THE LADIES IN THE DISTRICT WORKHOUSE

Highbrow Suffragettes Who Try to Annoy the President of the United States Must Pay the Penalty of Service Like Others.

In the workhouse of the District of Columbia, situated at Ovequan, Va., 28 miles below the national capital on the Potomac river, 16 militant suffragists, members of the National Woman's party, began a 60-day sentence Tuesday afternoon. They were confined in police court for staging a "hostile day" celebration in front of the White House on July 14, which resulted in the blocking of traffic there. Judge Mulloony gave the suffragettes the alternative of paying a fine of $25, but after a 20-minute conference, all declared themselves in favor of the workhouse sentence.

The 16 militants who were taken in the automobile to Superintendent Whisker's penal institution were: Miss Julia Hurlburt and Mrs. J. A. H. Hopkins, of Morristown, N. J.; Mrs. Beatrice Kincaid, of Mt. View, Cal.; Mrs. Florence Bayard Hiles, of Washington, Del., daughter of the first ambassador to Great Britain; Miss Milanie Abbott, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Paul Royason, of Detroit; Miss Anne Martin, of Nevada; Mrs. Robert Walker, of Baltimore; Miss Janet Frothingham, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Gilson Gardner, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Doris Stevens, of Omaha, Neb.; Miss Mary H. Ingram, of Philadelphia; Mrs. John Rogers, of New York, sister of former secretary of war, Stimson; Mrs. John Winners Brannan, of New York, daughter of the late Charles A. Dana; Miss Eleanor Caiman, of Methuen, Mass., and Mrs. Louise P. Mayo, of Framingham, Mass.

Herded Into Prisoners' Dock.
As soon as the militants had made known their decision to Judge Mulloony they were herded into the prisoners' docks, where they held a levee until automobiles sent for them had arrived.

Judge Mulloony passed sentence on the suffragists shortly after the noon recess. He read to the women the peace and order act and told them there was nothing unusual about a case under the act.

"I have before me ladies of culture, refinement and broad knowledge, who are well informed and well read," he declared. "You actually and earnestly believe that you can do this thing and you believe that you ladies must not be disturbed, must be privileged characters; that you must not be bothered and not taken to task for violation of this act. I will not attempt to argue or reason with you. I cannot see how I can be fair without declaring you guilty. In my judgment you are guilty and I so find you."

Miss Stevens noted an exception. Judge Mulloony asked if the defendants had anything to say as to sentence. Corporation Council Hart interposed by asking for the maximum sentence.

Miss Stevens called attention to the fact that no member of the group had been before the court before and that was all they wished to say for themselves.

Mrs. Hopkins made a speech from the dock in her own defense.

"I was arrested on the independence day of France for carrying a banner bearing the motto of the French republic to the gates of the White House," she said. "The crowd gathered not to see the pickets, but to see the police arrest the pickets. The way to disperse the crowd is not to withdraw the pickets but to withdraw the police."

Nux-Iron-Paw-Paw.

3 POWERFUL FORCES IN 1.

THE NEW REMEDY NOW KNOWN AS IRONIZED PAW-PAW.

It Soothes the Nerves, Transforms Weak, Anaemic Men and Women Into Perfect Health, and Gives the Stomach Abiding Strength.

GOOD NEWS FROM ELIZABETH CITY, NORTH CAROLINA.

Mr. Virgil Williams, R. F. D., Box 20, Elizabeth City, N. C., writing to a prominent druggist in Norfolk, Va., says: "I received the Ironized Paw-Paw and it has given me great relief and I believe it is just as good as the advertisement says. I can say this for myself: I have used only one bottle and it has brought me out of considerable trouble with my stomach and I am feeling so much better that I enclose another dollar for your Nux-Iron and Paw-Paw tonic."

If you feel tired out, out of sorts, depressed, mentally and physically, and lack the desire to accomplish what you would wish to do, Ironized Paw-Paw will dispel the miserable feeling and make you feel that life is worth living.

The most marvelous effect of Ironized Paw-Paw is its wonderful curative power upon the nerves. No better remedy was ever compounded for the blood and liver; it makes good, rich blood, which in turn strengthens and vitalizes the whole nervous system.

Now is the time to begin taking a tonic—tone up your system and prevent your vital organs from becoming disordered or badly affected. Remember! Quality and quantity always count.

Your druggist probably keeps it, but if he doesn't, it is sold in Monroe by the English Drug Company.

Ironized Paw-Paw, price $1.00. Formula on every bottle. Mail orders promptly attended to.—Interstate Drug Co., Inc., New York—Adv.

HOGWALLOW NEWS.

