

THE MONROE JOURNAL

PUBLISHED TWICE EACH WEEK — TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

VOL. 26. No. 24.

MONROE, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1920.

$2.00 PER YEAR CASH

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Latest Happenings In and Around Monroe.

The front of the grocery department of the Co-Operative Mercantile Company was badly damaged yesterday when a large truck backed against it.

Dr. Gurney will preach the sermon before the graduating class of the Marshville high school on Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. R. J. McIlwaine will supply the Presbyterian pulpit here.

The following pupils in Mrs. R. W. Lemmond's kindergarten class made an honor roll average for the month of April: Sarah Horton, Ruth Laney, Percy Laney, Margaret Laney, and Margaret Love.

The Antioch school in Sandy Ridge township will close Thursday, May 6, with the following exercises: Address by Rev. O. L. Curry of Charlotte at 11 o'clock, dinner 12 o'clock, exercises by the children at 2 o'clock, and the play, "The Face at the Window," will be given in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A series of sermons on the general theme, "The Christian Life," will be preached by Dr. Gurney in the Presbyterian church at the Sunday evening five o'clock services. The first sermon will be on Sunday next. It is desired to make these discourses helpful to all, but especially to young Christians. Invite someone to come with you.

Married by Rev. E. S. Watson at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crook, on Sunday morning, April 25, Miss Annie Crook and Mr. J. B. Yarbrough, both of Buford township. Relatives of both were present. Mr. and Mrs. Yarbrough will make their home near Altan church and they have the good wishes of the entire community.

A new company, headed by Mr. J. H. Suttentfield, has acquired control of the Chero-Cola bottling plant here. Mr. J. W. Springfield, who has been manager of the plant for several years, will remain with the new company for the present. Mr. Suttentfield is an excellent business man, and he is quite an addition to the business life of the town.

An automobile is being used to furnish power for hoisting cement and stone at the Monroe Bank & Trust Company building, which is being erected by Mr. E. C. Ingram. The rear wheels of the car are jacked up a few inches from the ground and are closely joined to pulleys. The arrangement does very satisfactory work.

Miss Lura Heath, director of community service work, announces the following engagements for next week: Union school in Lanes Creek township, May 2; Carmel school in Monroe township, May 4; Unionville school in Goose Creek township, May 5. The work is proving an unqualified success and Miss Heath is delighted with the progress made. Two hundred and fifty people were present at the meeting held at Olive Branch.

Season tickets for the Redpath Chautauqua, which opens a seven-day program here to-morrow afternoon, are on sale at the following places: W. J. Rudge Co., Simpson's Drug Store, Union Drug Co., Crowell's Variety Store. Tickets for colored people may be had at the Peoples' Drug Co. Besides these places, tickets are being sold on the streets by Chautauqua boosters. Be sure to buy your ticket today and save money, as under the contract the price will increase tomorrow.

The contributions to the storm relief fund now total $4,384.73. A few canvassers have not made complete reports, and doubtless by the time all contributions are in the fund will amount to over $4500. The relief committee has appointed Messrs. Lum Clontz, W. H. Presley and A. A. Serec to pro rate the fund among the sufferers. These gentlemen are very familiar with conditions in Goose Creek township and will make a fair division of the contributions, which were so unselfishly given by Union County people.

Henry A. Haigler, of Goose Creek township, has instituted suit for twenty-five thousand dollars against Deputy Sheriff Clifford Fowler, Paul Griffith, and Messrs. George Martin, United States revenue officer, and W. L. Earnhardt, for alleged damages he sustained when he was shot near a still on December 7th, 1919. The officers were members of a raiding party. They deny shooting the man, but claim they found him lying near a still site. His clothes, they say, threw off an odor of beer mash. Haigler is under two indictments for selling liquor. It is said, The plaintiff is represented by Messrs. Sikes and Love, while the defendants have retained Messrs. Stack, Parker & Craig. The case will probably come up at the next term of court.

Mrs. D. F. Sapp of the New Bethel neighborhood of Lancaster county, S. C., died Tuesday evening of this week at eight o'clock, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis seven years ago. She had been unable to leave her chair for all this time, and was a patient sufferer, never complaining of her misfortune. She was 54 years old and was a member of New Bethel Methodist church. The funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Bledsoe, and the body was laid away at New Bethel church. Mrs. Sapp is survived by her husband and the following children: Claud N. Sapp of Columbia, S. C.; B. T. Sapp of Lancaster, S. C.; Allen Sapp of Wofford College; Mrs. Virgie

Clark of Haw River, N. C.; Mrs. V. T. Funderburk of Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. Earl Patterson of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Tom Woodin of Victoria, Va.; and Miss Ada Sapp.

Mr. J. D. Bundy will appear before the aldermen tonight to explain his reasons for resigning from the board. In his letter of resignation, other members say, he made the statement that Monroe possessed a "two-men" government. In order to clear up this charge, Mr. Bundy was requested to explain in detail his motive for resigning. He accepted the invitation; and, as stated above, he will be heard tonight.

