JAPAN COMES INTO THE WAR

WILL OUST GERMANY FROM

Has Sent an Ultimatum to the Effect that Kaiser Must Get Out of Stolen Position or Suffer Consequences-Fighting Along the Whole Border Between Germany and France.

The latest developments in the great war is the entrance of the Japanese into the conflict against Germany. While Japan has an alliance with Great Britian, this would not have brought her into the war but some years ago Germany seized a city and its surrounding territory in China and fortified it for a naval and military base. Japan has seized the present opportunity to drive Germany out of this position and thus render her weak as a force in the far east for the future. She has notified Germany that she must vacate in thirty days of suffer the consequences.

As to the war itself, little news seeps through. All the countries keep back newspaper correspondents and let nothing come through with out being censored. No news at all comes from the German side. There is some fighting and in some instances large slaughter is reported. Three Austrian battleships were reported to have been sunk yesterday.

News today is that a big battle is now going on.

SATURDAY'S NEWS.

Definite information has been re ceived of a strong offensive move ment by the French troops on the Franco-German frontier, extending from Luneville to Sarrebourg. Official announcement is made that Blamont, Ciry and Avricourt were re-oc cupied after a Bavarian army corps was driven out.

The re-taking by the French o Thann, in Alsace, is officially announced and the wounding of General Von Dimling, commander of the 15th German army corps.

The French war ministry prepares the public for the great battle which will extend over a line of more than 250 miles in length and in which several millions of men on either side will be engaged.

This battle line will extend from Basel to Maastricht and the people are warned that at some points the Germans may be successful, while, it is added, at other points the French will have an advantage. It also is announced that no definite details of the battle need be expected for at least eight days.

Nothing is known of recent operations around the Leige forts. It is reported that Germany has sent a note to France and Belgium through a neutral power, accusing these two countries of having organized a popular war against Germany, and declaring that any Belgian or French private citizen not in uniform who interferes with the German troops will be shot.

The Washington government has floating of loans in the United States for the benefit of any beliggerent power. The United States government also has notified European powers that it will regard as neutral the ships chartered for the sole purpose of bringing back Americans, and has asked the powers for a declaration on the subject.

The Austrian warships are at Pola, the great Austrian fortress, and the entire coast has been mined.

SUNDAY'S NEWS.

While the German forces are pushing forward through the valley of the Meuse and still more extensive operations are in progress along the Alsace-Lorraine frontier where the French and German armies are in contact, Japan has sent an ultimatum to Germany demanding the withdrawal of German warships from the Orient and the evacuation of Kiau-Chau, a German protectorate in Chi-

This territory comprises an area of 200 square miles, with 200 square mile additional in the bay. Tsing Tau, the seat of the Governor of Territory, is the port where the German warships mobilized at the outbreak of hostilities.

Japan's ultimatum gives Germany until August 23 to comply with the demands. Owing to cable interruptions, however, Japan has not been able to deliver the ultimatum to Germany, and it is announced from Washington that the United States will undertake this task.

Peking reports that three British Regiments have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to go aboard transports and it is presumed they will co-operate with the land forces if force of arms is restored to.

In Tokio the Japanese ultimatum has created a deep impression and the Japanese Premier and Foreign Minister have counseled the Japanese to maintain a calm attitude.

Late dispatches report an offensive movement by the French from Luvenville to Sarroburg but this is considered as merely an outpost affair. A state of seige has been proclaimed in Bulgaria. The United States cruisers Tennes for Americans in Europe, havr arrived at Falmouth.

Still Loyal.

St. Louis Times. Kaiser Wilhelm may have lost some of his European friends, but we note that all his people and his mustache still stand up for him.

A Card for Mr. Adams. Democrats of Union County:

On the day of the primaries, Saturday, Mr. Flow circulated over the county a circular, the purpose of which was to make the people believe that he had not fought the Recorder's court. That circular was based upon a presumption that you do not remember. In October, 1912, Mr. Flow attacked the Recorder's court venomously. We wish that each of you would call at the Enquirer office at Monroe and ask Mr. Asheraft to show you a copy of the Enquirer of October 24, 1912. There is an article in that issue signed by M. L. Flow, headed "AGAINST RECORDER'S COURT." He starts his article as

"Mr. Editor:-I published an article in the last issue of your paper in which I showed that the Recorder's court was wrong as being a one-man court, that is was an expense to the tax-payers of the county.

