

Must Fit the Job.
Every young man going out into the world to seek employment must remember that one of the most important things he must learn is to make himself fit the job.
There is nothing in the world requiring energy and patience that really agrees with one at first. School days are pleasant only when they are a memory. If the mountain will not come to you, you must go to the mountain. The business mountain, the job, the atmosphere of the office will never rush to meet the beginner. It is up to the beginner to meet the mountain. And he will have to do it quick or some one else will step in and take his place.
If you are willing to learn, willing to adapt yourself, then size up your job, the atmosphere of the place, and try to make yourself at home as soon as possible. Try to fit in.

to become a part of your surroundings. If you cannot do that, if you find that you will not fit in where you are, then be fair to your employer and still more to yourself, and quit the job. After a while you will find something that will suit you better and will find your place and your work.—Ex.

Open the School-houses, Progressive Farmer.
We are astonished to hear from a farmer in one of the most progressive communities in the South that the principal of the school in his neighborhood has refused to let the Farmers' Union meet in the school auditorium. It is a pitifully narrow conception of the purpose of a schoolhouse and of a church building to think that they are made only for the preacher and the school teacher. They are made for all the people—not for just two individuals among the people. Both schools and churches must become real community centers if education and religion are to triumph effectually.
The church building should be open to every meeting for civic, social, or moral betterment; and the school house belonging to all the people, should be open to any body of citizens for any purpose whenever it is not in other use. In this enlightened and democratic age, it ought not to be necessary to have such a law, but if it is necessary, then every State should have a law compelling the committee to open the school house for any body of citizens requesting it for lawful assembly.

SUFFRAGISTS SEND POLICE MAGISTRATE BOMB.
The Magistrate Was Suspicious of the Package and Drenched it in Water Before Opening.
London, May 14.—A business-like bomb, addressed to Henry Curtis Bennett, the police magistrate, was delivered by a letter carrier at Bow Street police court today. The package was marked "immediate," but disliking the looks of it, the cautious police officer, took it outside and plunged it into a pail of water.
When the package was opened it was found to contain a tin tobacco box, bound with wire and filled with gunpowder, shot and a cartridge. Attached to the cap end of the cartridge was a nail, which, if it had been struck, would have fired the bomb and exploded its contents.
Suffragists bombs were found today in one of the passenger cars of a train running between Kingston-on-Thames and London, on South-western Railway. This makes the third outrage of the kind in the same line within two months. On the train's arrival at Waterloo terminus, the conductor noticed in one of the compartments three parcels which aroused suspicion. On investigation two of them were found to contain tin canisters filled with combustibles and wrapped in suffragette placards. No explosion occurred and the bombs were handed over to the police.

HONESTY, disinterestedness and good nature are indispensable to procure the esteem and confidence of those with whom we live, and on whose esteem our happiness depends. Never suffer a thought to be harbored in your mind which you would not avow openly. When tempted to do anything in secret, ask yourself if you would do it in public; if you would not, be sure it is wrong. In little disputes with your companions, give way rather than insist on trifles, for the love and the approbation of others will be worth more to you than the trifle in dispute. Above all things, and at all times, practise yourself in good humor; this of all human qualities is the most amiable and endearing to society. Whenever you feel a warmth of temper arising, check it at once and suppress it, recollecting it would make you unhappy within yourself and disliked by others. Nothing gives one person so great an advantage over another under all circumstances. Think of and practise these things and you will be rewarded by the love and confidence of the world.—Jefferson.

THINK OF IT
30,000 Persons Publicly Recommend Our Remedy. Some are Monroe People.
Over one hundred thousand have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, for backache, kidney, urinary ills. Thirty thousand signed testimonials.
Are appearing now in public print. Some of them are Monroe people. Some are published in Monroe. No other remedy shows such proof. Follow this Monroe woman's example.
Mrs. Pearl McCall, 595 Hayne St., Monroe, N. C., says: "I had nervous and dizzy spells and my back pained me. I could not sleep well and mornings was all tired out. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills of the English Drug Co., and they made me entirely better."
The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McCall had—the remedy backed by home testimony. Live all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., 507 N. Buffalo, N. Y.

