

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Raace Hunter of Chesterfield county died Sunday morning. Mrs. Hunter was 42 years old.

Mrs. J. J. Parker, who is spending two weeks with her mother in Wilmington, will return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. Barnes R. Plyler and Miss Ada Gordon were married at the residence of Mr. H. C. Spruce at the Leemore Mill Saturday night by Esq. M. L. Flow.

Mr. L. L. Harris, who is well known here, has moved from his farm in Chesterfield county to Monroe. He is at present with his son-in-law, Mr. Grady Nash.

Miss Estelle Horn has been appointed deputy clerk of the court to succeed Mrs. Julian Griffin who resigned sometime ago to take effect January first.

Rev. E. C. Snyder will begin a series of meetings at Mt. Harmony next Sunday. He will be assisted by Rev. J. L. Vipperman of Spencer. The public cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McManus of Sandy Ridge township have gone to Savannah, Ga., near which place they will engage in hunting. They have been on several successful hunting expeditions there before.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mr. Henry N. Fairley and Miss Marguerite Brittain of Salisbury, which is to take place in St. John's Lutheran church of Salisbury on January 14th.

Mr. Lee R. Trull has gone to Lancaster to carry out a contract to move several houses for Col. Leroy Springs. He expects to be gone some time and then may go to Waxhaw to do some work.

Lucy, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. J. Lex Helms, was taken to Charlotte last Wednesday where an operation was performed for an internal abscess. She is now recovering nicely.

Mr. D. L. White of Jefferson spent last Friday with his brother, Mr. Hill White. He was on his way to re-enter school at Clemson College, which is the A. & M. College of South Carolina, and has nearly eight hundred students.

Mr. W. C. Saunders gave a twelve course stag dinner to a number of friends on New Years. Those present were: Ney McNeely, Clayton Laney, Hall Wilson, Boyd Copple, John Vann, J. C. Sikes, I. H. Blair, Frank Marshall and Dowd Secrest.

The rural mail carriers' association of Union, Anson and Richmond counties, met at Rockingham January 1st. The boys had a good time, and they deserved it, after the hard work of Christmas. Messrs T. L. Love, A. J. Green, J. C. Mills, and A. C. Penegar attended from Monroe.

Mr. William Guldge, of Chesterfield county, was dressing a hog some time ago and cut his hand, from which blood poisoning resulted. It became necessary to cut considerable flesh from the arm in order to save it, which has been done. Mrs. Guldge contracted blood poisoning from her husband, but both are now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Griffin of east Monroe township on yesterday celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage by having all their children present for dinner at the old home, where the fine old couple continue to live and enjoy the blessings of peaceful age. There are nine living children, the youngest of whom is thirty, and they were all present.

The friends of Mr. S. S. Richardson will be sorry to learn that he will be compelled to have his right foot amputated. For some time there has been a disease of the bone about the ankle, and a few days ago he went to Charlotte and had an X-Ray examination made. The diagnosis showed cancer of the bone and he was told that there was no hope of preventing the foot being amputated. He is otherwise well and expects to have the operation done in a few days.

Squire M. L. Flow, sitting as United States Commissioner, on Saturday bound over to the Federal Court for the April term at Charlotte, Chauncey Hildreth of Anson county, on a charge of robbing the mails. The young man, who is only nineteen years old, was a star route carrier from Lenoirville to Mansum, and was detected by postoffice inspectors who sat a trap for him. He was placed under bond of $1000, and failing to give same, was committed to jail in Monroe. Attorney T. L. Caudle of Wadesboro appeared for him.

While driving home last Friday night with a load of lumber Mr. Dock Montgomery of Buford township, was thrown from his wagon when his team became frightened, and the rear wheel passed over his head. A deep gash was cut in the back of his head and one ear was ground off except a few ligaments of skin. Dr. Stevens put nine stitches in the wounds. He placed the ear back in position and bandaged it, and hopes that it will grow back in proper shape. The skull was not fractured, but Mr. Montgomery had a close call.

