

Local and Personal.

Mrs. Walter Heckle of Atlanta is visiting Mrs. J. A. Douglas.

Miss Laura Rogers is visiting in Lincoln.

Mr. Frank Walters and family of Pageland have been spending a few days at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. G. M. Whitfield of Lumberton spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. V. C. Whitfield.

Mrs. S. E. Belk and Miss Leslie Belk are spending some time at Rocky River Springs.

Mrs. Antoinette Beasley returned Friday from a visit to relatives and friends in Wilmington.

Miss Mary Morrow Heath has returned from an extended visit to friends in High Point and Greensboro.

Miss Mary Todd of Due West, and Miss Nannie Todd of Lancaster, are visiting their sister, Mrs. R. H. Kennington.

Mr. Oscar Hartis and Miss Rosa Griffin, daughter of Mr. J. W. Griffin, were married Sunday by Rev. R. M. Hagler at the home of the bride, near Corinth church.

Mr. W. C. Crosby, Educational Agent of the North Carolina Farmers' Union, will lecture at Stallings next Saturday during the meeting of the county Union.

Mrs. W. E. Cason and children, Mrs. Tom Capehart and children, and Mrs. Ella Lindsey and her neices, the Armfield children, all went to Marshville yesterday and spent the day with Mrs. Tom Smith.

Mr. Calvin Laney of Buford spent Sunday in Charlotte with Mrs. Laney who has been in a hospital there several days and was operated on. She is getting on nicely and will be home in a few days.

Murry Lee, the fourteen-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Griffin of Buford township, died Wednesday of cholera infantum, after an illness of three days. The remains were buried at the Broom burying ground.

Messrs. T. C. Anderson and V. C. Redwine, who have lately traveled all over Anson county, tell The Journal that the corn and cotton crop in that county are the finest they have ever seen there, and about as good as they have ever seen in this section of the country at all.

All who are interested are requested to meet at Shiloh Baptist church next Friday morning at 7 o'clock to clean up the cemetery and grounds and to clean out the well and such other work that is needed. Please don't forget the date, Friday, July 24th.

The Charlotte Observer of Sunday had four pages of advertising of the sale of Belk Brothers now on in Charlotte. While Messrs. W. H. and J. M. Belk are roaming around arm in arm in Scotland and enjoying themselves, the Charlotte boys have taken advantage of their absence to do something that was never done before—to put pictures of the Belk Bros. in the paper in connection with the big sale.

Mr. W. A. Huey, who leaves town every spring and spends the growing season on the farm in dear old Jackson somewhere about Tirzah, was in town yesterday and informed The Journal that he had plowed every day this year. He was told to be careful about such statements, for Squire John Winchester got into trouble once by making such a statement as that to The Journal. The late Capt. Sanford Howie said that Squire Winchester must have ruined all his land that spring by plowing right through the wet weather.

The big mercantile sales that are now going on in Monroe have been an astonishment to most folks. Four in full blast at one time and all doing well. It is a lesson in business. When a concern will supply itself with goods that the people need at proper prices and then tell them about it, things move. All the stores conducting sales have used printer's ink largely but judiciously. Suppose none of them had, what kind of sales would they have been conducting this week? The Journal is proud of the fine ads it has been carrying and is yet carrying, not only because it is business for the paper but because it is a real service both to the merchants and the public.

Mr. T. J. W. Broom, the county farm demonstrator, has been busy traveling over the county this month, getting in touch with the farmers and discussing plans and conditions. Mr. Broom tells The Journal that he is highly gratified at the reception he is receiving from the best farmers everywhere. They are alive to progressive ideas and anxious and ready to cooperate with every undertaking that looks to improving conditions in any direction. They are ready to hold up his hands, to co-operate, and to enthusiastically encourage good ideas. He says the best farmers are the readiest to help things along. The first definite undertaking will be the extension of the crimson clover acreage.

