Rocky River Springs

CHANGED TO ALL-ROUND

YEAR RESORT.

Summer Season Opens June Ist

The proprietor of these Celebrated Springs has made many improvements since last season-has just installed Electric Light Plant and Water Works, lighting up all the buildings, springs and grounds. :::

Sulphur, Iron, Arsenic And Magnesia Springs.

For rates, etc., address,

W. T. BRASINGTON, Prop., Rocky River Springs, N. C.

If It's Furniture You Want,

The Place To Buy is T. P. Dillon's. he appeared to be all right in every live from the text in hand included this Charlotte advertiser knew the constant of th

Room Suits in oak, $13.50, with roll foot

Odd Dressers and Iron Beds, all prices. Rockers of all the latest styles and prices. Matting, Carpets, Druggets, Rugs, Oil head during the winter.

The largest stock of Matting ever placed on our floor.

PIANOS AND ORGANS

of the best quality, and all we ask is that you give our Instruments a fair test.

Yours for

On The Level!

That is what we always try to be with our clients. When we talk you can depend upon it that we represent the safest and best companies. Take LIFE Insurance. Do you know that is today one of the best investments? You not only protect your family but you share in the profits as well. Call and let us explain the latest Endowment Policy.

INSURANCE

Gordon Insurance & Investment Co.

STORY OF A BIGARIST.

Deplorable Affair Involving Prominent Young Lady of Alleghany

One of the most deplorable af fairs that has ever occurred in terest to practically all of this section of North Carolina, Prof. E.

Leff Wagoner, a brother of the young woman, having taught at Dobson and being a prominent educator of Alleghany county. The Wagoner family is one of the Wagoner family is one of the whole is almost without the people who read them and are held by their subscribers in more to produce his cotton for fer prominent in Wagoner family is one of the whole is almost without the first with the government ought to see that the family end to the saturday mor sing, and that, under the influence of whiskey, his aim was bad, otherwise he would have killed her.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley have been more to produce his cotton for fer prominent in Charlotte Society for a number of years. She is the Carolina and the victim of Olsen, parallel in my observation. as he called himself, is a beautiful terday. He met Miss Wagoner at both factors in making that unit) Elkin October last as she was en | During my residence in Char | The House by the Side of the Road. he declared, but was persuaded by Prof. Wagoner to remain at White-

Olsen professed religion and his domestic relations were cordial until March last, when he attempted to gain possession of his wife's Then Mrs. Wagoner, the mother, intervened and Olsen acted in such a manner as to get himself in jail. He was placed un-der an $800 peace bond, but Prof. Wagoner, his brother-in law, had the sum reduced and the fellow was released with the understanding

T. P. Dillon.

Accompanied by his young wife he left Whitehead. Nobody knew anything about him and all his references proved false. The wife references proved false. that he leave the State. practically every city in the Unit-ed States had description of Robt. P. Donnelly, alias Smith, alias Mcat Peoria on three charges of for gery and one of bigamy. It seems that he forged a check on his Peoria wife for $2,000 and buncoed other persons out of several hun-

Wife No. 2 clung lovingly to the traitor and would not believe in his guilt. He attempted to commit suicide in the jail at Bluefield by snatching Chief of Police Newkirk's pistol from him. Olsen, or Donnelly, is about 35 years old, has curly hair and may be classed as good looking. Much sympathy is expressed for the young woman on account of the deplorable affair and it is hoped by the friends of the family that the fellow will be made to pay for his crimes.

DeWitt's is the original. you get DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. It good for cuts, burns and bruise and is especially good for piles. Sold by English Drug Company.

that is as good as DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills—small, gentle, pleasant and sure pills

INVESTIGATION

First National Bank of Monroe

on interest or subject to check.

DEPOSITORY FOR STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY OF UNION, and CITY OF MONROE.

s s s s s s UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL s s s s

OFFICERS:

statements. The light of this investigation has resulted in bringing the

Some Impressions of The Evening the People of Charlotte.

