JILTED GIRL GETS REVENGE.

A Wheeling Miss Dons Man's Attire and Wins Her Rival's Love.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 10.—Miss Dessie McIntyre, 18 years old, was jilted two weeks ago by Harry Pendleton, a well known young business man, with whom she had kept company for two years. He told her he had become engaged to another girl. This other girl proved to be Miss Henrietta Aiken, of Bridgeport, O., just across the river from this city.

Although failing to understand her request, Miss McIntyre's parents gave her permission to have her hair cut off. Then she donned a suit of her brother's clothing, visited Bridgeport, and through a friend met Miss Aiken.

It was a case of love at first sight on the part of the Bridgeport girl. Miss McIntyre, who was masquerading as "Lawrence Dressing," was a devoted suitor, and every night found "Lawrence" at the Aiken home.

Last Sunday night while "Lawrence" and Miss Aiken were sitting on the front porch of the latter's home, Pendleton appeared and demanded to know why another had usurped his place. Spurred on by her new-found suitor, Miss Aiken angrily dismissed Pendleton and ordered him never to see her again. She then confessed her love for "Lawrence."

Last night Miss McIntyre, dressed in a gown of the latest mode, met Miss Aiken on Market street, this city. The recognition was mutual. Before Miss Aiken could speak, Miss McIntyre gloatingly told her how she had revenged herself. In a moment the pair were at each other and were only separated by the police. Both were discharged in court with a reprimand.

How the President Gets Paid.

Pathfinder.
The question is often asked, how the President gets his salary—whether he goes to the Treasury at the end of each working day and draws his 240-odd dollars, or whether he waits till the end of the week, month or term for his money. The answer is that he does get his pay directly from the Treasury, and he is the only Government official who is thus paid. And his pay-days are once a month—on the last working day of the month. President Wilson had to wait till March 31 for his first taste of Uncle Sam's money. Then he got an "accountable warrant" for $5,625.

This was figured to cover the portion of the whole month beginning with March 4, counting the month as thirty days. Actually he did not take office till after noon of the 4th, and President Taft held down the job till that hour. But this was by a fiction. The Administration is supposed to end with midnight of March 3, but it would be inconvenient to transfer the Government at such a time and so the change is made 12 hours later. No fractions of days are recognized, however, in paying Presidents, and the half-day President Taft did not get paid for on March 4 was made up by the extra half day he was paid for at the beginning of his term.

President Wilson's monthly warrants hereafter will be $6,250, or just one-twelfth of his full yearly salary of $75,000. Senator, Representative and other Government officials are paid by a slightly different system. The Vice-President is paid by the Secretary of the Senate who also pays the Senators and Senate employees. His salary is $12,000, but he does not get just an even thousand a month. The annual salary is first divided into four parts of $3,000 each, for each quarter year. The quarterly amount is then again divided up into monthly parts, according to the actual number of calendar days in that quarter.

By a singular custom which was started in Washington's time and which for some reasons has never been changed, the President is paid by what is called an "accountable warrant." That is he is allowed to draw his money each month, but he is not credited with his services until the end of his term. It is now proposed to change this and pay him by a "settlement warrant," at the end of each month.

A Jersey Spelling Lesson.

Saturday Evening Post.
A country politician in New Jersey was elected school commissioner. On day he visited a school and told the teacher he desired to examine the boys and girls.

A spelling class was performing; so the commissioner said he would inquire into the proficiency of that organization. The teacher gave him a spelling book and the student lined up in front of the mighty educator.

He thumbed the book. Then pointing at the first boy, he said: "Spell eggpit."

"E-g-g-p-i-t," slowly spelled the boy.

"Wrong," said the commissioner, and pointing to the next boy: "You spell eggpit."

"E-g-g-p-i-t," spelled the boy.

"Wrong. You spell it."

The next boy spelled it the same way, and the next and the next.

"Bad spellers, these," commented the commissioner to the distressed teacher.

"Why, Mr. Commissioner," she protested, "they have all spelled eggpit correctly."

"They have not."

"Will you let me see the word in the book?" the teacher asked tearfully. "I am sure they have."

"Here it is," said the commissioner, and he pointed to the word "Egypt."