Messrs. S. O. Blair, Roscoe Phifer, C. H. Richardson, and J. V. Griffith took a spin as far south as Camden on Sunday. They went by way of Lancaster, Heath Springs and Kershaw, and returned over the same route as far as Lancaster. From Lancaster they came by way of Waxhaw. This gave them the benefit of the proposed lateral branch of the national highway from Camden toward Charlotte. From Charlotte, by Waxhaw, Lancaster, Heath Springs, Kershaw, to Camden, is nearly a straight shoot south. The travelers report that everywhere they went crops seemed "spotted," that is, some good and some not good owing to lack of stands. The above named gentlemen took the trip in one machine, and another followed with Messrs. Claude Bruner, W. A. Huey, W. D. Flow and J. C. Turner.

Miss Jean Ashcraft is visiting relatives in Marshville.

Miss Grace Graddock of Albemarle is visiting Miss Kathleen Whitfield.

Miss Emily Wright of Clover, S.C., has returned home from a visit to Mrs. Estelle Horn.

Misses Hattie Wall Bryant of Laurinburg and Mary Hull of Shelby are visiting Miss Ruth Russell.

Mr. W. A. Howie of Mineral Spring has opened a garage in Monroe. He has not moved his family to Monroe, but may do so later.

John Austin, the nine-year-old son of Mr. E. H. Austin, while playing yesterday fell and broke his arm. He was running with a companion.

Miss Sadie O'Connell and Miss Carrie O'Connell of Charlotte spent Sunday with Misses Annie and Kathleen Nelson.

Mr. F. A. Sloan, a popular prescriptionist at the Union Drug Co., leaves tonight to enjoy his vacation at Wrightsville Beach.

Mrs. C. F. Cadieu, who is in the Presbyterian Hospital, Charlotte, for treatment, was operated on Wednesday and is improving nicely.

Mrs. A. J. Boyte was carried to Charlotte Sunday to the Presbyterian hospital, where she will be operated on in a few days when she becomes strong enough.

Mr. A. M. Burns and sons, who with Mrs. Burns, had been visiting Mrs. E. C. Winchester, have returned to their home at Roxboro. Mrs. Burns is yet with Mrs. Winchester.

Messrs. J. R. Welsh, C. C. Furr, A. G. Braswell and C. E. Hill, of Oakboro came over in a car Sunday afternoon. They broke down within a few miles of Monroe and had to give the sign of distress and be hauled in.

Dr. Whitley of Unionville holds the record for a careful driver of an automobile. He has run a Ford car 3,500 miles over all kinds of roads and has spent but one dollar for actual repairs.

Mr. W. J. Trull had a painful accident to befall him yesterday morning while running his wood saw. The saw jerked hold of a loose piece of wood jerked his hand and gave it a severe cut which required fifteen stitches to sew up.

Miss Josephine Mullen of Lincoln has returned home after spending a month with Mrs. W. S. Baskerville. Miss Grace Baskerville of Charlotte and Miss Mary Covington of Laurinburg arrived yesterday to spend some time with Mrs. Baskerville.

Mr. Kemp Neal, son of Dr. J. W. Neal, who has been sick with fever for several weeks, is getting better. It is hoped that he will be free from fever in a few days. He became sick soon after returning home from Harvard University in the spring, and it is not known where he contracted the disease.

Capt. A. J. Barnes returned Saturday from Atlanta where he had gone on account of the sickness of his grand-son, Mr. Barnes Sale. The young man has been in a very critical condition for several days and his many friends and family were very anxious about him, but it is now thought that he will soon recover.

Mr. W. M. Helms was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte last night and operated on for rupture. Rev. R. H. Kennington, who accompanied him, returned this morning and reports that he is getting along fine. He was taken up at ten o'clock, and as the case was urgent, was operated on at midnight.

Waxhaw is preparing to have a big gala day and celebration on August 12th when the county candidates speak there. They are preparing to do all kind of things and when Waxhaw starts she always finishes right. The Woodmen at Price Mill will give a picnic when the canvass opens there on the 8th. So far as heard no other place is making special preparation.

