Miss May Harrell of Atlanta, who had been at Mr. Eugene Ashcraft's for the past two weeks nursing a little son of Mr. W. O. Harrell of Marshville, left last week with her patient for White Sulphur Springs, in Alexander county. The little boy is much improved. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harrell.

Mr. Bob May suffered the only casualties of the excursion to the mountains last Wednesday. While standing in the side door of the refreshment car Bob got his ear in the way of the door as the train stopped suddenly and that ear was pierced, making a hole about half an inch slant bang through it.

Two Monroe citizens sustained severe accidents last Wednesday. While engaged at his saw mill at Marshville, Mr. John I. Long had his leg caught in the carriage and broken below the knee. Mr. G. E. Porterfield, an electrician employed by the city of Monroe, came in contact with a live wire and was painfully shocked.

John Henry, the seven-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Presson of Monroe, died last Monday afternoon. The baby had been sick all its life and death was sweet relief to it. Funeral services were conducted last Tuesday morning by Rev. R. F. Kirkpatrick at Mr. Presson's home and the interment was in the cemetery at Smyrna church, in Buford township.

One of the most unique ways of giving the young people a good time was brought forward last Tuesday when Mr. and Mrs. N. C. English threw open the doors of their home to a crowd of friends who were dressed in the most ridiculous costumes to be had. It was indeed a tacky party. Mr. Kirby Hough was awarded the prize for being the tackiest among the tacky.

Mrs. R. W. Williams, chairman of the ladies' institute committee for this township, requests us to announce that the ladies' institute will be held in the Jackson Club rooms over the Bank of Union, and farmers' wives and their daughters are requested to attend. The ladies of the town are also requested to meet with them. A cash prize of $1.00 will be given for the best loaf of bread baked by a farmer's wife or daughter and also a prize of $1.00 for the best ten biscuits, and the ladies are requested to compete for these prizes.

The Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer says that a sensation was created in Richmond county last week by the discovery that Mr. W. L. Steele, a candidate for county treasurer, had paid his opponent seven hundred dollars to retire from the race and thus insure Steele's nomination. When the matter became known the executive committee forced both the men to retire and a new man will be nominated.

Mr. J. M. Griffin, who moved from here to Charlotte twelve years ago, is spending some time in town engaged in cement work.
