THE MONROE JOURNAL

PUBLISHED TWICE EACH WEEK - TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

VOL. 26. No. 7.

MONROE, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1920.

$1.50 PER YEAR CASH.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE Latest Happenings In and Around Monroe.

Mr. Walter Robertson, who ha been very ill with pneumonia, is able to be out.

Mr. R. F. Price has fitted up offices in the old Crowell building on Frank-

Rev. A. C. Sherwood will preach at Macedonia Saturday afternoon at two of land in Marshville township, consting of twenty-two acres, to Mr. B. F. Griffin for $1600.

The moving picture shows opened yesterday. Mr. R. S. Spencer states that the Strand will be disinfected daily and will be well ventilated.

The Union County Farmers' Union will meet in regular session at Wax-haw Saturday, March 6, 1920, at 10 Miss Velma Lathan, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lathan, has a po-sition as stenographer with Stack, Parker & Craig. Sunday was a cold night, the thermometer at the government weather station at Rock Rest having registered 20 degrees above zero. All Royal Arch Masons are requested to meet promptly at seven o'clock this evening for the purpose of conferring the Royal Arch degree. The Philathea class of Central Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Inn Funderburk this evening at sevthirty o'clock.

Major W. C. Heath is being urged by his friends to announce for the legislature in the approaching pri-

Mrs. I. N. Aycock and daughter lost heir minds as a result of influenza. Mrs. Aycock was carried to the hospital at Morganton yesterday, while her daughter seems somewhat improved.

Mr. Thurman McRae, accompanied

Heath Springs, S. C. Mr. Shehane ert Howie of Sandy Ridge township. states that the flu situation is not as bad in and around Heath Springs as it is in Union county, yet there are several cases in a mild form.

Mr. W. O. Enniss and Miss Amy Hill were married last Wednesday night at eight o'clock at Indian Trail The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill of Stouts. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Enniss of Pleasant Plains, Mecklenburg county. Esq. J. M. Harkey performed the ceremony.

W. H. Cox, a Laurinburg lawyer, i candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district. Union county Republicans have been urging Mr. W. B. Love to make the race, but it is understood that he is inclined to devote all of his time to his law practice and keep out of poli-tics for the present. He is undoubtedly the best man his party could put Journal readers, if they want to enjoy a real treat, are urged to read Observer's"comment on a .visit to Washington, which appears on another page. He tells about the first trip Governor Bickett and Stephen McIntyre, both natives of this county, made to Washington. one of The Journal's regular contributors, and many interesting arti-cles will appear from his pen in the future.

Mr. W. R. Keyes, the government inspector who has been working on the famous Savage case, was in Montoday consulting with Mayor J. C. Sikes, who has been retained by a number of mills and cotton merchants to assist in the prosecution. The case will be heard in take Alabama Federeal court in a few weeks, and a number of local men will go to Anniston to testify against the Savage little success, it is said. Monroe peo-brothers. Mr. Keyes has been a gov- ple appear to believe the United States ernment inspector for more than 20 years and has been identified with many big fraud cases, the Knight-country has nothing to do with the Yancy case, Decatur, Ala., being one liquor traffic in foreign countries. approximately $5,000,000. totalling Formerly he was a newspaper man in East Tennessee and prior to that time was principal of a leading educational institution of that section, in which numbers of western North Car-Mr. Keyes met a number of Monroe in this county. Many were sold to men, and they were so impressed with him that they tried to induce him to South Carolinlans and adjoining country to make his home. Mr. Keyes met a number of Monroe come her to make his home,

ALL MONROE STREETS ARE TO BE ASPHALTED SOON.

Aldermen Employ Engineers to Begin Making Preliminary Survey-Sewerage Lines Also to Be Extended.

The city aldermen decided at their monthly meeting last night to asphalt every street of consequence in Mon-roe. Messrs. Kluttz & Smith, engi-neers of Concord, were employed on the spot to suervise construction work, and they will begin making Macedonia Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. J. C. Brooks, prosecuting attorney, says he will be a candidate for re-election. He is now serving on his first time.

