Junior Red Cross Notes.
(Mrs. Walter Crowell, Executive Secretary.)

If our soldier boys are not kept warm this winter it will not be for lack of effort on the part of our Junior patriots. They are meeting at the Red Cross rooms every Monday at 4 o'clock. Many are spending part of these long summer days in piecing quilts. Only a few weeks ago they began this work and now they have eighteen finished quilts. Five have been sent in from Philadelphia by Misses Jennie Marsh, Loreca Taylor, Annie Autry, Alice Autry and Mary Helms. Mrs. J. V. Richardson sent one quilt from the Corinth auxiliary. Mrs. Chas. Shannon and her three children, Margaret, Jennie May, and Charles, have each given a quilt top. Squares for another quilt was made by Rebecca Norwood and Nora Lee. Also a top made by Chattie and Helen Cason.

The ladies who have kindly done the quilting for the Monroe Juniors are: Mesdames E. A. Arnfield, Ida Broom, Lige Worley, J. J. Moody, Vann Funderburk, John Neal, Mark Alexander, Henry Austin, W. J. Hudson, Lizzie Brewer, and Miss Nan Norwood.

The Red Cross has staunch friends in the cotton men of Monroe, Messrs. W. J. Hudson, J. E. Stack and Fairley Brothers have recently given 50 pounds of cotton to the Juniors for their quilting. Mr. Chas. Ieman has also generously donated 50 pounds for the same purpose.

This first shipment of quilts will go to Camp Wadsworth to be used in the hospital.

Mesdames R. Redfern, Chas. Ice-man, Julian Griffin, Vann Funderburk, Clegg Ashcraft have been piecing linings for the quilts, as the Red Cross believes in economy and in utilizing everything possible.

Hilda Simpson, Ellie Hudson, Harriet and Elizabeth Alexander have brought in tin foil.

The record at the Red Cross rooms for the past two weeks show the following little ladies present: Mary Patton, Sarah Hudson, Elizabeth Alexander, Harriet Alexander, Martha Adams, Ashe Lane, Cornelia Dillon, Francis Simpson, Elizabeth Simpson, Evelyn Lockhart, Ida Mills, Bessie Parker, Virginia Carroll, Rebecca Norwood, Nora Lee, Ellie Hudson, Hilda Simpson, Mary Norwood, Mary Watkins, Louise Middleton, Johnnie Belk, Fanny Rudge, Louise Stevens, Irene Presson, Walter Lane.

Unusual business now means resumption of business as usual later.