Western North Carolina is being a magnificent paper and the an-reasonable profit, while on the oth- a decidly wrapon with the intent to unfolded in Whitehead, Alleghany nonnecement that it is to be follower hand, with sharp contrast with kill his wife, Mrs. Kathering Jorcounty, each day, as the details of ed by another big edition for May it in the bill, is incorporated a tax dan Hurley.

the operations and machinations of 20, indicates that you are putting on the very fertilizing element upon. For the past few days the town route from her mountain home to lotte a few years ago I took occa-Sanderville, Ga., to enter a train sion once to make a house to house [Years ago, in the class room of the celebrated Harkness, professor they were married at Rock Hill, of Charlotte (over two wards) and of Greek in Brown College—as it tual friends to have been patched S. C., by Rev. Thos. C. Odell. At I found The Chronicle in evidence then was a young man was called that time Olsen was engaged in a in the homes of the city by a grand on to translate. To this day, he grocery business in Charlotte and big show over any other paper, says, he does not know how accu lotte most abruptly, he and his ditions of the Chronicle's circula-young wife going to Whitehead tion as well as I found them out at presumably to spend Christmas first hand at that time there would that scatence," thought the young with her parents. Olsen was on not be a single one of them absent the point of leaving for Nebraska, from its columns.

man as he sat down. There was friends, but going to their rooms indeed a poem in it, but he did not at the Butord Hotel, he left his

EDWARD GILLIAM. Boston, May 17, 1909.

His First Speech in Senate.

bill as giving the manufacturer an Sam Walter Foss. Copyright, 1897. undue advantage over the Ameri by Lee & Shepard. Used by per-can workingman, Senator Smith of mission of Lothrop, Lee & Shepard South Carolina unequivocally ex. Company]. pressed his faith in a free trade policy in an extended speech, while the cotton schedule was under consideration in the Senate today. "The whole tendency of this legislation has been to cheapen the raw material and raise the price of the finished article," said Mr. Smith, "thereby giving to the protected manufacturer a double advantage, lessening the price of what he has to buy and raising the Let me live in a house by the side of a typewriter left with the Char-lotte National Bank, he was picked into pleading for, or shall I vote for The men that are good, the men that protection of the raw material. 1 up near Bluefield. He was wanted believe a thing is worth what it will bring in the open markets of the world. What I shall vote against is the iniquitous and inde-feusible system of legislating a profit for artificial methods. I be fensible system of legislating a profit for artificial methods. I be lieve that American skill and the 1 see from my house by the side of the wonderful mechanical devices operated by steam, water and electricity, and our nearness to the rial makes it possible for us to compete with the nations of the world."

And I turn not away from their smiler and their tears—and their tears—Both parts of an Infinite plan. source of supply for the raw matelutely idle talk about the protective tariff being a benefit to the cotton and grain growers of America. In support of his position, Mr. Smith quoted, though not by name, a leading manufacturer of the South, who, he said, had told him that he Witt's Carbolized Witch Hagel Salve belived that it was right and just that the protective feature of tariff on cotton goods should be entirely wiped out. The protection of the government, asserted Mr. Smith, giving such a margin of profit, has invited and brought into the cotton When industry goes out of the manufacturing business "a lot of window, poverty breaks down the financial bucaneers and plungers. who, by the marvelous profits that could be figured, possibly on paper, put on foot impossible schemes, which have resulted disastrously to the mill industry of the country."

ATTRACTS NOTICE IN BOSTON. every other manufacturing indus Charlotte Man Attempts to Kill Novel Contract of a try.