Mr. M. C. Holmes has sold a tract of land in Mr. Mr. Supply towards a sold a tract of land in Mr. Mr. Supply towards a sold a tract of land in Mr. Mr. Supply towards a sold a tract of land in Mr. Mr. Supply towards a sold a tract of land in Mr. Mr. Supply towards a supply toward not be started until after July 1, when increased property assessment goes into effect. The city is now-bonded to the limit or its indebtedness, and no funds are available until Gov. Bickett's revaluation act becomes a > Messrs. Kluttz and Smith are engineers of ability, possessing an envi-able reputation. They have completed contracts at Concord, Mt. Holly, Kannapolis, York, S. C., and other places. Mr. Kluttz served in an engineer regiment in the Spanish-American war under Gen. Fitzhuh Lee. He made an effort to secure a comimission in the late war, but was rejected for physical disability along with Mr. J. L. Everette, and hundreds of other North Carolinians. Mr. Smith, the junior member of the firm, was a Captain in the A. E. F.

>
> home a few days ago to see their mother, Mrs. A. J. Brooks, who has been quite sick.
>
> We see that the political pot is beginning to boil in this county, and we are proud that we live in Union county, for we think she is going to furnish the next governor as well as a congressman. Hurrah for Parker and Vann!
>
> Say, Mr. Civil Engineers, and Mr. Say, Mr. Civil Engineers, and M napolis, York, S. C., and other places.

cise patience in the matter of secur-ing street work. The aldermen are proceeding under a difficult method, and it will take time to asphalt the entire town. Mayor Sikes, however, assures The Journal that every real residential street in the town will be

Death of Mrs. S. G. Howie.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Nancy Catherine Howle were conducted Sunday afternoon at the McWhorter cemetery near Wesley Chapel by Rev. R. J. McIlwaine. Mrs. The influenza situation having improved, Rev. Charles H. Martin will Sanford G. Howie, died at her home preach at Sardis next Sunday at 11 in Sandy Ridge township Saturday morning after a short illness due to influenze the same of the influenza-pneumonia. She died in the house in which she was born 79 years

Mr. Thurman McRae, accompanied by a friend, stopped over in Monroe She will be greatly missed in her community where she was loved by old and young alike. Her cheerful disposition, good sense and knowledge of nursing caused her services to be in great demand in the time of sicknown of the work interferging with his farming operations. His successor will be appointed at an early date by the county commissioners.

was about forty years old. Her hus-Mrs. Julia Warwick of Laurinbur, band and five small children survive. Messrs. Henry B. Howie of Anniston. Rev. and Mrs. Y. T. Shehane and Ala., S. T. Howie of Ohio, J. E. Howie Henry Redwine, Sandy Ridge; Joe H.

> GET THE MONEY FROM THE WOMEN," ADVISES WORKER.

Don't Wait Until the Old Man Comes Home. He'll Give You Hell," Older Prohibition Worker Tells Younger Companion.-Monroe People Appear to be Uninterested in their Propaganda.

"Get the money from the women" s the evident motto of prohibition workers, who are canvassing this day of the present week, and some state for fund for the law enforce-interest has been aroused in the State ment league, the heir of the old antisaloon league, according to a promi-nent citizen who overheard a pair of them discussing ways and means of extracting dollars from Union county folks at the Hotel Joffre last night. One of the men, very aged in appearance, was instructing his companian, a young man who had the appearance of just starting in life.

"Go into the homes, and see the women. this Monroe man. "Tell them a cussed to any extent in the press are story about some lad who met those of Mr. J. J. Parker, of Monroe, a horrible death from the effects of and Mr. Jas. H. Williamson, of Burthe money before the old man comes of whom has a large following. The adapted from Sir James M. Barrie's ears to their appeals. Small town and what a North Carolina Republican value. One toilet set alone cost five rural people are more easily moved. Convention is going to do until it hundred dollars, and the gorgeous they agreed.

The two prohibitionists have been working in Monroe for the past two or three days. They have met with the prohibition laws, and that this

Sixty coffins were sold by T. P. Dillon & Sons during February. There are several other dealers in the county besides this firm, and the total to decide the winner. The query is: number of coffins and caskets may "Resolved, That the United States olina boys received their instruction. this many deaths, however, occurred such As the Condition of Roads in His Section, the Political Pot, Etc. Will Come Again if Aunt Melinda Doesn't Get After Him Too Hot.

