New Bank For Marsville.

Our Home. Doubtless a new step in the progress of Marsville was taken Friday with the organization of a new bank at this place. The new institution will be called The Carolina Bank. The stockholders elected the following board of directors: W. S. Blakeney, H. M. Green, Ed. M. Marsh, F. L. Harrell, J. M. Burns, G. W. Bailey, L. E. Huggins, R. C. Newsom, J. E. Thomas, J. E. Bailey, and J. C. Brooks. The directors then elected the following officers: W. S. Blakeney, president; E. M. Marsh, vice-president, and P. P. W. Plyler, cashier. Mr. Blakeney is president of the Bank of Union of Monroe and of several other banks. He is one of the best and most successful bankers in the State and The Carolina Bank is fortunate in securing him as its president. Mr. Plyler needs no recommendation, as his term of register of deeds of Union county and other responsible places which he has so well filled speak of his ability and honesty in terms that cannot be misunderstood. The Bank of Marsville has, through its kind and courteous treatment, done a fine banking business and its patronage has grown at a rapid rate. People are learning the wisdom of keeping their money in the bank, and the citizens of this town and community believe that two banks at this place will do a thriving business, and there is no reason in the world why they shouldn't. A site will be selected and a new building erected at an early date and the new institution will open for business some time this fall.

The Marriage of Children and the Combs Case.

Salisbury Post. There is no more striking example of the folly and shame of children marriages nor of the crime and absolute lack of a moral sense of duty of ministers and others who are vested with authority to perform the marriage ceremony, than the Combs murder case of Iredell county. The husband and murderer is 18 years old, his murdered wife was 16, and they had been married six months. The couple ran away and were married in South Carolina. Some minister or esquire officiated, giving them the right to live together legally. The union was not peaceful — there were quarrels. The young wife wanted to visit her parents, the husband objected. There was a conflict, the woman was murdered, choked to death lying across the knees of the man-brute. Was there ever a darker picture—and all because a minister or justice of the peace pronounced the words that made them man and wife.

The State, the law, the custom, all conspired to bring about the murder. A clearer sense of responsibility on the part of the ministry and others having the right to marry couples is needed, and until these have come to understand their full moral duty in the matter children will continue to marry and tragedies will multiply and increase.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guess work in this evidence of Chas. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it for forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c., $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by English Drug Co.

Farmers Advised to Hold for 13 Cents.

Washington, Aug. 23.—After discussing what was referred to as the "threatening condition of the cotton market," a conference of Southern Senators and Representatives through a committee consisting of Senators Williams, of Mississippi, and Owen, of Oklahoma, and Representative Burleson, of Texas, decided to give formal advice to farmers' organization to "hold cotton for 13 cents." A committee will urge the State Bankers' associations to cooperate against the "bearish" movement of the speculators. The committee which will advise farmers to hold for 13 cents, issued a statement which says in part:

"It seemed to be the opinion of all that there was a preconcerted effort being made, principally through the instrumentality of the speculative element of the New York Cotton Exchange, to break down the price of cotton. It was the opinion of all that the present statistical condition of cotton did not justify the lowness of present quotations and that the estimate of 15,000,000 bales was unjustified by any facts by which prediction could be safely based and that moreover, if a 15,000,000 bale crop were in sight the world's supplies still would probably fall short of the world's demand for cotton to the extent of more than 1,000,000 bales because of the exhaustion of the present visible supply of carried over spot cotton. In other words, that with a 15,000,000 American crop, the world crop for 1911 would sum up only 25,000,000 with 14,000,000 spindles creating an active demand for 26,000,000 bales. This opinion was based upon the latest advices from Egypt, India, China and other cotton producing countries.

"Information was received at the informal conference that assurance would be given to President Barrett or to Southern bank outside of the South could be had through the instrumentality of Southern financial institutions to be lent at the rate of 6 per cent per annum of their cotton warehouse statistics."

Rev. J. H. Turner.

Pageland Scout. Rev. John H. Turner died at his home here yesterday afternoon about four o'clock after a lingering illness of several months. Mr. Turner was probably the oldest citizen of this community. He was born July 16, 1833, and was therefore 73 years, one month and five days old. He married Miss Mary Shaw in 1857 and she died Oct. 31, 1874. To this union eight children were born: Bill, Annie, Lillie, Margaret, G. N., Rodman, E. B., and J. A. The second time Mr. Turner married Miss Jane Mangum, daughter of the late William Mangum, and to this union twelve children were born: Rose, Ellen, Henrietta, Blanche, Prudence, Phodie, T. W., Robert, Sam, Geo., Max and Jefferson.

Mr. Turner was a gallant soldier in the civil war. He has been preaching ever since the close of the war, and has been master of the Masonic lodge nearly forty years. He had many political offices, having been county commissioner, and represented this county in both houses of the legislature. Mr. Turner was probably the best known man in Chesterfield county, having lived here his entire life, and was always foremost in religious and political life.

He is survived by his wife, 8 sons and 5 daughters.