"The monstrous injustice of this sectionlars." Chronicle --- Its Great Hold on bill is made in two particulars," Solicitor Heriot Clarkson will continued Mr. Smith. "This bill present this morning to the grand Your 28 page issue of May 15 is tries and guaranteeing to them a charging him with an assault with is held on the charge of forgery are dailies of which Charlotte has nitrogenious element that is so Hurley, who left Charlotte Satur-The story of the affair is of in- and afternoon papers anywhere nied the privilege of making other it with her husband. She write it for nearly twenty years. as he had translated them stayed was committed,

Ex-Farmers' Union Smith Makes with him, and he was then able to Shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday write a poem which has made a morning, it is said by Mrs. Hurdeep impression on many lives. Denouncing the pending tariff From "Dreams in Homespua," by

> There are bermit souls that live with drawn In the place of their self-content;

apart In a fellowless firmament; There are pioneer souls that blaze Where highways never ran. Let me live in a house by the side

And be a friend to man scat. Or huri the cynic's ban?

road, By the side of the highway of life, the men that press on with the ardor he men that press on with the ardor of hope, And the men that are faint with the

the road And be a friend to man, I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead, And mountains of wearisome height, That the road stretches on through the long afternoon

And passes away to the night.
Yet still I rejoice when the travelers

Like a man that lives alone.

Where the race of men go by. They are good, they are bad, they are Then why should I sit in the scorne Or hurl the cynic's ban?

with a reputation. Sold by English He said that what is true of the Drug Company.

He said that what is true of the the road And be a friend to man.

His Wife.

declares that it is for the purpose jury now in session the case of the of encouraging American indus-State against Mr. Dennisa Hurley, one Ola Olsen, aftas Robert P. Don-nelly, became known. He is now a prisoner in Peoria, Ill., where he on a great head of steam and show-ing a wonderful burst of speed.

The Observer and The Chronicie his soil. This ammonia, or this departure from the city of Mrs. and bigamy, he having married great reason to be proud. I have costly and so essential in the pro-day night for the home of her Miss Agues Wagoner, a beautiful traveled from Maine to California duction of this crop must be taxed mother. Mrs. W. T. Jordan, in young woman of twenty years, and I am familiar with the best because a few coke and gas compa. New York. Prior to her depart when he had a wife living in the daily newspapers of the United nies who, already protected and are she fold her friends that her States. I have never seen morning making their millions, cannot be de life was in danger should she spend terest to practically all of this sec- that are as influential with their millions out of that which the gov- stated that he had fired at her three most prominent in Western North fection which is almost without tilizer in order to give a little ad a number of years. She is the arallel in my observation.

The Observer has for years had perous protected industry, but he jorden, who made Charlotte their and accomplished young woman. a liberal advertising patronage, almust also pay a duty on his bag home during her young ladyhood. She has been taken from Bluefield, though its rates are far and away ging and ties in order to build up W. Va., by her brother, whither the highest in the State. But with a bagging industry on American ringe. Mr. Hurley came to Charshe had gone with her supposed a paper like The Observer the unit soil, where no raw jute material lotte from Lynchburg, Va., and of cost must look very small beside was produced and, on the other was at first engaged in the cotton Details of the operations of Olsen was produced and, on the other was at his regaged in the cotton hand, to add to the profits of the business here. He connected himsen were received in this city yes vertisers (quality and quantity are great steel trust. and was to some extent successful in business. His marriage took place about three years ago, and

> During the past few years he has ea drinking more than he should and to some extent his health has been thereby impaired. This is evidenced by his treatment at the > while there has been unhappiness

it was generally supposed by mu-wife and it was Saturday morning All that time, though, the words that the alleged attempt at murder > ley's friends to whom she related the whole story of the affair, that he entered her bed room and ordered her to leave it. Seeing that he was intoxicated, she acquiesced o all of his demands, but stated that she could not leave immediate-He threatened to shoot her, so the said, and had a pistol in his hand. After a few moments of loud talking and threats, it is said, he placed his revolver almost in his wife's face and fired. On account of his drunken condition his hand trembled to such an extent that the nim went wild, and the bullet passed her left car. After the shot was fired, he is credited with having made other threats, expressing regret that the bullet night comforting of and caring for Union county has as good rural room, which was connected through they cry at night and to fix the fur. as adjoining bath room, he seized his wife's clothes and was on the point of throwing them at her feet, when she quickly closed his bed room door, locking it. Almost immediately another pistol report was heard, the bullet crashing through alarm was given. When the room door was opened from the hall liurley is said to have the pen as reluctantly as the timid begged for more builets, only three having been in his pistol when he entered the room. For several hours men held him while his wife was busy getting her possession together preparatory to going to her mother in New York. Mrs. Hurley telephoned many of her friends to come to her and she related to them the above story. And weep with the strangers that She stated that it was through fear of being killed that she was compelled to leave her husband, and under no conditions would she ever return to him.

