

Three Killed When Students Fired Shell.

Marletta, Ga., Aug. 8.—Three persons were reported killed, including a woman, and two men seriously injured late today when a shell from a field artillery piece which was being used in target practice by student officers of the Fort McPherson, Ga., officers' training camp, missed its mark and exploded on the side of Kennesaw mountain, near here. Two of the dead are said to be negroes. According to reports received here the projectile, missing its target, struck a knoll on the mountain and ricocheted, taking a part of its death toll from among spectators who had lined a road nearby to watch the practice. A fragment of the shell, said to have been of a compression type of shrapnel, struck Mrs. Seth Harris and a negro who were riding in a buggy, killing them both.

The accident came at the close of artillery practice after the embryo gunners had spent several hours firing shrapnel and high explosive shells at targets a distance of about 2,000 yards.

Allies Repulse Tenth Attacks.

British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Aug. 8.—A determined but futile counter-attack delivered by the Germans against Hellebeke and heavy artillery bombardments on both sides represent the main activity along the front here in Flanders during the last twenty-four hours but the cessation of the rain and the reappearance of the sun which rapidly is drying out the water-soaked roads in the fighting area, is the most important event. Further attempts by the Germans to regain at least part of the grounds they lost in Tuesday's onslaught are looked for at various points along the wide front.

In addition to the assault on Hellebeke the Germans also delivered a counter-attack against a section of the left wing of the British army above Ypres during the night after heavy artillery preparation, but here also they were thrown back.

Automobile and a Skinned Nose.

Mr. P. P. W. Plyler is carrying a skinned nose, but he hasn't been into a fight. A bridge across the public road near Mr. Wes Austin's, in Marshville township, broke through as Mr. Plyler's automobile was passing over it and the jolt threw Mr. Plyler against some part of the car and inflicted the wound.

A bigamist is a man who thinks he can manage more than one woman at a time.

Need Good Cream to Make Quality Butter.

To the Editor of The Journal.—The important factors in making quality butter depends principally upon the cream received, and this we must depend on our patrons for.

The condition under which the farm separators are operated warrant a few remarks on this subject. The people in the central west have been more prominent in introducing farm separators. According to the Iowa Dairy Commissioners report of 1928, there were then only 304 farm separators in use. This proves that the dairy business is still gaining, and the introduction of hand separators is still on the increase.

Under the present manner of carrying on the hand separator system the quality of butter is much poorer than that made from the whole milk. This is not due to the system, but to the poor care which the separator and the cream receive. The separator is often located in an unsuitable place, such as the barn. If milk is separated in such a place it will absorb odors and undesirable taints. The cream is seldom taken care of, the separator is not washed, barely flushed with a little cold water instead of being taken apart and washed and then scalded. Under these conditions it is a hard proposition to make good butter.

The first step in the production of good cream is clean milking. This can only be accomplished where barns, cows and utensils are clean. If these conditions are complied with, and the separator is kept in a clean condition the cream is properly taken care of, the hand separator system will be as good as the whole milk system. It is often considered, and in many instances practiced, when the milk is separated, the cream is taken and poured into the jar from time to time without cooling the warm cream, and without even stirring and mixing the cream after it is poured together. This causes the cream to ripen irregular and collect unpleasant flavors. The cream should be cooled to fresh water temperature, then poured into your jar and mixed thoroughly, at least twice per day, cream kept as cool as possible until delivered to the creamery.

There are two ways of disposing of cream on the farm, selling it to the creamery or other parties, and making it into butter on the farm. The former method is the most advantageous, as creameries are better equipped to control the quality of butter. Paying for quality I believe will be a good system to improve the quality of cream. There should be at least three cents per pound difference between the two grades.—O. D. Hawn.

PASSING OF A GOOD WOMAN

Funeral of Mrs. Griffin Was Held at Wingate Tuesday by Her Pastor.

Wingate, Aug. 9.—We are glad that cooler weather has come our way. The hot weather of last week was about beyond endurance, but now, since showers have begun to fall and the breeze is fine, we are getting on nicely. To Him be the praise.

The protracted meetings at Faulks and Austin's Grove are very fine. Twelve have joined at Faulks and four at Austin's Grove. The interest grows from service to service, and we are sure that many more will join at both places. Large crowds are attending the services and the preaching seems to be enjoyed by all. We hope that this means the beginning of the revival spirit in our county. We need it so much.

Mr. Bayard May and wife are spending the week with Mr. Ellis May. Mrs. May is not well. She has been in declining health for some time. She is going to spend a few weeks at Wingate and Marshville so that she may rest and take treatment from our doctors. Bayard returns to Radin the last of the week.

Mr. W. P. Griffin is clerking for the J. L. Austin Co. We are glad he is in there. He will make a good salesman.

Mr. Mumford Trull of Columbia is visiting in Union county this week. He spent Monday night with his cousin, Mr. Wesley Austin. He will visit other places while here. He has been away from Union county for twenty-seven years.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin, one of Wingate's most honored women, passed away last Monday evening at nine o'clock. She had been lingering for more than six months. Her death was not a surprise at all. She was first stricken nearly two years ago, but got able to be about some, but a little over six months ago she had a second stroke which rendered her entirely helpless. Since that time she has gradually weakened until the end came. All that kind hands could do was done for her. She had a trained nurse for many weeks, and all the medical attention one could expect, but to no avail. The time had come for her to take her departure. She was one of the best women we ever knew. She leaves a host of friends but not an enemy. She had what she could while living and her advice and prayers will live on to bless and encourage her friends for years to come. She leaves a husband, one daughter, one brother, J. W. Bivens, one sister, Mrs. Martha Trull, six grandchildren, and one great grand child to sorrow for her.