Prof. Charles E. Boger, a brother of our townsman, Rev. W. J. Boger, was married Christmas afternoon to Miss Elise Barnhardt, at Plover Mills, Rev. A. W. Plyler, of Lexington, a brother-in-law of the bride, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Boger will make their home in Concord at the Jackson Training School, of which institution Mr. Boger was recently elected superintendent. Rev. Mr. Boger of Monroe was to have married the couple, but the weather was too bad for him to get out, especially since there was another preacher in the family nearer by.

Mrs. M. Waller is visiting her parents at Middendorf, S. C.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solon Price of Cerinth died Sunday.

Mr. S. A. Richardson of Lenoir spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Richardson.

Miss Rosa Tallery of Kershaw is visiting Mrs. Russell Rogers this week.

Mrs. J. O. Fulenwider and children, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. R. Kelly, of Wilmington, are visiting in Stanley, N. C.

Mrs. H. G. Bird of Columbia and Mr. W. N. Pointer of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pointer.

Squire M. H. Richardson returned yesterday from a trip in the Western part of the State. At Spruce Pine Friday the snow was twelve inches deep, ten at Asheville, and four at Rutherfordton.

Mr. Fitz L. Austin and Miss Irene Adams of Charlotte were married Christmas. Mr. Austin is a Monroe boy who has been living in Charlotte some time. He is a son of Mrs. H. W. Austin and a half brother of Mr. Henry Austin of Monroe.

Mrs. J. H. Benton has been in a critical condition since last Thursday evening when an attack of uric acid set in. She has been in a comatose condition. Her friends and family have grave fears of her condition.

Mr. Frank Laney, son of Mr. F. A. Laney of Buford township, was married January the third to Miss Louisa Joseph of Salisbury, at the latter place. After spending a few days in Charlotte and Concord they came to Mr. Laney's father's, and will make their home in this county.

T. L. Crowell, city tax collector, reports the following collections for the month of December, 1913: Special license tax, $50.50; Miscellaneous collections, $293.12; Water and light rents, $2,044.65; tax book $7,967.46. Total collections, $10,355.73.

Christmas day as Messrs R. W. Rogers, Charles Eubanks and Wiley Davis were driving along the road not far from Trinity church in Buford Township, their horse became frightened and turned the buggy over, throwing the occupant's out and breaking Mr. Roger's collar bone.

Last week The Journal reported the fact that County Commissioner Brooks was sick and in a very dangerous condition, perhaps having cancer of the stomach. While he had been suffering for some time his friends did not know it. He was very active and was prompt in attending meetings of county commissioners and attending to other affairs, and as he never complained, no one knew that he was suffering. His condition is thought to be a little better. His son, Dr. J. C. Brooks of Chattanooga, is still with him.

MR. FLOW DIED THIS MORNING.

Oldest and One of Best Known Citizens of the County Passed Away After Many Days of Illness—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mr. G. W. Flow died at his home in Monroe at 7 o'clock this morning. He had been confined to the house for a good while with weakness incident to extreme old age, but up till a few days ago it was not certain whether he might live a few days or several weeks. He became worse last Friday. At one o'clock this morning, Mr. Thomas Curlee, who was nursing him, saw that a complete and rapid change for the worse had come. The funeral will be held at the residence at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Dr. Gurney. The interment will be here.

Judge Flow was born in the Philadelphia neighborhood of Mecklenburg county on May 11, 1826. He was married in 1854 to Miss Crowell, daughter of Michael and Jane Crowell, and sister of Col. A. H. Crowell, who survives him, and is now strong and well at the age of 80. He settled in this county and merchandised with his brother-in-law, Col. Crowell, in Goose Creek township, fourteen miles north of Monroe, and engaged in farming. He was prominent in the politics and life of the county before the war and was one of the managers of the poor fund of the county, which at that time was separate from other matters. In August, 1868, he was elected clerk of the court and in November of that year moved to Monroe. He remained clerk of the court till 1874, and again from 1876 to 1878, filled out the unexpired term of Col. S. H. Walkup. He bought the premises on which he afterward lived in 1869, from Abel Funderburk, who erected the late residence of Judge Flow before the war. He afterwards engaged in merchandising and farming. He helped to organize the Monroe Presbyterian church and was on the committee with W. H. Simpson and Col. Walkup, which bought the old building of the Methodist congregation which stood where the Presbyterian structure now is, when the Methodist congregation moved to the location where the old church stood on the corner of Hayne and Windsor streets. Judge Flow is survived by his wife and five daughters and five sons. They are: Mrs. H. Preslar, Mrs. J. E. Henderson, Mrs. S. B. Hart, Mrs. S. L. Alexander, and Mrs. T. A. Sikes and Messrs. M. L. M. E., D. W., G. E., and Frank Flow. All the children are now here except Mrs. Sikes, who with her husband, Rev. T. A. Sikes, will arrive from Beaufort tomorrow.