gentleness and womanliness won for her many admirers. During her married life, she was all that a wife should be and through her years of unhappiness, by her loyalty and struggle to correct and improve conditions, drew her friends closer to her. She left many loyal friends here and carried with her the respect and admiration of the community.

Women Who Are Envied.

Every thinking citizen is now paying strict attention to public and local business conditions. and especially to the condition of the local banks as reflected by their frequently published Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such Electric Bitters work won ders. They regulate stomach, livto the front stronger than ever, and your dollar does its duty only when deposited with us er and kidneys, purify the blood give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, iovely complexion. Many charm-ing women owe their health and $ beauty to them. 50c. at English Drug Company's.

> The serious business of the world is done by people who are lighthearted. Summer coughs and colds are obsti-

Young Bridegroom.

THERE was to impulsive haste bridegroom loves dogs and "the through the streets of that village

The Justice of the Peace was called on the telephone yesterday was a member of Faulks Baptist by a young man who seemed to come her husband if he would sign a certain agreement in the presence of the justice of the peace. "George," she continued, "says now that he will be just the kind of a husband that I want him to be. But I insist upon getting him down in black and white as subscribing to a few simple rules of married ilfe. He means well, but he is of Mattie Dawkins, both of White

Thereupon the girl took from her shopping bag the following doc-"I solemnly promise be fore the Justice of the Peace and the woman whom I have asked to be my wife to give to her my pay envelope, unopened, every Saturday night; to be at home every night by 9 o'clock, unless my wife is out with me; never to go to balls or parties without her, and then never to dance with anybody else without her permission; to be kind always to her mother and her little brother; never to join any lodge that does not admit women, and not then unless she wishes to join too; never to smoke more than three eigars on a week day and not more than five on Sunday; never to smoke eigarettes at all and never to use profane language; to beat the carpets every spring without grumbling; to do up my own laun dry package each week; never to drink intoxicating liquors or beers except at the beginning of the aunual spring house cleaning, and then only three glasses, in the presdog and never to bring a dog home and say that I am to keep it just has gone out of town. "I also agree to do half of the ing site and to consider plan of prospective bride, as she finished ulation that has town and city

"Can't you soften that dog rule below the surface and means the new as release, as he took the new as release. man about to pick up the wrong shell in the shell game.

"No, George," she replied. "I have thought this out carefully you, and I am sure that there is ought not to be there.

calculating.

won't you add just this much! You obtained for these honor cadets. Mrs. Hurley as Miss Katherine Jordan was one of Charlotte's most beautiful and attractive young women. She was respected and loved by a wide circle of friends, and her won't you add just inismuch. There will be children study exercises at Union church on the second Sunday in June. The exercises by the children will be inhave three drinks every time we have a wide circle of friends, and her

Please, dear." move. Please, dear."

document had been amended to provide for a little lickering up on moving days, George seized the pen and signed his name. The girl and Mr. Williams signed theirs as witnesses.

Dr. S. H. Ezzelle has moved his family from Van Wyck to this place, and they have located on North Providence street. The people of the town and community gladly welcome Dr. Ezzelle Half an hour later the pair returned to the Squire's office with two friends to act as witnesses and then they were married.