JUSTICE DISCUSSES THE FLU AND MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mouroe Route 3, March 1.-The "flu" in this section is rapidly improving. We hope the schools will soon reopen, for the "flu" has almost put them out of business for the last two Road Commissioner, we would like and one perfectly good governor al-for you to come down in our commu-ready in office. It is a little unusual nity just as soon as the roads get so you can travel over them. But don't come now. If you do you can't get away, for we have no bridges, and tell that town has so much eligible maus what to do, for we can hardly get to market, to church and to visit the sick. If you can't get here in a Ford, or in a buggy, come on foot, and let's together which is supposed to land talk the matter over and look at the things, and then sit back and enjoy bad places and see if we can't patch up a little so we can pass over till licans could not have made a better "laying-by time." Now, this is not meant for criticism, only to call your credit upon his town, county and the home paper; service flags with an unusual number of Stars; accounts of the home's war work—purchase of bonds, war savings stamps, etc. and a history of the war garden; poetry, addresses, sermons and articles on the war. attention to the condition of the roads in this section of the county.

I will stop, and if this doesn't find the waste basket, and Aunt Melinda doesn't get after me too hot, I will come again .- Justice.

Jurors for March Court.

The county commissioners, in session yesterday, drew the following jurors for the March term of civil court, which convenes here March 27nd:

J. Call Williams, Goose Creek; J. E. Thomas, Marshville; W. F. Fun-derburk, Lanes Creek; D. F. Short, 'H. G. Nash & Co., have begun putting down brick for the new building on their lot east of the courthouse. The new structure will be 30 x 100 feet, and work will be commenced at once.

Funeral services were held last week at Sandy Ridge church over the week at Sandy Ridge church over the died twelve years ago. Mrs. Howie is survived by the following children; died tast Sunday of pneumonia. She was about forty years old. Her hus.

odist church and attended its services derburk, Lanes Creek; D. F. Short, Sandy Ridge; S. A. Crane, Sandy Ridge; S. A. Crane, Sandy Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; H. C. Boyce, Monroe; M. L. Newell, Buford; H. T. McCain, Jackson; Rufus T. Cox, Buford; T. A. Marsh, Marshville; W. L. Craig, Sandy Ridge; S. A. Crane, Sandy Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; H. C. Boyce, Monroe; M. L. Newell, Buford; H. T. McCain, Jackson; Mr. Bob Garland of Jefferson, S. Rufus T. Cox, Buford; T. A. Marsh, Marshville; W. L. Craig, Sandy Ridge; S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned to Charlotte and resumed work for Rufus T. Cox, Buford; T. A. Marsh, Marshville; W. L. Craig, Sandy Ridge; S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Cox, Buford; H. C. Boyce, Monroe; Mr. Lee, Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Cox, Buford; H. C. Boyce, Monroe; Mr. Lee, Mr. Spencer Harrell has returned Ridge, S. Lee Traywick, Marshville; Mr. Cox, Buford; H. C. Boyce, Monroe; S. S. Person, Mr. Bob Garland of Jefferson, S. Rufus T. Co frey, Jackson; J. R. Crowell, Vance; Rev. and Mrs. Y. T. Shehane and of Portsmouth R. H. and J. N. Howie Broom, Sandy Ridge; W. L. Tucker, son, Claud, of Wingate, bave returned for Comberland, Md. W. D. and Robed Home from a visit to relatives in or Howie of Sandy Ridge township.

J. B. Nance, New Salem; T. B. Carpenter, New Salem; Rowland C. Hann, Monroe; J. Marshall Mullis, of influenza. Goose Creek; A. R. Deese, Monroe, Mr. and B. C. Hinson, Marshville; R. F. Kindby, Vance: G. C. Gardner, Marshville; S. D. Hough, Buford; E. E. Smith, Lanes Creek; H. A. Austin, Sandy Ridge; and T. W. Tadlock,

The Republican Convention.