The deceased was perhaps the oldest man in the county at the time of his death. He was for years a landmark in the county and was known by sight to practically every one in the county.

Special Notices.

This is the place to tell your short business story. What you have to buy or sell can be told to thousands of readers for a slight cost. IT PAYS. People look to this column with eagerness to see who is hustling. Advertisements are inserted at the rate of ONE CENT per word each insertion. Count the words in your adv. and send cash with copy. Each figure and initial counts a word. No ad. taken for less than ten cents. Send copy in as early as possible.

If you want shoes we will save you money—Collins & Hargett.

Your grocery "bill" will be less if you trade with Vann Funderburk.

Deliveries always prompt.—Griffin & Bivens.

Education consists in knowing things—know how a range is made inside and out. Call at our store during our special Majestic Range demonstration—week of Jan 19th.—Heath Hardware Company.

Our three registered druggists are kept busy filling prescriptions, but they have time to take care of yours in the very best and most careful manner. Bring them to us and we will give them the very best attention.—The Union Drug Co.

For Sale—Duroe Jersey pigs, 4 months old, at court house square at public auction, Saturday, January 10th, at 11 a. m. Sire and dam of these pigs registered and bred from Missouri State winners.—R. B. Redwine.

Pure soap—I am agent for Saxon's Vegetable Soap. Call 'phone 3773 and I will deliver on short notice.—G. E. Starnes.

See A. W. McCall for watch and clock repairing. Nothing but guaranteed material used.

Some nice fresh pickled pig feet, at Vann Funderburk's.

Don't forget us if you want shoes—Collins & Hargett.

I will offer for sale at my residence, 7 miles north of town, near P. C. Stinson's on Thursday, Jan. 15, pair Strubler computing scales, show case, desk, phone and line, farming tools, grain drill, about 40 bushels Cook's pure cotton seed, 50 or more bushels corn, one 3-4 wagon, two buggies, oil tank, one mule, weighs about 1100 pounds, and other things too numerous to mention.—Lee Yandle, Monroe Route 6.

Strayed—A small black male pig.—T. C. Eubanks, Monroe Route 10.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield of Charlotte will be in Monroe, at The Gloucester, on Saturday, January 17th, one day only. His practice is limited to the medical and surgical treatment of diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, and fitting glasses.

For Rent—Eight well furnished rooms; electric lighted; very reasonable price.—Mrs. Suddie E. Howie Matthews, 505 N. Main street.

Fresh lot of loose mince meat.—Vann Funderburk.

Faultless Brand squash in cans.—Griffin & Bivens.

See us if you want a good flour at a low price.—Collins & Hargett.

Our customers tell us that our line of toilet articles is the best in town, and we believe it. We work to keep it that way. Everything that the ladies need can be found here, and of a superior quality. — The Union Drug Company.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank on the second Tuesday in January (January 13th, 1914), at the bank at ten o'clock in the morning for the purpose of selecting a board of directors and transacting such other business as may come before them.—D. A. Houston.

A few pure bred White Orpington cockerels for sale.—L. H. Medlin, City.

Dr. H. Smith, eye - sight specialist, can be found regularly at his office, Monroe N. C., from this date for several weeks. If your eyes give you trouble call and see him. The latest in everything optical.

Call 58 for anything you need in groceries.—Polk-Bros.