DON'T FALL INTO of of it hes in a trial of Flour Milled by Us

The better baking and more of ou can do with a sack or barrel of Invincible Flour

News in Marshville Vicinity

Mr. J. G. Trull, cotton weigher about this marriage, but if the Charlotte Thursday evening of more than he thinks he does He had been in falling health for now he may repent at leisure, says some time and was taken violent-the New York World of a marriage by ill a few days before he was performed by Justice of the Peace carried to the hospital on Sanday, William B. Williams of Montelair, the 22rd, to have an operation He wouldn't tell who the man and performed. Mr. Trull was unawomen are, but they can be easily ble to stand the operation and identified if anybody in Montelair died before this work was done. next week or two and be on the Marshville Friday morning and lookout for a man running madly the interment made at Faulks to get home before 9 o'clock in the evening.

conserve, in this township, Freevening. vis, R. H. James and J. A. Bivfice promptly at 2 o'clock to attend to an important matter. It and twelve children, ten sons and two daughters. The sons are two daughters. The sons are church and was about 62 years of At the appointed hour the young woman of the voice, accompanied by a young man who seemed to ta, J. B. of Wadesboro and Verhave no voice at all, appeared at other four are small children. the office and announced that she Mrs. W. P. Pierce and Miss Dora non Trulf of this township. was about to let her companion be Trull of this township are the urviving daughters.

Miss Anna Broadaway received severe scald on the left hand Friday. She poured boiling wa-ter into a dish, holding it with er left hand, and the dish broke. the water covering her hand with the above result a flighty disposition and will take Store township. Anson county, his marriage vows too lightly after were married last Thursday at Mr. James Dawkins. Esq. F. H. Morgan performed the ceremony. The special tax election held at eachland on Tuesday, May 24th, as been declared illegal by the board of county come it appears to the board that the registration books were not kept open as long as the advertisement of the election stated. The adocates of the proposed tax will ask for another election.

An epidemic of some kind is reported as being among hogs in Lanes Creek township. It is not nown what the disease is. We earn that, in some instances at least, it attacks hogs and kills them almost suddenly. Mr. John Richardson lost ten within a few lays and several of his neighbors' hogs have died in the same

At a meeting of the board of graded school trustees of Marshille, held at the academy Saturlay afternoon, the following officers were elected: J. C. Morgan, ence of my wife; never to keep a H. B. Marsh, treasurer. The meeting adjourned to meet and say that I am to keep it just for a little while for a friend who has cone out of town.

nace fire every morning and night in such a way that my wife will never have to do anything but adbrought up to a high standard, "That is about all," said the We can then boast of a rural popheard, the builet crashing through the door and burying itself in the it to George, after which she dip before the wall back of his wife's bed. A third shot was fired before the and handed it to him. conveniences with the absence of

Mr. McNeely Gets Good Position.

Mr. S. H. McNeely of this township is one among three young ever since you asked me to marry the A. & M. College who have you, and I am sure that there is been given positions as second ought not to be there." Well, will you add something the Philippine Scouts. Their pay will be $2,400 a year, and their "What is it, George! It seems ber 1st. It was through the in-fluence of J. S. E. Young, U. S. "No, I love you dearly, but A., that these fine positions were

The young woman hesitated, pondered, yielded. Then when the

and his excellent wife to Wax-Rev. Arthur B. Kennedy, assistant pastor of the first Baptist church of Columbia, S. C., will be prosecuted by the local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals before the recorder or before a magistrate, for hurling a big shepherd dog belonging to a prominent lady member of the congregation through a church window at a revival meeting Sun-day. The dog's back was injured by falling on a brick drain below. Seeing the dog in the isle, though t was lying quietly, the preacher lost his temper and threw it through the window. The inci-dent is being talked of everywhere, and is likely to break up the meeting and cause the minis ter to lose his position.

Trouble Makers Ousted.

When a sufferer from stomach trou ble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills Summer coughs and colds are obstinate and difficult to cure. The most prompt method is to take something pleasant which will gently move the buwels; a good laxative cough syrop. Bees Laxative Cough Syrop will sure-

R. A. MORROW, President

J. R. ENGLISH, Vice-President

W. H. PHIFER, Teller.

ROSCOE PHIFER, Cashier W. C. CROWELL, Assistant Cashier Bees Laxative cough Syrap will sure by and promptly cure your cold. Sold by all druggists.

| Cord. |