Mrs. Griffin was sixty-nine years old last July. She was born in Union county and spent her days here. She died near where she was raised, so she died among her friends. She was married to E. W. Griffin fifty-two years ago. To this union God added five children. Two of these died in infancy, and three lived to be grown. These are Mrs. W. J. Perry, who died at Chesterfield about eleven years ago, Bright Griffin who died some years since, and Mrs. J. L. Chaney who lives at the old home with her father. Brother Chaney and his wife have made their home with Brother Griffin for many years.

Mrs. Griffin raised two grandchildren, the sons of Bright Griffin by his first wife. These boys are grown now. They both are working at Radin. Boyce is married but Frank is still single.

Mrs. Griffin professed faith in Christ fifty-two years ago and joined Meadow Branch church where she remained a member until the day of her death. She was baptized by Uncle Lemuel Bennette. All of these fifty-two years were years of service in the Master's vineyard. She loved her church, she loved the brethren and sisters, and the very spot of ground where the old church stands. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor at Meadow Branch Tuesday evening. An exceedingly large crowd attended the funeral. Nearly every section of the county was represented at the funeral. She had many relatives and more friends. They came out of respect to her memory, and to sympathize with Brother Griffin. Her remains were laid to rest in the Wingate cemetery nearest town. Thus ends one of the noblest lives that

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weak, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time..."

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Cardui about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles... After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74 ever lived in Union county. Just two more of her father's family remain, J. W. Bivens of Wingate and Mrs. Martha Trull who lives about three miles north of here.

In the death of Mrs. Griffin the home has lost a noble wife and mother, the community a great friend and sympathizer, the church one of its most loyal members. May the peace of God which passeth all understanding comfort and console the bereaved husband and family.

Miss Edna Long whose serious illness we mentioned in our Tuesday's letter, died at one o'clock Wednesday morning. She had been sick for about twenty-four or five days. She was eighteen years old. Her remains were buried at the Trull graveyard Wednesday evening at three o'clock. She was a daughter of Mr. Julius Long. The family has our sympathy.

Houston Pressley went back to the training camp today. How sad it is to give up our boys, and yet it seems that we must do this, or lose national pride. We are sorry that some are trying to discourage the boys about drafting. Why, this is one of the fairest things we have ever seen. The rich and the poor fair alike. The white and the black have to do their bit. It looks hard, but we must not say that Wilson caused it. He did what he could to keep us out of it. He was cursed and ridiculed for not taking the matter up sooner, now that he has they want to abuse him for that. There is a GREAT GOD behind this war. He is the only one that can stop it. It has come our way because we have forgotten him. When we humble ourselves, he will stop it and not before. Please read II Chron. 7:14. Does not this scripture still hold good? Humble yourselves and our boys will not have to go to war.

Squire Helms told us last Tuesday that the chain gang would soon be at work on our streets again. We are glad of this. We have as pretty little town as can be found in the State. If we would just do as well as we look we would never have another sign, but all would be well. Wish people could remember that "Pretty is as pretty does."

Mrs. D. B. Snyder is going to be with the ladies in their missionary meeting Saturday afternoon. Let every lady in the Meadow Branch congregation make ready to remain over after services to hear Mrs. Snyder. She has a great treat for you.

Miss Ellie Bivens is spending the week with Mr. Settle Haigler in Monroe.—"Glenalpine."

Wade is Now Relieved.

(From the Statesville Landmark.)

As was to have been expected, Editor Harris, who waited in fear and trembling for August 4th, the day Seer Edwards of New Jersey said the end of the world was to begin, seeing things apparently normal after the dread day had passed, is now in fine spirits and says he didn't believe it anyhow. Better not shout too soon, colonel. The world may have begun crumbling on the outer edges on the 4th and the disturbance may not have reached Charlotte. Moreover, September 16th is the day when the saints and children are to be "caught up." Better continue a season of prayer and fasting until after September 16th.

Life Insurance is the flower of love surviving the frost of death.

FOUR WEIGHTY REASONS FOR LIFE INSURANCE.

- FIRST—Statistics tell us that only two men in one hundred succeed in business.
- SECOND—That only one man in thirty has sufficient for old age.
- THIRD—That in the settlement of valuable estates scarcely one per cent reaches or maintains the valuation of the Testator.
- FOURTH—That the number of contested wills is very large.

IF YOU could pay the cost of a life policy and neglected to do so, it's a mean thing for you to go up to Heaven, while your family go to the poor-house. You, at death, move into a mansion, river front, and they move into two rooms on the fourth story back of a tenement house. When they are out at the elbows and knees, the thought of your splendid robe in Heaven will not keep them warm. The minister may preach a splendid sermon over your remains and the quartette may sing like four angels in the organ loft, but your death will be a swindle.

Perfect Protection.

The Philadelphia Life Insurance Company has just issued a new policy embracing premium waiver and life annuity in case of total disability. To illustrate: If you become disabled while the policy is in force, all future premiums shall waive and the monthly annuity of $8.33 per thousand will be paid for life. This is one of the most attractive policies on the market, and the rates are reasonable.