ARSON SQUAD AT WORK.
A militant suffragette "arson squad" destroyed a large untenanted residence, the Highlands, at Sand-dale-on-Sea, near Folkston, on the English channel, last night. Post-cards addressed to the "dishonorable Reginald McKenna, Home Secretary" were left about the premises. There was a postcard bearing the words "we hope this is not a poor widow's house."
School boys are helping militant suffragettes in their reign of terror. Several "bombs" which, on examination, turned out to be dummies, had been traced to the scholars.
Striking evidence of the extensive operations of the militant suffragettes and the bad effect on the woman's cause of the outrages committed by them was given today on the resumption of the hearing at Bow Street police court of the charges against the suffragette leaders. They are charged with the infringement of malicious damage to property acts.
Those who occupied the prisoners enclosures were Mrs. Harriet Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachael Barret, Miss Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenny, Mrs. Laura Lenn and the analytical chemist, Clayton. The case against "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond was postponed until July owing to her illness.
Letter carriers and postoffice officials testified as to the great damage done to the mails by chemicals and other fluids poured into the letter boxes.
The former business manager of The Suffragette testified his services were dispensed with by the militant society because Mrs. Emmaline Parkhurst thought it better that only women should conduct the paper.

Baptist Orphanage Gets Handsome Gift of Land.
Hendersonville, N. C., May 14.—W. P. Whitmire, a resident of this city, but formerly of Brevard, brings the news that the Misses Victoria and Mary Galloway of Brevard have donated a tract of land valued at $22,000 to the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. The property is located in and near Brevard, including about 100 acres of land. Mr. Whitmire, who is related to the Misses Galloway and who was interested in making the conveyance, is authority for the statement that it is the purpose of those interested in the orphanage work to establish an auxiliary home on this property, where the donors will be located permanently.
Many stories are in circulation connecting Mark Twain with his old home, Hartford, not all of which can be vouched for. This is one of the good ones. Dr. Doane, now bishop of Albany, preached an unusually good sermon here one morning and Mark heard it. Stepping up to the clergyman after the service, Mark said:
"I have enjoyed your sermon this morning. I welcomed it as I would an old friend. It has a book at home that contains every word in it."
"Why that can't be, Mr. Clemmens," replied the doctor.
"All the same, it is so," said Mr. Clemmens.
"Well, I certainly would like to see that book," rejoined the doctor with dignity.
"All right," replied Mark; "you shall have it." And the next morning Dr. Doane received with Mark Twain's compliments a dictionary.
A Philadelphia lawyer and connoisseur was describing some of his experiences in search of curios.
"I once entered a Wardour street shop in London," he said smilingly, "and the salesman pointed out to me a dilapidated chair.
"That there chair, sir," he said impressively, "belonged to Louis Crosseye, King of France."
"Louis Crosseye?" said I. "Why there is no such person."
"Oh! yes, there is, sir!" said the salesman, and he showed me a ticket marked 'Louis XI.'"

THE SUFFRAGETTE LOSS.
As to the loss of circulation by The Suffragette he told Mrs. Parkhurst the decrease was due to the letterbox raids but she said that could not be possible, because when the women were more militant they were most successful.
Archibald Bodkin, treasury counsel tried to elicit from the accountant who audited the books of the Woman's Social and Political Union, what became of the so-called secret service fund of $1,250,000, of which the newspaper, The Suffragette, announced $900,000 had been raised. The accountant was unable to tell.
A receiving order was issued by the bankruptcy court today against Frederick Pethick Lawrence, a prominent and wealthy suffragist, who recently severed his connection with the militant suffragette's society.
The order was made on the application of the director of public prosecution, because Mr. Lawrence refused to pay the costs of the prosecution of himself, his wife and Mrs. Emmeline Parkhurst on a charge of conspiracy last May. The outstanding amount is $3,040. The court appointed an official receiver to take charge of Mr. Lawrence's affairs.

Keep Your Money, Progressive Farmer.
A new fake consumption cure is born every week, and as some one said, a sucker is born every minute. Supply and demand, in these two instances seem to run a riot. The supply of unfortunate consumptives and the demand for these false "cures" are rivals. The race is nip and tuck.
But how are we going to head off such a race? Pure food and drug laws get an occasional faker but it is only an occasional one, scarcely a drop in the bucket. With all "consumption cures" founded on fraud and flourishing on fear, the ever-hopeful but susceptible consumptive is robbed of his money and robbed of his chance of life. But what care the "consumption cure" companies? It is good business.
The only prevention for such wholesale robbery is education. Yes, just that. Education will banish the old superstition that for every ailment there is a "specific." Education will teach those having consumption that their only assurance for a cure lies in their strict obedience to the laws of hygiene, with unlimited fresh air, rest, and food. When this is done, why there will be no more demand for patent medicine consumption cures, and the dastardly business will stop. But we must educate, and the only way to do this effectively is through health departments, towns, county and state.
It is well that we do not always know that we are skating on thin ice.
