

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling of stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, nervous or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

The Call of His Girl.

That there are many strange experiences, unexpected events and unaccountable coincidences together of friends and relatives in store for the average human being is frequently and forcibly demonstrated. Mr. A. F. Bowen tells about an unexpected meeting with his brother, Thos. W. Bowen, in Richmond, Va., last week. Something over a year ago his brother gave up a position of trust and profit and started to see something of the North-west. At that time he wrote: "I am going to devote a year to seeing something of the world. I am going to Alaska. I don't know when you will see me again."

FAMILIAR TALKS ON FARMING.

S. A. Knapp, Special Agent in Charge Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration Work, U. S. Department of Agriculture. On the first of June I found time to make another call on Uncle John. He expected me and had invited about twenty neighboring farmers to be present. As I approached the house I noticed some signs of improvement; the front fence was repaired, a few rose bushes had been set out, and a new walk made. Within the farmers appeared to be very much interested about something.

The Lesson of the Riots Against Negroes at Springfield.

The exodus of the negroes from Springfield seems to be permanent, said an Associated Press dispatch yesterday. "There are still a few scattered colored families in the few blocks guarded by the soldiers, but they, for the most part, are women, children and aged men. The younger and middle aged are few in number. Occasionally one may see three or four of the men standing near a burned home but all are making preparations to leave Springfield as soon as funds are available. Outgoing cars are still crowded with the blacks." The story is a pitiful one. Three-fourths of the negroes of the city have left their homes behind them and such of them as had no homes their little belongings, except such as they could carry on their backs, and made their way into the outlying country, going they know not where.

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

There are no secrets in this campaign. Strictly practicing what he preaches, Mr. Bryan would not win victory with tainted money paying the election expenses. Not a dollar is to be accepted which requires any promise, either express or implied, other than for HONEST, IMPARTIAL GOVERNMENT. Mr. Bryan will enter the White House absolutely free from entangling alliances, free to serve all classes of honest citizens alike, or he will not enter at all.

The Man Who is "Rooted."

We have heard thoughtful men condemn the little hired "rooters" that go about in the interest of the candidates who are paying them, but they shouldn't be condemned so severely. They couldn't do anything to produce results with out so-called voters who permit themselves to be "rooted." The fellows who place themselves in a position to be "rooted" are the ones to condemn. They ought to be made so ashamed of themselves by an outraged public sentiment that they will either learn how to vote without having somebody to tell them, or quit voting until they can learn how to think for themselves.

Nearly $1,000 Found in a Widow's House.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter died in Madison August 9th. She was the widow of Mr. Joshua Carpenter who moved to Kansas from the Maiden section soon after the civil war. After Mr. Carpenter's death a few years ago, she came back to maiden and bought a house in the western part of town, in which she lived, most of the time alone. Her nephew, Mr. A. L. Keener, was a near neighbor and helped to manage her business and was kind and attentive to her when sick. Mr. Keener has administered on her estate, and has found hid away in books and drawers $980. In an old Salem Almanac he found a hundred dollar bill. The estate is worth $4,000 or $5,000.

Holy Rollers Rolling Some.

Twenty-five men and seven women were before a New York magistrate last week for keeping a disorderly house. They were "Holy Rollers" and the house where they had been carrying on their rolling got to be a nuisance. During the trial one of the rollers jumped on the judge and was going to eat him raw, and the judge held him in the sum of $1,500 for contempt. One of the women thereupon said the judge circled the report that he attempted to hug and kiss her in his private office when he examined her as to the case against the rollers. The judge proved he hadn't on the spot and held her in the sum of $5,000 for contempt.

Railroads Should Look After the Whole-Seat Hogs.

The Monroe Journal has something to say about the people who take possession of one whole seat in a railroad car—room enough for two—and hold on to it while other passengers stand. This habit is practiced by a large number of people who consider themselves well-bred, and it is an exhibition of human selfishness. No passenger has any right, as against another passenger, to more room in a railroad car than his person occupies. But the average man or woman like a whole seat and do not want a seat-mate unless it be an acquaintance. Any passenger going into a car has a right to plant himself in a seat in which there is but one person, without asking permission, for he has as much right there as the passenger already there. But few people like to thrust themselves in under the circumstances, and so the unfortunates walk up and down the car, looking for kindly faces to offer them room, while the hogs who occupy twice the room to which they are entitled gaze out the window, up to the car roof or at a book or newspaper, living examples of selfishness or bad manners.

The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. Township No. 13, Edgecombe county, was the scene Thursday night of the most horrible tragedy in the criminal history of Edgecombe county. Logan Jones, in a drunken rage, declared he would wipe out his family and, upon attempting to make good the threat, was shot down by his 15-year-old son. He was also struck with an axe by another child. He died instantly from the shot wound.
