

GOOD GRADE FRUIT CAKE

The very best Fruit Cake for only 60 cents a pound.

We are very fortunate in getting the finest line of Candies, Nuts, and Fruits for the Christmas trade. We call Special Attention to our Fancy Box Chocolates, Indian River Oranges, Tangerines and Fancy wrapped Apples in Boxes.

Vann Funderburk

One Price Cash Grocer—5 Minutes Delivery.

Sold Car Load of FURNITURE AT AUCTION

On Friday, December 19, beginning at ten o'clock, we will offer $2,000 worth of new furniture at auction to the highest bidders.

This car consists of the following pieces of furniture:

- Bed Room Suits,
- Kitchen Cabinets
- Mattresses
- Bed Springs
- Dressers,
- Bureaus
- Rockers
- Straight Chairs
- Iron Beds, Single and Double,
- Wash Stands
- Other Articles too Numerous to Mention.

Everything New—No Second Hand Pieces—To Go at Your Own Price.

Your Opportunity to Buy the Right Christmas Present.

SALE TAKES PLACE AT OUR SHOW ROOMS

REMEMBER THE PLACE AND DATE

Judge Rogers Will be the Auctioneer.

Indian Trail Furniture Co.

THOMPSON & STARNES, Proprietors.

INDIAN TRAIL, N. C.

Mrs. Burkhardt, Miss Reba Hill, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Owenby and Dr. J. B. Dalton present. There were no attendants, and the bride wore a smart costume of dark blue satin and seal fur, with a hat of the same shade. Mrs. Hunter, who is a senior nurse at Grace Hospital here, is a graduate of St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., and also attended the national Cathedral School at Washington. She also trained for two years at Mercy Hospital, in Baltimore. Dr. Hunter is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, as well as the University of Maryland. He is a lieutenant in the United States Navy, and is now stationed on the receiving ship at the Brooklyn navy-yard, New York. He is a son of the late Smiley Hunter of Matthews, N. C. The bride is a daughter of Charles S. Pearce, vice-president of the Kanawha Log and Tie Company of Parkersburg, W. Va., and is a grand-daughter of Mrs. A. Pearce who now owns the old home of General Lindsay Walker, "Clover Forest," at Pemberton. Dr. and Mrs. Hunter will spend their honeymoon in Washington and Baltimore, going later to New York, where they will make their home for the present.

Miss Mande Sikes, teacher in the McColl high school, will arrive home Friday.

Miss Eleanor Beasley will arrive Thursday night from Bristol, Va., where she is a student at Sullins College, and will spend the holidays at home.

Clayton Helms, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Helms of Vance township, while running last Saturday afternoon fell and suffered a broken arm.

Cut Flowers

Floral designs, wedding bouquets, and flowers of all kinds.

Prices reasonable.

We make shipments to Waxhaw, Marshville, Wingate and other nearby towns.

CODE MORGAN

At Union Drug Co. Phone 221.

DO YOUR Xmas Shopping Now

All the Christmas Novelties are now in and it is natural that the plums will go first. Be on hand for the best that's going. The values may be in the leavings, but beauty with value is more desirable.

MERCHANDISE SUITABLE FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

BATH ROBES

Ladies and Children's Robes $5.00 to $7.50
Men's Bath or Lounging Robes $6.00 to $10.00

HOUSE SLIPPERS

Daniel Green's line of Felt Slippers. Superior material go into the make-up of this line of house slippers. For men, women and children, assorted colors. Ladies' Kid Boudair Slippers, assorted colors. Men's Kid House Slippers.

UMBRELLAS

Ladies and Gents' Umbrellas, assortment. Mission-Ring and Cord Loop Handles.

LADIES' LEATHER HANDBAGS

In the new shapes, made of real leather, that will wear like real friendship.

HOSIERY

Silk and Cotton Hosiery—for the whole family—Black Cat, Whiteleather, Interwoven and Show Ket Brands. You will find the very best values in each of these lines at their respective prices.

HANDKERCHIEFS

Linens, Silk Crepe-de-Chine, and Fine Imported Cotton Novelties—all moderately priced.

GLOVES

Ladies' Kid, Silks, and Chamoisuede. Men's Dress Gloves, Auto Gloves and Work Gloves.

GENTS' NECKWEAR

Cheney Brothers' Silks, made in the new open-end and tubler shape.

Lee & Lee Co.

SOCIAL

Miss Ouida McEae arrived home last week from Atlanta where she spent several months with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Miller.

Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrett request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Willie McDonald, to Mr. J. A. Holmes, on Tuesday evening, the 23rd of Dec., at 8 o'clock, Presbyterian church, Matthews, N. C. Miss Barrett has many friends and relatives in Monroe, having visited Misses Hattie Beasley and Janie Sanders. Miss Beasley will attend the wedding. Mr. Holmes is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and resigned as superintendent of the Greensboro schools when he entered service of Uncle Sam. Since his return he has been athletic director and professor of mathematics in the Raleigh high school.

The Brenau college girls, Misses Bob Ieeman, Dorothy Lee, Elizabeth and Ruth Houston, will arrive Thursday for the Christmas holidays. A news item from Gainesville states that Miss Ieeman appeared on the program of a recent recital given by the Brenau conservatory students. We quote the following: "Her selections, 'Gray Days,' by Johnson, and 'Birth of Morn,' by Leon, were rendered in a very artistic and pleasing manner.

Miss Ieeman has a voice of unusual charm, and under the direction of her teacher, Mr. Waller Whitlock, she is making excellent progress."

The many friends of Mr. T. B. Laney, who has been ill for a long time, are glad to know that he is able to be out again.

Mrs. C. B. Adams was hostess to the Chautauqua Circle last Friday afternoon. A most enjoyable and instructive meeting was held, the Expansion of the United States being the topic for discussion. Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Adams, assisted by her daughter, Miss Martha Adams.

Miss Lois Medlin, a student at the Normal and Industrial School of Salisbury, arrived home Saturday for a three weeks' holiday.

Misses Guerard Stack, Lucy Wray, Elizabeth Brewer and May Beasley arrive home Thursday night from Coker College to spend the holidays. Misses Esther Suttle and Ruth Moore, also Coker students, will spend Wednesday night here en route to their home in Shelby.

Miss Marietta Cain has returned from a business trip to Newton where she has purchased another "movie" theatre.

A Rocky Mount paper had the following social item Friday:—"One of the most charming social events of which Mrs. Clarence Daughtridge, nee Miss Hallie Mae Belk, of Monroe, has been the recipient of a tea given by Miss Annie Mae Odom Thursday afternoon from 4:15 to 5:30 o'clock at her home on Church street. The lovely home was decorated throughout with Killarney roses and pink and white carnations."

Mr. D. Sumter Moore of Chicota, Texas, is the guest of his brother, Rev. John W. Moore. The brothers had not seen each other before in twenty-five years.

Miss Bonnie Hasty, a former Monroe girl, became the bride of Mr. Roland Sheppard December 5, the marriage taking place in Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Sheppard moved to Sanford after the death of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hasty, and has since made her home with her uncle, Dr. W. A. Monroe. She is an attractive and cultured young woman, receiving her education at Peace Institute. For more than a year she has been in government service in Norfolk. The groom is a native of Lee county and holds a responsible position in Akron, Ohio, where they will make their home. Mrs. Sheppard is a sister of Mr. Herridon Hasty, and a niece of Mr. J. A. Stewart.

Mr. Charles Fowler will return home Thursday night from Bailey Military Institute, Greenwood, S. C.

Mr. C. E. Medlin leaves Thursday for Montgomery, Alabama, on a business trip.

Editor John Beasley is in Washington this week attending a meeting of the American Legion State Chairmen. Soldier legislation is being discussed with the directors of the War Risk Bureau. Mrs. Beasley accompanied him.

A notice of the marriage of Dr. D. Talmage Hunter to Miss Margaret Pearce of Parkersburg, W. Va., was carried in Friday's issue of this paper. The following clipping from the Richmond Times-Dispatch giving the details of the wedding will be of interest to the friends and relatives of Dr. Hunter: "A pretty wedding, although quietly celebrated, took place yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Teresa Margaret Pearce of Parkersburg, W. Va., became the bride of Dr. D. Talmage Hunter of New York. The ceremony took place at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. H. Burkhardt, rector of Grace Episcopal church, with only

AMERICAN TOYS

The pennies spent on little toys
For Uncle Sam's own girls and boys
In turn, of course, go back again
To our own loyal working men
American—the Workman's Hand
American—'twas Built and Planned
American—in Spirit, too
America's Toy Gift to YOU
We have a few toys
For Uncle Sammel's
Girls and Boys.

Crowell's Variety Store,
South Main Street.

The best to be had is found here. --- Lee Griffin.
Wanted to buy some nice turnip greens and all kinds of country produce.