SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to flush kidneys and neutralize irritating acids—Splendid for system.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite
Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The Boy Has Come Home.
(New York Times.)
The Boy has come home. And the door stands wide,
And the old house shakes to his hob-nailed stride,
And the old farm smiles from side to side,
For the Boy, back home at last—
Home from the broken homes of France,
From the ravaged fields of the Hun's advance,
The shattered woods o'er whose drear expanse
The short stumps stand aghast!

The Boy has come home—and he's "home to stay!"
And he'll never want to go way—
Not in "forever and a day"—
From the peace of the old home soil;
And the mother smiles, with a heart at rest,
Her cheeks to his khaki shoulder pressed,
And a glad heart in "Dad's" worn breast,
As he turns to his lightened toil

The Boy has come home, and his heart is here,
And he's keen for the tasks of the full farm year,
To sow, and mow, with a soul of cheer,
And bear the hard work's brunt;
But into his eyes a look will come,
Swift 'mid the workday's cheerful hum,
And his mother sees, and watches dumb—
She knows he's back at the front!

The Boy has come home and his heart's true blue,
But it holds, with the old, the marvelous new,
And his clear eyes sweep o'er a wider view
Than once was their utmost span;
And he thinks world-thoughts that a far he found—
He knows that the still old farm is bound
With every farm in the world's wide round—
Since the Boy came home—
A Man!
—Minnie Looma Upon.
