stillman. That takes the told me things while I was in 'Frisco the claims. Glenister, Dextry and Simms, disguised as negroes, make a midnight raid on the mine to obtain gold to send Wheaton to San Francisco. On the same night McNamara takes Helen to see the mine. He tells her the legal procedure against Glenister and Dextry is regular. The tells her the others at work. He holds her up and then leaves without revealing his idea turbs Glenister by telling him McNamara and his men-off on al wrong scent. X—Dextry dia-turbs Glenister by telling him McNamara ara is in love with Helen. Wheaton goes to San Francisco. Helen tells Glenister she knows who the mine rob-bers are. Cherry Malotte, calling on which I couldn't believe, but I guess they're true. Judges don't disobey the orders of their courts of appeal unless there is power back of them." They proceeded to the attorney's of fice, but had not been there long be fore Slapjack Simms burst in upon "Hell to pay!" he panted. "McNa mara's taking your dust out of the bank." "What's that?" they cried. "I goes into the bank just now for an assay on some quartz samples. The assayer is busy, and I walk back into his room, and while I'm there in trots McNamara in a hurry. He don't see me, as I'm inside the private office. make her see it-make her see that beand I overhear him tell them to ge neath the harshness his years in the his dust out of the vault quick." wild had given him his love for her "We've got to stop that," said Gler was gentle and true and all absorbing. He would bid her be patient till she saw he had mastered himself, till he "If he takes ours, he'll take th Swedes', too. Simus, you run up the Pioneer company and tell the could come with his soul in harness. "I am glad I didn't fight when they jumped us," he said. "Now we'll get about it. If he gets that gold out of there, nobody knows what'll become of it. Come on, Bill." our property back and all the money He snatched his hat and ran out o they took out-that is, if McNamara the room, followed by the others. That record at the courthouse, the two men | eyes of the lean faced men beyond the intinued to McNamara's office. He grating be felt that the game met them with courtesy. growing close, and his blood tingled at "I heard you had a narrow escape the thought. He had not planned on a this morning, Mr. Wheaton. Too bad! resistance so strong and swift, but he What can I do for you?" would meet it. He knew that they The lawyer rapidly outlined his posihungered for his destruction and that tion and stated in conclusion: Gloubster was their leader. He saw "I filed certified copies of these further that the man's hatred now ders with the clerk of the court ten stared at him openly for the first time minutes ago, and now I make formal He knew that back of it was some demand upon you to turn over the Midas to Messrs. Glenister and Dexthing more than love for the metal over which they wrangled, and try and also to return all the gold dust then a thought came to him. in your safe deposit boxes in accord-ance with this writ." He handed his "Some of your work, ch. Glenister?" he mocked. "Were you afreid to come documents to McNamara, who tossel them on his desk without examination. alone, or did you wait till you saw me with a lady ?"

"Well," said the politician quietly, "I At the same instant he opened a door Had he been slapped in the face the attorney would not have been more as-tonished. bohind him, revealing Helen Chester, "You'd better not walk out with me, Miss Chester. This man might-well, you're safer here, you know. You'll pardon me for leaving you." He hoped he could incite the young man to some rash act or word in the presence of "I won't do it, I said!" McNamara repeated sharply. "Don't think for a minute that I haven't gone into this fight armed for everything. Writs of the girl and counted on the conspicuous hereism of his own position, facsupersedens! Bah!" He snapped his

"We'll see whether you'll obey or "Come out." said his enemy hoarse not," said Wheaton, and when he and Gienister were outside he continued: ly, upon whom the insult and the sight of the girl in the receiver's company had acted powerfully. As they neared the Golden Gate he

"Of course I'll come out, but I don't want this young lady to suffer any violence from your friends," said McNa-"I am not armed, but I have mara. the right to leave here unmolestedthe right of an American citizen." With that he raised his arms above his head. "Out of my way!" he cried. Morehouse opened the gate, and Mc-Namara strode through the mob. It is a peculiar thing that, although under fury of passion, a man may fire even upon the back of a defenseless

"Out of my way?" he cried. foe, yet no one can offer violence to man whose arms are raised on high and in whose glance is the level light of fearlessness, Moreover, it is safet to face a crowd thus than a single ad versary. McNamara had seen this psycholog ical trick tried before and now took ad vantage of it to walk through the press slowly, eye to eye. He did it theatrically, for the benefit of the girl, and, as he foresaw, the men fell away before him-all but Glenister, who blocked him, gun in hand. It was plain that the persecuted miner was beside him-self with passion. McNamara came within an arm's length before pausing.