Mr. R. B. Redwine has decided not to enter the race for the vacant seat on the Supreme court bench. In case Judge W. J. Adams, who is a candidate for the Supreme court judgeship, is nominated, Mr. Redwine may become an applicant for his seat on the Superior court bench. It is also understood that Mr. A. M. Stack will be a candidate for this seat in case Mr. Adams resigns. Politicians who are in a position to know say Judge Adams will be promoted to the Supreme court bench by the voters. This being true, Union county is pretty certain to secure a judgeship.

At a meeting of the school board last night Prof. R. W. Allen was re-elected superintendent of the graded schools for another year and Prof. S. G. Hawfield was re-elected principal, both at increased salaries. Mayor J. C. Sikes explained his school measure to the board at this meeting. If his plan is adopted and carried, entire control of the schools will be vested in the school trustees. The city aldermen will have no voice in the administration, but will continue to appoint members of the board when vacancies occur. The measure advocated by Mr. Sikes would also give the school board authority to spend a sum not exceeding $150,000 for a new high school building provided the people ratified the law at the polls.

In a letter from her sister, Mrs. Claude Kitchin, Mrs. John A. Wray learns that the distinguished Democratic leader, who was stricken with paralysis recently, is steadily improving. He has almost recovered the complete use of his stricken left side, and physicians believe he will ultimately regain most of his old-time vigor. Mr. Kitchin was eulogized on the floor of the house Tuesday by Representative Nick Longworth, a Republican, and the son-in-law of the late President Roosevelt. A speech by Representative Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, a part of which was directed at Mr. Longworth, occasioned the eulogy, extracts of which follow: "When I first read it and as I have since re-read this speech I have become more and more impressed with the seriousness of the loss we have suffered, Democrats and Republicans alike, by the removal from our midst of my distinguished friend from North Carolina, Mr. Kitchin, with whom I have had the honor to be paired since his sudden illness. No man upon that side has hit upon this harder than he. He is a two-listed fighter for the cause of his party, but the harder he hits the more we liked him and respected him, for he always played fair and fought fair. His rapier-like wit cut deep sometimes but he always observed the rules of the game. If he were here now to speak for his party, as we all upon this side devoutly hope he soon will be, he would not stoop as he never stooped to employ the methods of a swash-buckling demagogue."

NEGRO REPUBLICANS HELD CONVENTION ON WEDNESDAY

Having Been "Read" Out of the Party, They Organize to Take Independent Action.

Negro Republicans of Union county, who were "read" out of the party by Mr. J. J. Parker, the Republican nominee for Governor, along with other members of their race over the state, met in convention Wednesday night at the Morris street graded school and elected delegates to a similar state convention, which will be held in Raleigh. Rev. R. Allen, who organized his race during Red Cross and War-Savings Stamp drives, presided. J. L. Massey was elected secretary, and J. A. Sims, treasurer.

In a letter to The Journal, the leaders of the movement say: "The regular Republican party of the state has eliminated us from the party. The constitution of North Carolina guarantees us the right of suffrage. We feel, like our white brothers, that the ballot is our most defensive weapon, and a proper use of it is necessary for the good and safety of the state and nation. We concede the ruling of this country to the dominant race, but since we are forced to share in the bitterness, we think we ought not to be maligned because we want to taste some of the sweets."

The leaders also say they are going to vote for the best men, which may mean that they are going to line up for the Democratic nominees. One thing is certain, they are not going to vote for Mr. Parker.

"I see that the light-house where we used to picnic on the shore has been destroyed by a storm," Mr. Biggs observed, looking up at his paper.

"Well, I'm not surprised," Mrs. Biggs responded as she picked up her sewing. "I always said it would be. Really, I can't understand how the Government is of such poor judgment as to build light-houses in such exposed places as they do."

"Beware of entrance to a quarrel,"

"GARDNER IS TOO YOUNG," REITERATES MAJOR HEATH

Mr. Page Has Also Been Sufficiently Rewarded, He Declared in Speech at Waxhaw Last Night.

Waxhaw, April 30.—Major W. C. Heath, who is stumping the county for Cameron Morrison, spoke here last night at the Woodman Hall to a large and enthusiastic audience. Sixty-seven voters, by actual count, were present. This number represented nearly half of the voters at this precinct.

Mr. Morrison was strongly eulogized by Major Heath for the part he played in overthrowing negro rule in North Carolina.

"Mr. Morrison," he said, "is past 50 years of age. He has spent his life since maturity in service to the Democratic party without ever having been rewarded. He has made a special study of the science of government, and has had more to do with the framing of the Democratic platform than any living private citizen in the state. He is a profound student, not only of law, but of state and national government; and he is recognized as such by the leading men, not only of our party, but of the Republican party; and to the extent that it can be clearly seen that the nominees on the Republican ticket from Governor on down would much prefer to see either Gardner or Page nominated than Morrison."

Major Heath dealt courteously with Mr. Morrison's opponents, Messrs. Page and Gardner. "Mr. Page," he said, "has already been rewarded. During his fourteen years in Congress he drew the salary of $105,000, more than the combined capital of the Waxhaw Bank & Trust Co., the Bank of Wingate, and the two banks of Marshville."

