WARAW TO HAVE NEW SCHOOL BUILDING—TEACHERS ELECTED

Mr. C. S. Massey elected President of Waxhaw Banking and Trust Co. Succeeding Mr. Rodman.

(From The Waxhaw Enterprise)

Messrs. J. M. Beik, R. A. Morrow and J. C. Sikes of Monroe were here Monday attending the directors' meeting of Waxhaw Banking and Trust Company.

Mrs. R. N. Nisbet of Monroe spent a day or two last week with her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Nisbet. She was accompanied home by her granddaughter, little Pauline Nisbet, for a visit of several days.

The darkies were here on the Fourth for the big barbecue from Dan to Beesheba. Several Waxhaw white people made short talks to them and one of the professors of Biddle University made an address.

Miss Lola Rodman, who has been in the hospital at Chester where she underwent an operation for appendicitis about two weeks ago, returned home yesterday afternoon. Her recovery has been very satisfactory and she is still doing nicely after the trip home.

The bonds for Waxhaw school district for twenty thousand dollars voted last winter for building a new school house have been printed and received here. They are being sent forward this week for collection and the money will be deposited in bank until required for its proper purpose of building a school house.

The directors of Waxhaw Banking and Trust Company held a meeting Monday afternoon at which Mr. C. S. Massey was elected president, succeeding Mr. J. L. Rodman, deceased; Mr. B. F. Price was elected vice-president succeeding Mr. Massey, and Mr. J. L. Rodman, Jr., was elected to the board of directors.

Mrs. J. B. Godfrey and little daughter, Rachel, and Mrs. A. B. McManus went to Morganton last week to visit Mr. Godfrey who is in the state hospital there. Mr. Godfrey's condition is not improving. Mrs. S. E. Oates also went to visit her sister who lives at Morganton.

The Tirzah Bible Society will convene at Tirzah church on the last Saturday in this month, July 27th. The annual address will be delivered by Rev. J. E. Abernethy of Monroe. A good meeting is expected this year. The week following the Bible Society meeting is always "homecoming week" for the Tirzah community and is looked forward to from year to year as a social feast. Following this custom there will be a good deal of visiting in the Tirzah neighborhood that week.

The teachers for Waxhaw graded school for the coming term have been elected as follows: Mr. Jackson Hamilton of Pineville, superintendent; Miss Sallie Allen of Warrenton, assistant in high school; Miss Cora Belle Ballard of Alexis for the fifth and sixth grades; Mrs. Lottie Steele for third and fourth grades; Miss Mary VanLandingham of Heath Springs for first and second grades. The music teacher has not been selected yet. Mr. Hamilton, the new principal, is a teacher of some years experience. He taught the Farm Life school at Pineville for five years, and taught last year at Indian Trail. His family is now at Pineville. He expects to move to Waxhaw some time in August and school is scheduled to commence the first Monday in September.

Rev. E. E. Pressley, a well known A. R. P. minister and teacher, died last Thursday at his home in Statesville. He taught and preached in Lancaster county for many years. He was pastor of Unity, Shiloh and Gills Creek churches in Lancaster county. He was a Confederate veteran and was severely wounded in battle. Mr. Pressley was well known to many people throughout this section. He leaves his wife and several sons and daughters.

Miss Kathrine Shute entertained at her home on Windsor avenue Friday morning in honor of Miss Dorothy and Laura Holland of Danville, Va., who are visiting Miss Ruth Houston, and Miss Elizabeth Mullen of Lincolnville. The national colors were carried out appropriately. Rook was played at five tables. The tables had been planned so as to represent five branches of military service, the ordnance, artillery, cavalry, marine and infantry. A miniature American flag was presented to each guest as she scored in the game. Thrift stamps were offered as a prize and were awarded to Misses Beatrice Fairley, Rebecca Norwood and Elizabeth Hudson, who presented them to the guests of honor. The national colors were carried out even in the refreshments, which consisted of red, white and blue ice cream with cake. Those present were: The guests of honor, Misses Laura Holland, Dorothy Holland and Elizabeth Mullen, Misses Pat Ashcraft, Julia Fitzwater, Ruth Houston, Hannah Blair, Elizabeth Houston, Elizabeth Hudson, Rachel Howie, Beatrice Fairley, Lucile Britton of Salisbury, who is visiting Miss Fairley, Eleanor Gurney, Rachel Armfield, Rebecca Norwood, Nora Lee, Elizabeth Smith, Jennie Russell, Guerdan Stack and May Beasley.

Marriage of Miss Hill and Mr. Cranford. A simple home wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride when Miss Mamie Hill, the oldest daughter of Mr. J. C. Hill became the bride of Mr. James C. Cranford of York county, S. C. Rev. C. L. McCain, the bride's pastor, performed the ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few friends and relatives being present. These are well known young people. The groom is a man of excellent character. The bride is an attractive young lady. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Charlotte where they will remain a few days before going to their home.

Reply to Mrs. Chaney. Fearing that my ignoring the charges brought against me in "A Card From Mrs. T. J. Chaney" in Tuesday's Journal, and treating the matter with silence might be considered discourteous by Mrs. Chaney, I will say in reply that the accusation is false. Respectfully,
R. N. NISBET.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank the people of Monroe for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our daughter. We pray God's richest blessings on each and every one—Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Saleeby.

Ignatius and Yours Truly Have Taken a Fancy to Marshville. Correspondence of The Journal.

Stouts, July 11—Mr. Jennings Haywood, who is stationed at Fort Scriven, Ga., is at home on a thirty days furlough. He will help on the farm while here.

Miss Beulah Ritch spent last Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Conder.

Our friend and excellent farmer, Mr. W. C. Carnes, said the other day that if it did not hurry up and rain that he would have to buy some pianos and place over his cotton to keep the moisture in the ground. We can say, however, that he is not the only farmer in this section who planted "the late Flate Dutch" variety of cotton.

A number of young folks from this community took the teacher's examination in Monroe Tuesday.

Mr. J. P. Ritch spent last Sunday evening visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Yandle of North Monroe.

"Ignatius" and "Yours Truly" Forted to Marshville Sunday evening. They seem to have taken a rather strong fancy to this charming little town and some of the contents therein.

Mr. P. H. Ritch, after spending some time in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritch, on a visit, left for Sheffield, Ala., Sunday night where he has a position in a chemical plant.

Mr. J. T. Hargett and Mr. R. M. Conder were business visitors in Charlotte Saturday.

The quota of War Savings stamps allotted to Stouts school district still lacks a little of being subscribed. But the good work will not stop until it is subscribed. Our motto is "Buy 'em or bust."

If you want to help win the war just kill the DOGS. You thought we were going to say the Kaiser. But we will say the dogs first.—The Scout.
