Judge Cook, who is holding court here, will lecture at The Wingate School next Thursday night. The public is invited.

Get a Majestic Souvenir Set of Ware at the Heath Hardware store during demonstration week, November 20th to 25th.

Mr. J. J. Terry of Pageland was in town yesterday on the way to a hospital in Charlotte to be treated for rheumatism.

Mr. J. M. Hargett and Mrs. Bessie Broom of Buford township were married October 25th by Esq. E. R. Starnes.

Most people had no apples at all this year, but Mr. R. M. Conder of Vance has a late apple tree that has had two crops. The second crop grew to be as large as marbles.

County surveyor R. W. Elliott has bought the farm of Rev. A. C. Baker five miles south of Monroe. He may perhaps move to it some time though he has not decided to do so yet. Rev. Mr. Baker will return to Columbia.

Squire W. A. Austin who has been in John Hopkins hospital in Baltimore for several weeks, and whose life was despaired of for a long time, is getting better and the prospects for his recovery are bright.

Mr. C. W. Porter of Vance township this year made ten bales of long staple cotton on 13 acres of land. He sold the cotton in Charlotte week before last at 17 1/4 cents per pound and is now selling the seed at $2 per bushel.

Officer Ernest Barrett made a little run last Thursday in looking up a witness wanted in this court. He left here in the morning and got back at six at night, having driven about sixty miles. He went to Pageland, Jefferson, White Plains, and other points all about. He brought back the witness, however.

The Carolina Bank at Marshville opened on November 3. Mr. P. P. W. Plyler, who has been in the Bank of Union for some time, is cashier. Until its handsome new building is ready for occupancy the new bank will be housed in the Marshville Furniture Co.'s store.

Professor Carroll of The Wingate School was here Saturday attending the teachers meeting and reported that his school is in fine shape and that they will move in the fine new brick building in a few days. There is already an enrollment of 245 in the school, 80 of whom are boarding students.

Mr. Thomas Perry, Jr., who lives near Wingate, lost his dwelling by fire Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock. The fire originated from a stove flue. The contents of the house were nearly all saved. The dwelling was a four-room cottage and a nice comfortable building. Mr. Perry carried $300 insurance, which does not cover half the loss.

Notice of Sale of Valuable Lands.

Pursuant to the powers conferred on me by a Deed of Trust to me executed on the 20th day of February, 1908, by J. A. Gullege and I. D. Gullege, his wife, duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Union County, N. C. in Record of Mortgages A I, at page 289, I will, on Thursday, the 30th day of Nov., 1911, at the court house in Monroe, N. C., sell for cash, to the highest bidder, at public auction, the following described lands, conveyed in said Trust Deed, which lies in said county on the waters of Brown Creek, and is known and described as follows:

FIRST TRACT: Adjoining the lands of W. D. Morgan, Felix Moore, Eli Leonard and J. A. Gullege's 105 acre tract of the Hampton Huntley-Morris land, containing 250 acres more or less, and known as the G. W. Wimberly lands on which said J. A. and I. D. Gullege resided at time of executing said Trust, conveyed to Natey Gullege by J. J. Hasty, sheriff, by deed dated 11th Feb. 1872, and registered in the Registry of said county on deed book No. 9, pages 142 and 3, reference to which is hereby made for a more particular description, except a part thereof heretofore conveyed to Frank Chambers and a part to Jerry Gullege, leaving 220 acres, conveyed to Natey Gullege by deed dated 5th day of April, 1889, and registered in Registry of said county on deed book No. 23, page 55, etc., reference to which is hereby made for a more particular description thereof.

SECOND TRACT: Adjoining the above described tract, the lands of Eli Leonard, F. P. Huntley and the next tract below described, containing 105 acres, more or less, and known as a part of the Hampton Huntley-Morris land, conveyed to J. A. and W. E. Gullege by C. N. Simpson, mortgagee, by deed dated 5th day of April, 1889, and registered in Registry of said county on deed book No. 23, page 55, etc., reference to which is hereby made for a more particular description thereof.

THIRD TRACT: Adjoins the 105 acre tract above described, the lands of Eli Leonard, Mrs. Emma Baraett and Luther Huntley, containing 100 acres, more or less, and known as part of said Hampton Huntley-Morris land, conveyed to J. A. and W. E. Gullege by C. N. Simpson, mortgagee, by deed dated 28th day of March, 1891, and registered in Registry of said county in deed book No. 23, page 52, etc., reference to which is hereby made for a more particular description thereof.

FOURTH TRACT: Adjoining the lands of Paul Huntley, Ralph Chambers, Jas. Martin, Mrs. Lou Stanley or John B. Rorie estate lands, and H. C. Smith, containing 508 acres, and known as a part of the Dr. Lowery lands, on both sides of Brown Creek, conveyed by Mary T. Davis and her husband, to J. A. and W. E. Gullege by deed dated 4th day of April, 1899, and registered in the Registry of said county in deed book No. 28, page 593, etc., reference to which is hereby made for a more particular description thereof. The undivided half of W. E. Gullege in above described lands was conveyed by him and his wife to T. A. Gullege by deed dated 5th day of Dec., 1905, and registered in registry of said county in deed book No. 38, page 604, etc., and by T. A. Gullege and wife conveyed to said J. A. Gullege by deed dated 5th day of Oct., 1907, and registered in Registry of said county on deed book No. 41, page 455. Sold to satisfy debts secured by said Trust Deed.
This 30th day of October, 1911.
C. N. SIMPSON, JR., Trustee.