Lettuce and Parsley for sale.—J. H. Beckley, phone 40-J.

Try Cameo washing tablets.—Vann Funderburk.

Is it something to eat? Call phone 195.—Griffin & Bivens.

If you want the best flour you ever bought for the money let us sell you "O. K."—Collins & Hargett.

Make your hens lay by feeding them Dr. Legear's poultry powder. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.—Co-operative Mercantile Company.

Bring us your jewelry and watches for repair. Nothing but the best material used.—W. J. Rudge Co.

Cotton Seed—Bring them to us. Set of new scales.—Co-operative Mercantile Company.

Highest market price paid for cotton seed delivered in our warehouse.—Co-operative Mercantile Co.

Have the serviceable old buggy and wagon made over to look like new. Our skilled workmen can do wonders with them.—Henderson Garage Co.

Just received a shipment of Indian River oranges. They are fine, try them. All kinds of nice candy and fruits. Apples from 5 cents a dozen up. See us before buying.—W. R. Outen Co.

After taking stock January first we find we have too many shoes and so we will sell some cheap—Collins & Hargett.

Pastime Theatre tonight, "An accidental alibi," "Pink opera cloak" and "French artillery maneuvers."

Something for nothing is worth while—$8.00 worth of ware for nothing is worth your time to investigate. See our big ad. in this paper.—Heath Hardware Company.

Home-made molasses, best grade.—Vann Funderburk.

Try our Sunbeam corn, 15c the can.—Griffin & Bivens.

Our fountain is running right along just like summer time. This is the popular place in town to buy your drinks. Meet your friends here. The Union Drug Company.

We wish all our friends and customers a happy and prosperous new year. We appreciated your trade during 1913 and will also appreciate continuance of it in 1914.—Union Drug Company, A. M. Secrest, Manager.

Just received, a car of flour bought before the advance—Collins & Hargett.

Dog Lost—Blue speckled female hound pup, with black ears. Reward if returned to H. A. Winchester, Lancaster road.

We take pleasure in filling your orders for groceries. Give us a call.—Polk Bros.

Have J. E. Preslar to remount your diamond.

New lot of Elgin watches, 16 size, 7 jewel nickel, at $5.50 at Rudge's.

Twenty pounds of good rice for one dollar.—Vann Funderburk.

Strayed—A small red Jersey pig. Return to L. S. Medlin.

I will grind corn at R. W. A. Rogers' home place Saturday of every week from this date.—R. W. Rogers.

Plenty of home-made kraut.—Vann Funderburk.

We sell Triplett's Champion Flour the best on the market—Collins & Hargett.

Try a package of Dr. Legear's stock powder, a guarantee with every package.—Co-operative Mercantile Company.

Fleishman's yeast cake.—Griffin & Bivens.

$8.00 worth of ware will be given away free with every Majestic range sold at our demonstration, Jan. 19—one week only.—Heath Hardware Company.

Just received, a car of "O. K." flour, every sack guaranteed and bought before the advance—Collins & Hargett.

We are crowded with orders for chickens and are anxious to buy all we can get. Bring them right along to us and get the highest cash price.—W. R. Outen & Co.

Fine watch and jewelry repairing a specialty.—J. E. Preslar.

Something New—The wet wash plan, at 2 cents a pound straight. Give us a trial and see how you like it along with your shirts, collars and cuffs. Call us up or ask the driver about it—Monroe Steam Laundry.

"O. K." flour is our leader—Collins & Hargett.

Weather hardened cabbage plants for sale. Early Jersey Wakefield.—L. H. Medlin, City.

Wanted—You to see us before you sell your chickens and eggs.—Co-operative Mercantile Co.

Dr. H. Smith, eye-sight specialist, can be found regularly at his office, Monroe, N. C., from this date for several weeks. If your eyes give you trouble call and see him. The latest in everything optical.

Don't fail to see J. E. Preslar for watch and jewelry repairing.

Not in all the South can you find a better equipped shop for the repair of automobiles, bicycles, guns, pistols, wagons and buggies.—The Henderson Garage Co.

