TEACHERS AT INSTITUTE

A MOST SUCCESSFUL PERIOD OF WORK CLOSED TODAY.

Closing Exercises Marked by Pleasant Occasion—One Hundred and Fifty Teachers With Their Home Addresses.

Today marks the closing of one of the most successful Teacher's Institutes ever held in this county. This is the verdict of Prof. R. W. Allen and Prof. R. N. Nisbet, who have been in charge of the Institute. They say that the teachers have exhibited more interest, and have been more energetic than has been manifested at sessions heretofore. Today's session was concluded with exercises by the teachers. Miss Mary Morrow Heath and others sang sev eral selections, and several short talks were made.

On yesterday afternoon the out-oftown teachers were entertained on on the lawn of the High School building by the Monroe teachers, Ice cream and cake and punch was serv ed, and the affair was enjoyed by all