Rev. E. C. Snyder announces his schedule of protracted meetings as follows, each meeting to continue one week, beginning on the dates named: Oak Grove, next Saturday, July 25th, assisted by Rev. J. A. Bivens; Faulks, August 1st, assisted by Rev. S. W. Bennett; Shiloh, August 9th, Sunday, assisted by Rev. Braxton Craig; Mill Creek, August 15th, assisted by Rev. J. S. Sneider; Mount Harmony, August 22nd, assisted by Rev. S. W. Bennett.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Saint Paul's Episcopal church will give an entertainment at the residence of Mrs. T. P. Dillon, on McCauley Heights, this evening, beginning at 8:30. A program consisting of music and recitations will be arranged. In addition to this there will be an exhibition of beautiful Japanese Tissue Photographs, copies of pictures by famous artists. An admission of 15c. will be charged and refreshments will be served free. Proceeds for the benefit of the building fund. Everybody invited.

Mr. Lee Wolfe died in St. Peter's Hospital in Charlotte last night, where he had been for treatment for some time. He was 68 years old and a native of Mecklenburg county. He was well known in this county and had property interests near Mineral Spring, and lived for a while in Monroe and about ten years ago moved to Hickory. He is survived by his wife and five children, Mr. Dayton Wolfe of Rutherfordton, in the drug business, Dr. Roy Wolfe of Hickory, and Misses Agnes, Estelle and Louie Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe was a man of high character, well informed, gentle and kind in his manners, and quite well known in Davidson, Union and Mecklenburg, in all of which counties he has lived and owned land.

TO HAVE OLD SLAVE REUNION.

Success of Last Year Suggest Another and Bigger Event for this—Old Masters Will Be Asked to Participate.

Last year when a number of old slaves of this section held a reunion on the courthouse square they enjoyed the event so much they resolved to have another this year and a bigger one if possible. They now have a committee at work and are seeking to secure the co-operation and help of the white folks. And of this they have been assured by many. They are finding friends in such men as Mr. W. H. Phifer, A. M. Crowell, Dr. W. B. Houston, Mr. W. L. Howie and others.

The committee have asked The Journal to say that they are very anxious to have the co-operation of any of the old masters that may be living and of the white people generally. They want the old masters to come and take part in the day. The committee who are working to get up the necessary funds and contributions for the dinner are Edmund Thumons, Jno. Nixon, William Stockton, Silas Richardson, Alexander Crowell, Allen Hough, Clinton Moser. The day for the reunion is Wednesday, Aug. 12th.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

The Sunday services were well attended. In the morning the pastor preached on the theme, "Prevailing prayer," and the interest manifested by the congregation was very marked. "Praying in the Holy Spirit," Jude 20, was the text. This last exhortation in the Bible concerning prayer was set forth as the highest plain of spiritual life. The subject was discussed under the three heads, "Approach," "Asking" and "Answer."

The evening service was made especially attractive by the singing of the young ladies' choir, the regular choir taking a vacation in the evening for several weeks.

Mid-week service on Wednesday evening at 8:15, "come apart and rest awhile."

CHURCH REPORTER.

Death of Mrs. D. R. Pusser. Mrs. Mary Pusser, wife of Mr. D. R. Pusser, died at her home in New Salem township at eight o'clock last night, July 20th. She had been suffering for a year from the effects of a spell of typhoid fever which she had last summer and from which she never fully recovered. Mrs. Pusser was a daughter of the late Mr. W. B. Hinson, a well known citizen of New Salem township, and was 61 years of age. She is survived by her husband and ten children all grown. They are Messrs Ellis B. Pusser, E. A. Pusser of Charlotte, William W. Pusser, L. E. Pusser of Love's Mill, J. D. Pusser of Spencer, N. C. Pusser of Oakboro, J. C. Pusser, living at the home place with his parents, and Mrs. Elizabeth Rushing. Mrs. Lee Trull, and Mrs. Jack Simpson. She is also survived by two brothers, Messrs Z. A. and N. S. Hinson of Charlotte, and Mrs. John Love of Stanly. Mrs. W. A. Tarlton, Mrs. Tirzah Furr of Albemarle, and Mrs. Dan Austin. Funeral will be held this afternoon at New Hope by Elder Broadway. Mrs. Pusser was a good woman who will be missed.