We are now in shape to handle all the chickens and eggs we can get, and give you better prices.—W. R. Outen Co. opposite F. B. Ashcraft's store.

A full stock of fountain pens—Waterman and Conklim.—The W. J. Rudge Co.

Please call at any time for hack work. Phone 268.—Henry Lilly.

All bicycle and automobile parts and accessories ready to supply your needs. Our place is famous for good and quick service. Henderson Garage Co.

For Sale or Swap—One 20 h. p. boiler and engine.—W. L. Hemby, Matthews, N. C., Route No. 18.

For Rent—Five room cottage.—J. W. Richardson.

Lee & Lee Co.

THE LEADING Dry Goods, Millinery, Notions, Clothing, Hat and Shoe Store in MONROE, NORTH CAROLINA.

In Our Corset Department

THE

New Nemo Duplex $3.00

SELF-REDUCING CORSET

Marks the Extreme Limit of Value-Giving.

Detailed Description of the New Nemo Duplex Self-Reducing Corset.

It has the improved Self-Reducing front. The front steels are slightly curved inward at the lower ends, thereby giving unusually firm abdominal support from underneath.

No. 327 has Low bust.

No. 328 has Medium bust.

Both models have very long skirt, which reduce upper limbs.

It is made easy and flexible by its construction in front, and by the broad bands of semi-elastic Lastikop Webbing at the back.

Sizes 22 to 36.

Material Fine White Coutil.

Suitable for all stout figures or for women of medium or full figure who desire reduction all around, below the waist.

LEE & LEE COMPANY,

THE LEADING

Dry Goods, Millinery, Notions, Clothing, Hat and Shoe Store in MONROE, NORTH CAROLINA.

You women who want a model that emphasizes litheness, the keynote of the new fashions, and yet need a medium bust corset, should see the

J. C. C. Eureka.

It gives perfect poise and proportion to the woman of average figure without discomfort and interference. The long lines of the front, hip and back give the fashionable appearance so much desired—one of our corset sections best values at $1.50.

Our line of other corsets sensibly priced $1.00 to $6.00, full of the newest models—your style of figure has its corresponding models and easy fitting size.

You'll find it here.

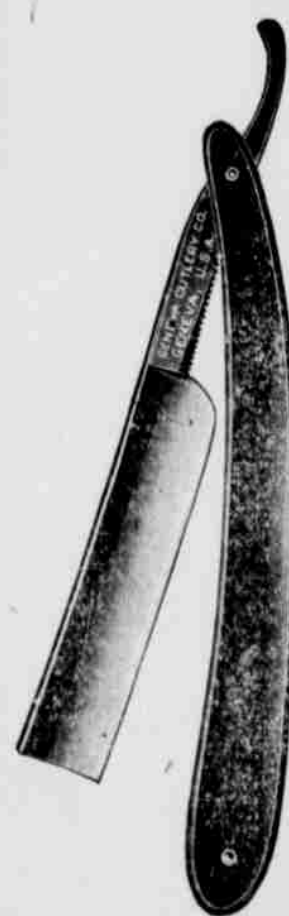

Monroe Bargain House,

NASSIFF & JOSEPH, Proprietors.

One Dollar Bottle of Globe Tonic

for 50 cents

at English Drug Company's.

This Premium Razor, given by The Monroe Journal to subscribers who pay one year in advance, is the best value ever offered by a North Carolina newspaper. It is equal to any razor you pay a dollar and a half for. It is manufactured by one of the best razor-making firms in the United States. We have just received a new lot and the manufacturers write us:

"This razor is forged from high grade, high carbon English steel made under our special formula for our own use.

"Each and every blade is carefully tested and is worked under heats governed by pyrometry and thermometers so we have an absolutely uniformity of hardness and temper on these blades.

"As this razor progresses through the factory, it is subjected to special tests as it passes each department, consequently when the blade is finished it leaves it in excellent shape of give perfect satisfaction."

THINK OF THIS OFFER:

The Monroe Journal one year and this razor, all for $1.00. Send in renewal and it will be sent postage paid.

THE MONROE JOURNAL.