(From The Charlotte Observer.) The Republican State Convention is to be held at Greensboro Wednesinterest has been aroused in the State over the probable outcome for nomination for Governor. That is the big business the gathering will have in hand. That Pritchard will have endorsement for President is a foregone indication. For some time i appeared that the Republicans would rely upon Old Guard material for the gubernatorial nomination, and place Mr. Britt on the ticket, but Britt could not see his way clear to an ac-"he advised, according to ceptance. The only names since diswhich Cecil B. De Mille has a corror man. "Tell them a cussed to any extent in the press are as a motion picture director. demon rum. But, by all means, get lington, both excellent men, and each Monroe Journal is making clafm that famous play, "The Admirable Crichits countryman "is almost certain" and will be on view at the Strand Small towns and rural communities are the best friends for getting funds for the world phohibition and law enforcement league, the older man told his companion, said the gentlemen who overheard their conserva- the Republican leaders have not been bought. Properties used in his latest tion. City folks, as a rule, turn their advertised abroad. No one can know picture total thousands of dollars in has done it.

Marshville, Unionvide, Monroe and the cast, are worth a handsome price Wesley Chapel will participate in the The story of Crichton, the butler statewide joint debate and will con- in the family of English nobles who e appear to believe the United States test for the state championship and was wrecked with his master's yacht-overnment is capable of enforcing the Aycock memorial cup early in ing party at sea and became their be prohibition laws, and that this April. Marshville, Unionville and leader, has long delighted thousands. country has nothing to do with the liquor traffic in foreign countries. Wesley Chapel will debate against Under the master hand of Cecil De each other, while Monroe will debate Mille is is a screen masterpiece. Thomas Meighan plays the leading schools that win both the affirmative role, and Theodore Roberts, Raymond and negative sides of the question will Hatton and Guy Oliver are included go to Chapel Hill for the final contest should adopt a policy of further material restriction of immigration."

> Rev. E. C. Snyder will fill his regular appointments next Sunday.

CORRESPONDENT ENDORSES MR. PARKER'S CANDIDACY

Thinks the Monroe Man Was Good Choice - Marshville Recovering From Epidemic But School Not Yet

Marshville, March 1 .- It is with a feeling of infinite ruling that we greet the first day of the first month of Spring. The past month, while the shortest of the twelve in matter of years, and if this continues a few more years education will be on the decline. We hope the county and state authorities will allow us to use our money next summer.

Shortest of the twelve in matter days, managed to achieve an unheard of length of time in every other respect due to the sickness and general distress throughout the country. The past February will be remembered with severy by many in this March is here, and many of our farmers are making ready for the 1920 crop. A good many have already bought their fertilizers.

Mr. Baxter Griffin, who has been employed in Charlotte for some time, is at home with the "flu."

Mr. Edgar McBride, who is taking a husiness course at King's husiness course at Mr. Edgar McBride, who is taking a business course at King's business college, Charlotte, was at home a few days ago on a visit.

Drs. J. C. and W. B. Brooks of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mr. Wayne Brooks of Camden, N. J., were all at home a few days ago to see their mother, Mrs. A. J. Brooks, who has been quite sick.

We see that the political pot is beginning to boil in this county, and we like highest their marmony, the birds their harmony, the woods their green freshness—in short all nature will be doing her utmost to repair, through her various resources, the damage done to humanity, by disease, and offer sweet consolation to be anticipation of the freedom it brings ginning to boil in this county, and we lit is not hard to remember that in

o say the least for two gubernatorial candidates to spring from the same town in such a short length of time, credit upon his town, county and party in the race, whether he wins he victory or not.

It was a satisfaction to learn that chool will not open for another week. We are very nearly around with flu but there are a few scattered cases and an occasional, new one which makes it still unsafe for crowds to gather.

A certain prominent store here running a sale this week which, flu or no flu is proving an overwhelm-ing attraction to the ladies. It takes omething stronger than flu to down the bargain hunting instinct in a true woman especially in these days of first of the week for South Carolina where he has been at work apprais ing land for the Federal Land Bank of Columbia. Mr. Covington spent last week here nursing his son-in-law Mr. J. S. Harrell, through an attack

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hearon will move into Mr. C. L. Bowman's house as soon as Mrs. Hearon has recovered from influenza. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Griffin will then move into the Hearon bungalow which they recently

Miss Emma Biggers of Mecklen burg is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards.