Judge Stillman, If the circuit court of Program of Teachers' Meeting. appeals commands me to deliver it to The Union County Teachers' Assoyon, I'll do ft, but otherwise I'll have to ciation will hold its next regular keep this dust here till it's drawn out by order of the court that gave it to meeting in the chapel of the Monroe That's the way it was put in here, graded school building on Saturday, and that's the way it'll be taken out." October 26th, beginning about 10 o'clock a. m. 1. "Thoroughness in teaching "We want it now " "Well, I can't let my sympathies in-"Weil, I can't let my sympathles in fuence me." "Then we'll take it out anyway." erkel Glenister. "We've had the worst of it everywhere else, and we're sick of "Come on won" "Then we'll take it out anyway." erkel Glenister. "We've had the worst of it everywhere else, and we're sick of "Come on won" "The world take it out anyway." "The more essential features of any reading method." Led by Prof. T. M. Wiley. "The world object of arith-

"Stand buck, all of your" cried 3. "The scope and object of arith-metical teaching, or the position of arithmetic in the school house." He called this last to his clerks, at Prof. Jackson Hamilton.

the same lustant whipping from behind the counter a cartine, which he cocked the child." Discussion led by Prof.

The assayer brought into view a shot-gun, while the easher and clerks armed themselves. It was evident that the densits of the Alaska bank were ton abundantly safeguardest. "I don't aim to have any trouble with 6. "What qualities to be aimed at you all," continued the southerner, "but that money stays here till it's drawn out right." in the study of composition." 7, "The art of composition ing." A more to provide the southerner. 7, "The art of composition writtrawn out right." The crowd paused at this show of Rodena Taylor.

resistance, but Gienister railed at S. Regular business of the Asso-

"Come on! Come on! What's the ciation. PRESIDENT. matter with you?" And from the light In his eye it was evident that he would tired and drowsy and lacking in ambition? If so, there is something wrong Helen felt that a crisis was come and braced herself. These nen were in deadly earnest—the white halred banker, his pale helpers and those prfm, quiet ones outside. There stood brawny, sun browned men with set base for an frowning from and solution. jaws and frowning faces and yellow If the finding out of the facts about haired Scandhavians in whose blue railroad financing has depressed the eyes danced the flame of battle. These market, then the sooner it happened had been bailted at every turn, gonded the better. by repeated failure, and now stood shoulder to shoulder in their resist Quinsy, Sprains, Swellings Cured.

ince to a croel law. Suddenly Helen "In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quiusy. My throat was heard a command from the street and the quick tramp of men, while over the brads before her she saw the glint of rife barrels. A file of soldiers with it gave me relief in a short time. nxed bayonets thrust themselves rough two days I was all right," says Mrs. I. "Clear the room?" commanded the lain's Pain Balm is a biniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by English Drug Company. "It means that Judge Stillman bas called upon the military to guard this gold, that's all. Come, now, move quick!" The men hesitated, then sul-

enly obeyed, for resistance to the blue of Uncle Sam comes only at the cost of much consideration. "They're robbing us with our own soldiers." said Wheaton when they were outside. "Aye," said Glenister darkly, "We have tried the law, but they're forcing us back to first principles. There's go-

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is in old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or ound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, cut of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by English Drug Company. A Colorado man is reported to have same number of times wheaton. "I must think. This is the boldest game I ever played in. They malignantly at each other, while the to his credit that he also got sober the gotten drunk three times a day for a

How to Cure a Cold.

State Library

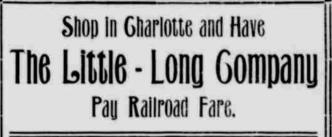

ð

Scott's Emulsion strengthens enfeebled nursing mothers by increasing their flesh and nerve force.

It provides baby with the necessary fat and mineral food for healthy growth.