Further on down in the same arti-

Superior Court don't fool with crimfines than were collected by Mr. Pratt's court in a year. That is one of the troubles with the Recorder's court. It is too much of a cost court. We have given it power to handle so light that crime is increasing."

Democrats, we invite you to go to the Enquirer office and see the article in full. And now comes Mr. Flow and tries to make you believe that he was only fighting the provision the office! And everybody knows that the original statute had been changed so that any elector, whether a lawyer or not, would be eligible to the office, three and one half years before Mr. Flow wrote the above ar-

Then Mr. Flow, despairing of fooling the people into believing that he did not fight this valuable institution of the county, makes the statement in his circular that if he did fight it, it was because "as the court had been run it had been a burden and expense to the people." In 1912, when Mr. Flow was making this vicious attack on the court, the only one who had ever served as Recorder was Hon. R. L. Stevens. Mr. Flow's statement, therefore, is a direct attack upon Mr. Steven's administration of the office. Mr. Steven's record as Recorder is too well known to need defense. The reports published quarterly by Mr. J. C. M. Vann and Mr. W. J. Pratt, who were prosecuting attorneys of court, show that at the time of Mr. Flow's letter, the court had been last Friday. A big crowd was there, come forth a wall from the Republiclearing annually, above its expenses.

On the other hand, voters of Union county, Mr. H. B. Adams, Jr., who now holds the office, has made him with the kindest consideration. His judgments are always tempered with mercy. He is careful to look 'after the convenience of witnesses, defendants, and jurors, is always prompt, and polite to all, and he is careful to see that the humblest citizen who appears in the court is derburk.

GROWERS DISCUSS RELIEF

Recommendation Made That Present Crop Be Held for 12 1-2 Cents-Treasury Asked to Place Funds in South-Urge Building of Warehouses.

Washington Dispatch, 14th.

The Southern Cotton Congress, ofter endorsing various plans for the relief of the crisis in the cotton market, resulting from the European war, concluded its sessions here tonight. The congress authorized various committees to co-operate with the Pederal government and State authorities in their efforts to enable the cotton grower to weather the financial storm and secure a fair price for the present corton crop.

After endorsing the work so far done by the Southern representatives in Congress in the matter of furnish ing transportation for the export trade, and providing currency t nance the crop, the congress endorsed a bill introduced in the House by Representative Wingo, of Arkansas, authorizing the issuance of Federal reserve notes on cotton.

Later the report from the Resolutions committee was adopted outlining a plan to meet the entire situation. This provided for the appointment of a committee of five members to co-operate with Congress, the Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve Board to seek means of "financing and marketing the crop, without unneccessary loss to the far-

These notes, the report red ommended, should be made rediscountable in the Federal Reserve banks.

As originally presented the report recommended that the notes contain a stipulation that the farmer would raise only half of a normal crop in 1915, and if the war was still in pro-gress on April 1, should raise only one-quarter of his crop, thus holding down the 1915 production to prevent a glut caused by carrying over this year's surplus.

A vigorous discussion resulted in striking out this provision and recommended that only the farmer be urged to cut down his crop without Copple, Miss Mary Hoover, Miss Ruth stipulation in the proposed notes.

TOBACCO AND OTHER CROPS.

The report recommended that tobacco and other crops should handled in the same way, in the discretion of the Reserve Board.

President E. J. Watson was authorized to appoint a committee to take up the question of providing warehouses to store such of the crop as will be held over until next year. He was also authorized to name a committee of a member from each cotton State, to call a State convention of nine delegates from each county representing farmers, merchants and bankers, to urge Governors to call special sessions of State legislatures to immediately take up the question of installing State warehouse systems.

Representatives of the Congress will remain in Washington to cooperate with the Southern Representatives in Congress who are working out plans for legislative aid to the South.