Raz Barlow is on the program for the entertainment at Wild Onion Friday night, with a lot of new and original jokes, but he feels safe as he has an almanac that is out of date in this vicinity.

Isaac Hellwanger fell over the railing of the bridge on Gimlet creek the other day while watching the high water. He says it don't pay for one to put his mind too much on one thing unless he is holding to the railing or something else.

Luke Mathews's mule fell through a crack in the Gimlet creek bridge Wednesday morning and came near drowning. Luke will hereafter ride his larger mule.

Frisby Hancock, who raises the longest gourd vine every year, now has a melon vine that climbs trees.

Miss Flutie Belcher has one of the new style dresses, large at the bottom and little at the top.

Sidney Hicks is going to have his hair cut as soon as he can get his picture with it like it is.

Frisby Hancock found a lot of strange tracks in the dust of the road one day this week, and was about to call the Deputy Constable, when he learned that they were made by Yau Sims while trying to learn to ride a bicycle.

Poke Eazley has announced his intention to turn out his mustache as soon as the muddy weather is over with.

The interior department of the postoffice was cut off entirely from the outside world Wednesday, as the Postmaster took a long nap with his chair leaning against the front door.

While inspecting the grist mill on Musket Ridge the other day, Isaac Hellwanger's hat dropped into the corn hopper, and he asks that all who are going to use corn bread for the next few days, to see if they can find any trace of it.

Cricket Hicks is expecting to get a letter in the next few days and has told the postmaster to keep on the lookout for it.

The Widow of the Calf Ribs neighborhood will give a moonlight picnic at her home next Saturday night, and will invite the editor of the Tickville Tidings so that he can give it a good write-up.

Isaac Hellwanger, who has been arguing politics with the Postmaster at the postoffice for the past several weeks, will now move over to the blacksmith shop and again take up his discussion of infant baptism with Dock Hooks.

Film Dillard, who was supposed to have passed away with stomach trouble in the Calf Ribs neighborhood last week, was in Hogwallow this week and bought more bologna sausage.

Slim Pickens and a man from the Calf Ribs neighborhood engaged in a shooting affray Monday of this week. The man seemed to have been the aggressor, and shot at Slim three times, but Slim had presence of mind enough to turn sidewise when the shots began coming his way.

Cricket Hicks don't see how every young man can't get his hair to stand roached like that of the clerk at the Tickville Hotel.

A lizard got on Jefferson Potlocks during the sermon at Hog Ford last Sunday. Little damage resulted.

Meetings on the Unionville Charge.

For the five churches of the Unionville charge, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, there has been planned a week's meeting in each church followed by a general meeting for the entire charge at Unionville church, as it is the most centrally located of any of the churches of the charge, and the time of the beginning of each of these meetings is as follows:

Zion church, the 4th Sunday in July, opened at 11 o'clock with children's day exercises.

Union Grove church, the 5th Sunday in July at 8 o'clock p. m.

Oak Grove church, the 1st Sunday in August at 11 o'clock.

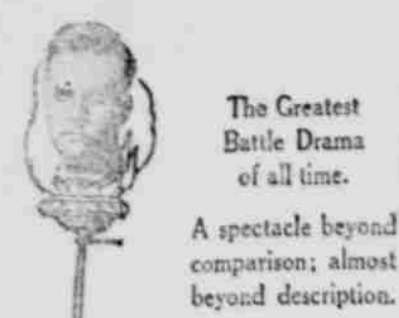

Mill Grove church, the 2nd Sunday in August at 11 o'clock.

At Unionville church, the 3rd Sunday in August at eleven o'clock the general meeting for the charge will begin, under a large tent, and will continue for ten days or two weeks.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these meetings.—G. W. Fink, Pastor.

Life Insurance is the flower of love surviving the frost of death.

FOUR WEIGHTY REASONS FOR LIFE INSURANCE.

- FIRST—Statistics tell us that only two men in one hundred succeed in business.
- SECOND—That only one man in thirty has sufficient for old age.
- THIRD—That in the settlement of valuable estates scarcely one per cent reaches or maintains the valuation of the Testator.
- FOURTH—That the number of contested wills is very large.

IF YOU could pay the cost of a life policy and neglected to do so, it's a mean thing for you to go up to Heaven, while your family go to the poorhouse. You, at death, move into a mansion, river front, and they move into two rooms on the fourth story back of a tenement house. When they are out at the elbows and knees, the thought of your splendid robe in Heaven will not keep them warm. The minister may preach a splendid sermon over your remains and the quartette may sing like four angels in the organ loft, but your death will be a swindle.
