News in Indian Trail Vicinity.

(Correspondence of The Journal)

The late cotton is very good. The corn crop is also very good. Mr. J. D. Helms will make about 500 bushels of corn this year. He also raises fine stock in connection with his farm and is an all round progressive farmer.

There was an election held at the new Union Grove school house, district 11, for special school tax, on the 4th inst., and the proposition carried almost to a man.

Rev. Mr. Gillespie of Charlotte will begin a series of meetings at Emanuel church next Saturday. There will be preaching Saturday evening, Sunday at 11 a. m. and night, also the following week.

Mr. Henry Robinson and sister, Miss Flossy, of Hugo, Oklahoma, are visiting relatives in and around Indian Trail.

The railroad has built a new cotton platform at this place.

Mr. F. B. Rowell, who has been in the standing army for the past three years, has come home on a visit, and says he likes the army fine and expects to return in a short time.

Mr. G. B. Hagler has made another big land deal. He has purchased a 200-acre tract of well timbered land on the Monroe and Concord road. He expects to begin working up the timber and developing up the land at once.

Regardless of the short crops and hard times, the congregation of the M. E. church here has paid their pastor, Rev. Mr. Sherrill, in full and about $30 or $40 to the good. Brother Sherrill has done a fine year's work here and the church hopes that conference will send him back.

Dave Parker, colored, larceny of chickens from James Leonard, incl pros. The evidence failed to show that Dave stole the chickens.

He was also charged with stealing watermelons from J. E. Moore and failed to come off so lightly. But the Recorder took judicial notice of the negro's weakness for watermelons and so said that 60 days was enough. The warrant was changed to forcible trespass.

Mae Foard, white, violation of ordinance 76, costs.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? Sold by all dealers.

Last Notice.

The wheels of law and judgment will begin to grind out what you owe us tomorrow, November 1st. It may hit you first, we don't know, but it will surely strike you sooner or later if you don't beat time and settle your account, note, etc., before the law reaches you. This is no child's play. It is business to the core. No snap judgment, it's a fair notice. If you owe us any money you have had due and ample notice to settle up. We have notified you by letter in person or through the newspapers, what better time or notice can we give you. Promises don't go anywhere with us as they don't pay debts. We are sorry cotton is so low, but we can't help. Don't come to see about your account expecting to beat time; it will take the hard cash to satisfy us. You know we have gone out in the mercantile business and it is unjust and unreasonable for you to expect us to carry you any further, for we cannot do it. Our old business must be wound up, so come before the officer rides up to your door and settle. We believe you intend to pay us some time. Now is the accepted and expected time. Now we have had our say, what will be your answer. We can't tell, but we think our lawyer will find out. Yours truly,
McRae Mercantile Co.

CONTINUE TO ACT WISELY.

A great effort was made on the farms this year, but the harvest is disappointing. The Bank of Union tried to do as much good as possible and backed up every honest effort, but all our efforts could not make perfect crops and we cannot regulate prices locally to suit our conditions. Nevertheless, farmers, as well as others, should deposit every dollar possible in bank, not only as a means of economy, but in order to have a perfect record of everything paid out. In these days merchants, creditors and people generally prefer checks to cash and it is much more easy on paper to pay the exact amount desired. If not already doing business at the Bank of Union, it will be a move in the right direction to open an account there. You cannot find better accommodations, more facilities or greater safety. Experience has demonstrated these facts beyond controversy. Moreover, your business is appreciated at this bank. You in your personal and business affairs receive the utmost sympathy, attention and protection. Accept the invitation thus offered and you will never regret the business connection thus formed.—Adv.

There will be a heap more religion when ministers stop setting their dog-ma on their brothers' cat-echism.

English vs. American!

Although we have plenty of the newest English roll sack suits, we can't believe that the majority of American men will prefer to follow the extreme English fashion in Fall and Winter clothes. So for the benefit of the good old loyal American business man who desires to be faultlessly but not foppishly attired, we have made a certain number of
