

Bill, the Builder

Hits the Nail on the Head When He Says—

"Tis CHEAPER to Build a Better Home Than to Waste Repairs on an Old One"

Constantly patching the old house is expensive. And what is worse, when the work is all done you still have the same old out-of-date house. But, put into a new home instead, that repair money would prove a better investment.

The Plans and the Material

We will gladly help you to plan the new home. Our experience may save you money right from the start.

And on material we can offer you inducements that would warrant your immediate consideration. Quality and prices are both to your advantage on dimension lumber, sheathing, siding, lath, flooring, shingles, roofing, building paper, etc.

Come in when you can and talk it over with us.

And Don't Forget the Brakes

That is very important, especially if you are "a speed king" and want to be sure and stop your car on the instant—when you must. Let us look over your brakes at regular intervals and make sure they can always be depended upon. Your clutch, steering gear and much used parts also need careful looking after.

A Word to the Wheat Farmer

Harvest time is now here and we want to urge the wheat farmer to use great care in the harvesting of his wheat. Don't harvest your wheat until it is thoroughly matured. Immature wheat makes a tough, sticky biscuit.

Shocking should be done carefully. Frequently great damage is done by wind and rain on account of the improper method of shocking, whereas if the shocks had been well built and properly capped little or no damage would have occurred.

When thoroughly cured house your wheat if possible. Thresh your wheat only when it is dry and do not allow your threshman to break it.

IF YOUR GRAIN SHOULD GET WET do not allow it to remain so, but immediately bring it to us and we will dry it for you at a minimum cost.

New Machinery Installed

We have installed some new machinery and have thoroughly gone over our plant in preparation for the new crop. Our drying machine is a dandy, so is our new Mixing Machine for making Self-Rising Flour. We invite you to come in and see them. Tell your friends about us, or better still, bring them along with you.

After the movement of the new crop our mill will be open day and night. There will be no war grade flour this year, so bring your wheat along and get good white flour on our guarantee that it will give you satisfaction.

Judge Carter on Child Beating.

(From Carter's Weekly.)

Within the memory of the present generation there was repealed the law permitting a man to beat his wife with a stick no thicker than his thumb. It is unlawful for a man to beat his wife. It is not unlawful for a man to chastise his children "reasonably." When a town ordinance is framed, it is a legal requirement that nothing be left to the adjudication of the court, recorder or magistrate, saving the matter of guilt or innocence, that the lower courts may not be always be ably judgmatial.

And yet we go on, perfectly willing for any man who is the father of children to beat on them when he considers it proper. The sovereign state takes no interest in whether he is fit to become the father of children; all he has to do is to find some woman who will marry him. And it takes no interest in whether the woman had any qualifications for a home maker; whether she knows how to cook and sew and care for babies. It doesn't even require of the man or the woman what it requires of hogs and horses and cattle. The State Veterinarian has power to regulate stock breeding. He sees to it that disease does not spread through the lower animals. But man may marry where he chooses, regarding only his own wishes, and with no consideration of the children who may come.

So it turns up occasionally, as in the county court this week, that a man has systematically, through the period of his married life, taken out on an innocent family a venomous spleen which would have long since got a dog shot for mad. The defendant, one Aikin, arrested on the technical charge of wife-beating, pale, cadaverous, half-blind, trembling and jerking, looks a fit subject for the insane asylum. It seems that his eleven-year-old son had stolen somebody's kodak. The father, who has a proved consistent record of cruelty and viciousness, undertook to teach him the eighth commandment with the aid of a switch three feet long, forked, and a half-inch thick at the base. His mother, plucky and small, interfered. Today she bears on one side of her body great, seared welts. Her small daughter ran in to save her mother, and she got the worst licking of them all. The man was sentenced to three months on the roads; the case was appealed; he is out on a bond of $250; out; free; enraged; and in a vicious mental state which it were charitable to call crazy.

How long will a country that calls itself Christian, that is today making a fetish of the letter of the Christian law, that does obeisance to the word of Christ as interpreted by the Apostle Paul, allow little children to be tortured in the name of the law? Can't anybody take time to recall that Christ himself said about "offending the least of these, my little ones?" What is the use of bedeviling the cotton mills about child labor so long as any dyspeptic parent may take a stick to ease his feelings on the back of his child.

The right and honest definition of business is mutual and helpfulness.

FURNITURE THAT WILL

OUTLIVE YOU

FURNITURE — FURNITURE — FURNITURE

Not the cheapest, but as good as the best. We do not desire to be known as the cheapest store on earth. Our goods are what we claim them to be—worth the price—and our prices are extremely moderate when quality is considered. You can get goods cheaper than we care to sell, for we do not care to handle the ordinary cheap glue pot variety of furniture; but no reliable store in any other city can offer you better values than we do, and our service is good—ask your next door neighbor about it, and about us. Come and see us. Remember it is our business to please you.