Mr. Frank Marsh from his second attack of influenza this winter having had the first one in the fall. Doubtless Mr. Marsh is hoping history will not continue to repeat itself .-- Mrs. J. S. H.

CECIL B. DE MILLE'S NEW PIC-TURE IS A MARVEL OF REALISM 'Male and Female" Produced on

Genuiness and absolute realism are two factors in the enormous success which Cecil B. De Mille has attained qualities are present in "Male and Fe male," Mr. De Mille's latest Paramount-Arteraft picture, which was gowns worn by Gloria Swanson, Lila Lee, and Bebe Daniels, who are in in the cast. Recorder W. O. Lemmond was must know the writer. brown from an automobile last Friday night. The driver lost control of the machine and it

Most Lavish Scale.

MRS. J. E. ASHCRAFT TO COLLECT WAR RECORDS

All Documents of Interest in Union County Are to Be Collected And Sent to Raleigh.

Mrs. J. E. Ashcraft has been appointed collector of war records for Charlotte May 20.

Union county by the State Historical Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn has an Commission, and she will begin securing war photographs, diaries, let-ters, and relics to be filed in the State Museum. Union county people, esassist in this important work.

Records especially desired are enounerated in the following statement from Mrs. Ashcraft:

Constitution president.

Easter Sunday, April 4, has been set aside by all denominations over the United States as "Go to church Sunday."

Our county is urged to take definite steps in the collection and preservation of the war record of our Union missioner of education. county soldiers, sallors and airmen at an early date. The first task is man from this state, died Sunday at that of collecting as fully as possible his home in Asheville of heart fallure. all data bearing on the people of our county in the World War. There-fore, the Historical Commission seeks to get in touch with every one possessing any data on the war and it urges co-operation upon every citizen. Mr. R. B. House is collector of war records for North Carolina. He says the following is a list of documents that are absolutely essential to the the federal government in asking the They heads: Personal accounts of our soldiers and sallors; letters from soldiers and sailors; Diaries kept by soldiers and sailors; originals ocopies of pictures collected by any soldier or sailor; accounts of special deeds of mention by any soldier or sail, including citations, foreign or American; Photographs of individual soldiers and sailors, or of groups; Personal accounts of our home folks in the war; letters from home to boys in the camp; Diaries of home or community happenings; clippings from the home paper; service flags with

DR. BAILEY WILL ATTEMPT CULTIVATION OF TOBACCO

Roughedge Community is Interested in His Experiment - Praises Monroe Red Cross Workers.

Monroe, R. F. D. No. 4, March 1. Mr. Herbert Lather who has over confined to his bed for some time with pneumonia, and who for sev-eral days was not expected to live, is improving and will soon be able to sit up. This community, and the county in general, should ever be grateful for the work which the Chamber of Commerce and the Red Cross, under the efficient leadership of Prof. R. W. Allen, has been doing for the stricken families in the rural districts in securing nurses and ministering otherwise. There is no greater mark of these people have displayed.

Mr. Warren Lathan is at home from Rutherford College, having been called to the bedside of his brother, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia.

Roughedge is coming the front. The Junior order has a nice new hall. four of its valued members during the past year, Mr. John Wesley Starnes, who died February 13th, being the last one to pass away.

Roughedge farmers have organized co-operative mercantile company, which is incorporated for twenty-five thousand dollars. Mr. P. P. Ross is the general manager, and the comis doing a large business.

Dr. J. W. Bailey has purchased the G. W. Wallace place right in the heart of the village, and has moved to it. He is not only going to prac-tice medicine, but is preparing to show the people how to solve the boll weevil by introducing the culture of and sisters, hers being the second

Mr. J. S. Broom of our village was recently appointed a Notary Public, having died last Monday. It is rumored that the citizens of Ruffedge contemplate having our vil- when we are called upon to give up lage incorporated when the next legislature meets. Mr. J. E. Starnes is already a candidate for Mayor, and to be needed so much but-Mr. Adam Helms has his eye on the day we'll understand, and some day we'll know." Chief of Police job.