ALL DRUCGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

000000000000000000000000000

It's the hub of the surrounding country and The Little Long Company's store is the emporium for merchandise that's up to the minute. There you'll find everything that's new, and the largest stock of the Carolinas to select from. The millinery and coat suit showings are far beyond anything ever seen in their stores. Besides, you will find every want can be supplied in the way of fine dress goods, silks and trimmings, floor coverings, china, bric-a-brac, men's and boys' high-class clothes, ladies', men's and children's fine shoes, men's and ladies' furnishings, as well as an up-to-date jewelry department containing sterling silver and plated table ware, silver novelties, solid and gold filled jewelry, watches, fobs, bracelets, diamonds, rings, etc. If you purchase $40.00 or more, railroad fare will be refunded within a radius of fifty miles, and freight prepaid on all purchases of $5.00 or more. Ask where's the biggest store in the Carolinas, and you'll be told it's in Chorlotte, and it's

The Little-Long Company

of Fall and Winter Merchandise Here for Your Inspection.

Notwithstanding the big advance in Cotton and Woolen Goods, we are still selling most lines of merchandise at old prices. The explanation is that we placed a large percentage of our orders for this Fall's Merchandise last Spring, and it is fortunate for those who patronize us that we did, as it enables us to sell them goods at much less than we could otherwise do. We always give our customers the advantage.

them:

ing to be murder here." [TO BE CONTINUED.]

Glenister she knows who the mile co-bers are. Cherry Malotte, calling on Glenister to warn him against pursuit, outwits McNamara and his searchers by hiding the gold in Glenister's stove.

CHAPTER XI. RAW, gray day, with a driving drizzie from seaward and a leaden rack of clouds drifting low, matched the sullen, fitful mood of Glenister. During the last month he had chafed and fretted like an animal in leash for word of Wheaton. This uncertainty, this impotent waiting with folded hands, was maddening to one of his spirit. He could apply himself to no fixed duty, for the sense of his wrong preyed on him flercely, and he found mself haunting the vicinity of the Midas, gazing at it from afar, grasping hungrily for such scraps of news as chanced to reach him. McNamara allowed access to none but his minions, so the partners knew but vaguely of what happened on their prop-erty, even though, under fiction of the law, it was being worked for their No steps regarding a speedy hearing of the case were allowed, and the col-lusion between Judge Stillman and the receiver had become so generally rec ognized that there were uneasy mut-terings and threats in many quarters. Yet, although the politician had by now virtually absorbed all the richest properties in the district and worked m through his hirelings, the people of Nome as a whole, did not grasp the full turpitude of the scheme nor the system's perfect working. Strange to say, Dextry, the fire eater, had assumed an oriental patience quite foreign to his peppery disposition and spent much of his time in the hills prospecting.

On this day, as the clouds broke about noon, close down on the angry horizon a drift of smoke appeared, shortly resolving itself into a steamer. She lay to in the offing, and through his glasses Glenister saw that it was the Roanoke. As the hours passed and a ganages transmit is were the total of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or xnown but the longaboremen spat wisely and shock their heafs as they watched the "There's the devil of an undertow settin' along this bench." There's the devil of an undertow settin' along this bench." They told him, "and the water's too cold to drownd in comfortable." So he laid firm hands upon his topattesce.
Every day meant many dollars to the wate ice, and yet it seemed that nature was resolute in the wind freebend, and for that night the wind freebened, and hasn't salted it." "Yes; all that's necessary is to file the documents, then serve the judge and McNamara. You'll be back on Anvil creek tomorrow."

Having placed their documents on

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other sympof female weakness are frequen headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnaw-dark spots floating before the eyes, gnaw-ing senantion in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness. If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remody that whighter than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Present of the size of over forty years of curve it is the most potent invisorating tonic and strengthening ner-vine known to medical science. It is made of the givenic extracts of nalive medici-nal roots found in our forests and conthe heavy wire netting. nal roots found in our forests and con-tains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and at-tested under oath as correct. in there like a dog."

tested under oath as correct. Every ingredient entering into "Fa-vorite Prescription" has the written en-dorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of prac-tice-more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials-though the latter are not lacking, having been con-tributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of wogan's life. You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute

"Gentlemen, Mr. McNamara says he doesn't intend to take any of the gold away." "Then he's taken it already." "No, he hasn't."

The receiver's course had been quickly chosen at the interruption. It of unknown composition as a substitute was not wise to anger these men too much. Although he had planned to get the money into his own possession, he now thought it best to leave it here for the present. He could come back at any time when they were off guard and get it. Beyond the door against which he stood lay $300,000 weighed, sacked, scaled and ready to move out of the custody of this Virginian whose confidence he had tried so fruitlessly to gain. As McNamara looked into the girl behind the railing heard ber heart pounding in the stillness. Glenister raised his hand uncertainly, then let it fall. He shook his head and stepped aside, so that the other brushed past > and out into the street. Wheaton addressed the banker:

the circuit court of appeals at 'Frisco over to us." He shoved the papers toward the other. "We're not in a mood we want it."

documents are not directed to me. They're issued to Mr. McNamara and Drug Company.