When Mr. Mr. J. M. Carnes closed his store Saturday night he put forty odd dollars in cash and $14 in checks in his pocket and went home. He lives about a mile north of town. He left the window of his room open and his trousers on a chair near it. Next morning he found that some one had fished the garment through the window and rifled the pockets of the contents. The money hasn't been found or the thief discovered.

Mr. M. M. Winchester and family of Mineral Spring, Mrs. N. S. Winchester and Mr. Geo. H. Howie, left this morning for Swannanoa to spend a month or six weeks. Mr. Winchester has stood behind his counter at Mineral Spring without much rest for eleven years, and now he says he is going to have a good one, with plenty of mountain air and water, and will also take a few rattle snake hunts if he wants to. However, he isn't greedy about the last item.

Mr. Marc Spencer, a civil engineer, was killed yesterday at Badin, where he was engaged in the construction work. He fell upon an upright piece of scantling. He was a young man just graduated from the University.

Obituary.

Mr. J. R. Deese of Sandy Ridge township was born in 1852, and married Miss M. C. Secrest in 1874. To this union was born 12 children, 3 girls and 9 sons. Two of his children passed over the river before their father. He died July 16th, 1914, in the Christian faith, leaving his beloved wife and his affectionate children, 8 sons and 2 daughters, to mourn their loss. But we feel sure their loss is his eternal gain. His body was buried at the cemetery at Weddington the 17th inst. The service was conducted by Revs. Taylor and Bradley in a large concourse of relatives, friends and neighbors who had met to show the high esteem in which they held the deceased. He and his wife were poor when married, but by industry and economy they had accumulated about 700 acres of land, money and other property. His will gave each child a tract of land and to his bereaved widow he willed his home place.

May God protect the widow and fatherless children and help them to meet the father in heaven, is the prayer of
A FRIEND.

"THE TWO MARYS"

Mary Fuller and Mary Pickford Join the Big "U."

They will shortly appear in the famous moving Universal pictures that are now being shown at the Rex Theatre.

Monday began the fifth successful week with our unexcelled moving Universal picture program—the best in the movies. They grip, they thrill, they charm, they please.

To-night—"Broken Vows," in two parts. A drama of to-day. This two-reel number is of heart interest and is sure to please. "Women and Roses," featuring Wallace Reid and Dorothy Davenport in a pretty conventional picture, adapted from Browning's poem. This is a dainty and pleasing number for any program.

Wednesday—"Through the Eyes of the Blind," a heart gripping two-reel number with an exciting love drama interwoven. "Who's Who?" a wonderful thrilling comedy mystery.

Thursday—"The Two Gun Men," another tremendously thrilling mystery drama, an exciting two-reel number that is sure to please. "Universal Animated Weekly," a splendid one-reel number, very interesting, showing events that really happen.

Friday—"The Tragedy of Whispering Creek," a stirring drama of the Rockies in two parts. Very thrilling and very exciting. "Ford Sterling in 'His Wedding Day.'" It's a Sterling Screen. Some comedy and some fun.

Saturday—"The Queen of Romance," with pretty Ethel Grandin. This is chapter one in the "Love Adventures of Doris Mason." Don't miss it. "Universal Ike and the School Belle," a screaming comedy. "Cuckooville Goes Skating," a continuous scream that should be seen.

When you want to see real movies come to The Rex. A high class performance always. We show Moving Universal Pictures. They grip, they thrill, they charm, they entertain, they please.

For Commissioner. I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of county commissioner, subject to the Democratic primary. JOE E. THOMAS, Marshville.