Your correspondent hopes the people of Monroe and Union county will to the sorrowing husband, children, not think the citizens of Buford town- and relatives. May they see the silship are in sympathy with the work ver lining in the coluds. The recent arrest of three moonshiners in this township at the residence, by Rev. E. C. Snywas the first for many months.

these moonshiners. Esq. J. C. Laney. one of the best citizens of the county has been accused of letting his dog ramble around the still. It is alleged the dog was found there by the officers, and the first citizen of Buford is having a trying time giving an acceptable explanation of the affair. It's all in fun, however.

An excellent article on influenza, written by one of The Journal's rural correspondents, was thrown into the waste basket yesterday because the writer thoughtlessly failed to sign his name. It is a rule in newspaper offices to never print a communication unless the identity of the author is known. The name, if requested, will be withheld from print, but the publishers, as a guarantee of good faith,

Mr. Adam Helms, who had a stroke con-was home two miles north of Monroe, is

LATEST HAPPENINGS News Events of the Day in the State and Nation.

The general assembly of the South-

Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn has announced that he will support Herbert Hoover for the Democratic nomina-

He was born in 1855, and served eight years in Congress. Close of the million dollar campaign of the North Carolina Presbyterians was reached last night and all pledges are paid. The money will be spent on the schools of the Synod. Twenty-one states have joined with supreme court to dismiss the case income under two general validity of the prohibition amendment.

Clyde Hoey, who was elected to Congress last fall to fill the unexpired term of Judge Webb, has announced he will not be a candidate for re-election. He wants to step aside and give Mecklenburg county a chance at some of the political honors.

The convention of the Republican party of North Carolina will open ia Greensboro tomorrow at noon. Be-cause of illness of Frank A. Linney, state chairman, the meeting will be called to order by A. A. Whitener of Hickory.

Work is to begin this year on the reclaiming of the Zuyder Zee, one of a history of the war garden; poetry, the world's greatest engineering projects, by which it is proposed to restore to Holland within 35 years what was once hers but was taken away by the storms of many centuries. When the work is finished, not only the original land will be restored but many thousands of acres which always have been beneath the sea will be ready for cultivation. The project will cost approximately one housed and twoty-five million ---

Death of Mrs. Zeb Chancy.

Mrs. Wilma Chaney, wife of Mr. Zeb Chaney, passed away last Friday morning, February 27th, at her home four miles east of Monroe, after a two-week illness of influenza and pneumonia.

She was a splendid Christian, having joined the Baptist church early in life. She has lived a true and noble life ever since. Nearly eight years ago she was happily married to Mr. Chaney and a happier pair is seldom seen. She was always cheerthe Christian spirit than that which ful and open hearted to every one. She was never too busy or too tired to make a friend or neighbor feel welcome at her home. Mr. Chaney has the sympathy of his entire host of friends in his b reavement. Mrs. Chancy was only about twenty-seven years old, and it and their council has a membership seems so sad to have to give up one of over one hundred. This order lost who was so young, especially as she who was so young, especially as she leaves three little children-two little girls, aged five and three and a tiny little boy, who at the time of his mother's death was only two days old. We can't understand why she should have been taken, when her little family needed her so much Besides her husband and little children, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Helms, and nine brothers and sisters survive. The brothers are Messrs. Boyce, Loyd, Hoyle, Roland and Claud Helms, and the sisters are Misses Ada Mae, Ida, Kate and Annie Helms. This is doubly hard on her parents and brothers, death in the family within a week, Mrs. Fred Chaney, another sister

> We find ourselves asking, why? our friends and relatives especially when they are so young and seem

We extend our deepest sympathy

Funeral services were held Friday der at two o'clock and the interment Quite an interesting story is going was at the Williams cemetery by the he rounds about the recent arrest of side of her sister, Mrs. Fred Chaney. -A Friend.

Sunday school at Benton's Cross noon at one thirty.

Mr. Morrow to Give Second Prizes in Census Contest In event no one makes the correct estimate of the populattion of Monroe or Union county, Mr. R. A. Morrow announces that he will give $10 prizes to the persons making the second nearest estimate for both the county and the town. The Journal's two $10 prizes go to the persons making the nearest estimates for the town and county. These prizes will not be awarded by Mr. Morrow if any one is so fortunate as to win the two $50 prizes he has previously of-