The question of how to cure cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all Wheaton addressed the banker: "Mr. Morehouse, we've got orders and writs of one kind or another from the circuit court of anopeals at "Frice be circuit court of a the circuit court of appeals at 'Frisco directing that this money be turned W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ward the other. "We're not in a mood to trifle That gold belongs to us, and berlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the

The Bank of Union,

Five years ago The Bank of Union opened for business. At that time there was only one bank in Union county, with assets of about the loose jointed Slapjack did his work $200,000.00 or less, while now there are five banks in the county with assets aggregating about $1,000,000.00. What a wonderful change for so short a time! What is the reason? The principal cause lies in the enhanced values of farm products, but along with this there has been a great awakening in the way of doing business. their heels as the two entered the bank thing unusual, and the space within People who were dead in financial matters have come to life, and the doors filled rapidly. At the disturbance the clerks suspended their work, the barred doors of the safe de they see the dawn of a better day. People are more thrifty than five years ago. They are more ambitious to succeed, and they do succeed. The banks have contributed no nittle to this revolution in posit vault clanged to, and the cashier laid hand upon the navy Colt's at his financial matters.

The Bank of Union Has Labored Steadily to Promote Prosperity in Union and Adjoining Counties.

It has spent much money to safeguard the interests of its custo-mers. No bank could do more under the circumstances. Absolute safety and good service are guaranteed. The people should recog-nize these facts and appreciate them. They could not do this in a more welcome way than by using this bank as a depository. A private room for the accommodation of customers has been provid-ed. There they will find a desk process the for their second provid-No one had ever known Morchouse to lie. "Yes, sir." He spoke hesitat-ingly, in a voice full of the slow music Virginia. "He is in here. What of "We hear he's trying to move the dust of ours, and we won't stand for it. Tell him to come out and not hide ed. There they will find a desk, paper, etc., for their convenience. Welcome. At these words the politician appear-ed beside the southerner, and the two

Dress Goods

A VARIETY OF WEAVES. 56-inch Ladies' Cloth, all colors, the yard- 48c 54-inch Ladies' Cloth, all colors, special at 75c and 95c

Lot 50c. value in Mohairs, at 39 Lot Woolen Dress Goods, 15c to 25c value, while it lasts, per yard

Silks! Silks!! Notwithstanding big advance, we have Silks at the same old prices: 36-inch Taffeta, all shades in solids and plaids, per yard

Dress Ginghams and Outings

The same brands we sold last season at 10e a yard than 12le.

Blankets

These chilly nights naturally remind a per-son of Blankets—and everybody wants the best for the price—which is the ELKIN at $2.98 a pair.

Shoes! Shoes!!

SHO

Here you will find a and the beauty about it, with a few exceptions, we have them as cheap as you have ever bought the same shoes.

The Cash Mercantile Company

The House that Saves You Money !

Men's Shoes from $1.25 to a $5.00 High Grade Shoe.

Women's Shoes at 50c a pair to $3.50. We promise and will save you money on your shoe bill.

in the season-a. ! there's a reason for it. We are showing some of the best values that were ever offered in Monroe in Men's Suits, Boy's Suits and Children's Knee

We have never had such a big Clothing business so early Clothing! Clothing!!

Pants Suits, and Men's Odd Pants. We can save you one-third of the regular price On a Big Job Lot of Clothing we have. We

We could not buy them now to sell for less bought it at a big discount. You get the benefit.

Don't Lose Any Time

This store makes a specialty of Bargains

Ladies' Coats

More than Two Hundred Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats here to select from.

Think of buying an All-Wool Black Kersey Coat for $5.00 ! Worth fully 25 per cent more, big range of styles and and we have others at $7.50 and $9.00 that we prices to select from could not duplicate at the price.

Children's very serviceable Coats-just the thing for school wear-at $2.90 and upward. We have them as low as 98c

Many Other Bargains

We could mention hundreds of other Bargains, but haven't the space, so we'll have to give to you in broken doses.

Don't Lose Sight of