Mr. Gardner was declared to be too young to hold the high office of Governor. "He was made Lieutenant-Governor at the age of 32," declared Mr. Heath, "and he is now only 36 years old. By reason of his youth he is not sufficiently trained in governmental affairs to fill the high position to which he aspires."

The following letter from Mr. A. M. Stack, which was addressed to the voters of Jackson township, was read by Major Heath:

"I regret that I cannot, for reasons of which you are aware, be with you this evening to speak a few words for Rep. Cameron Morrison."

"All three of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor are personal friends of mine, and I wish that they were running for different offices, so that I could vote for all of them. But it is a case in which I must make a choice from among friends, and for a number of reasons I have decided to support our neighboring candidate, Mr. Morrison. I have known him intimately for ten years, and there is not a finer gentleman in all my acquaintance."

"I have met him in a number of legal battles, and have always found him a fair and hard fighter and a most honorable foe."

"Morrison is a man who does not know what the word fear means—he has both physical and moral courage of the highest type. He would make a most superb leader of the Democratic hosts of North Carolina this year, and one whom every Democrat would be proud to follow. In my opinion, he deserves the nomination on the score of long and efficient services to the party, services for which he has never asked or received any reward."

"If any Democrat doubts that he has rendered our party great and valuable services, such a doubting Democrat should look at the attitude of North Carolina Republicans towards Morrison. The Republicans of our State, to a man, want to see him defeated for the nomination. They remember that he was largely responsible for their being driven from power in the nineties, and for keeping them out of power in our State since 1898. They also know what he would do for them on the stump in the coming fight. If the Democrats of our State do not recall his powerful services, our Republican friends certainly do."

"I wish to add one more word of encouragement to you in the fight you are making in our county, and it is this: This is a year when we are going to need able and valiant men to uphold the cause of our party. Politics, like most everything else, is in a chaotic condition, and we shall have need of bold, brave and brainy leaders to expound the true gospel of Democracy."

Tyndal School Closing.

Waxhaw, April 29.—The Tyndal school, taught by Mr. B. F. Howie and Miss Ora Lee Porter, closed April 27. No special program program was prepared but all spent a very pleasant day. Quite a number of the children recited pieces in the forenoon. At 12 o'clock a nice dinner was spread which was enjoyed by all present. The afternoon was taken up with games of different kinds.

Influenza has interfered with school work this year, but nevertheless Tyndal has had the most successful session of school in quite a number of years. The following were given prizes: Department, Maggie Helms; best general average, Ellie Keziah; best arithmetic, Ethel Gordon and Ethel King; best spellers, Kate McCorkle, Parks Alexander, John Hulsey, Ollie Eason, Fannie Ray Keziah, Velma Alexander, Hazel Gordon and Grace Hulsey.—Visitor.

It's not so much what a device of economy costs, but what it costs to be without it.

ARCHIBALD JOHNSON TELLS WHY HE IS FOR MORRISON

Well-Known Baptist Leader Is Convinced the Charlotte Man Is Best Fitted to Be Governor.

Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children, and one of the leading Baptists in the state, has come out for Morrison for Governor, giving his reasons in the following statement:

"Morrison knows the needs of the state as few men do. For a quarter of a century he has given intelligent study to public questions. He is a lawyer by profession, and a good one, but the study of the science of government has been uppermost in his mind from the time he attained his majority until now. He knows the people also and has spent a large part of his public life in going in and out before them, discussing the policies of his party."

"He has not accumulated a fortune because of the fact that he thinks more of men than he does of money. He has had a large law practice, but has spent his money on other people rather than upon himself. The man most capable of administering public affairs is not necessarily the man who has devoted himself to his own private fortunes and accumulated a great estate for himself; rather he is the man who, like Vance and Aycock, is so busy trying to better the educational, social and political conditions of his state that he has neither the time nor the inclination to make a fortune for himself."

"Morrison is a plain man of the people. He rose to his present position of influence in public affairs by his own unaided effort. He was not born with a silver spoon in his mouth but had a fierce struggle, even in his tender years, to keep the wolf from the door. He has not forgotten the pit whence he was dug. He knows every step of the rugged road over which he has traveled. His sympathy will always be with the man who toils for his daily bread."

"Morrison is honest, candid and fearless. He never straddled a public question in his life. Everybody knows where he stands. He is square. He has never learned the art of dissimulation. Whether an issue is popular or unpopular he takes his stand flat-footed upon it and stands there until he is convinced that he is wrong. He is a brave man, as his record in the past abundantly proves. He is not an extremist, as some of his opponents have alleged. He is a hard fighter, but never strikes below the belt. He is generous, warm hearted and magnanimous. His enemies are not those he has met in the open fields."

"He would not be a governor of a class, but all the citizenship of the state which he loves with passionate devotion."

"There are many other reasons that I might mention, but these are a few that constrain me to vote for Cameron Morrison."

UNION'S VOTE MAY BE SPLIT IN THREE WAYS

From Present Indications, None of the Presidential Candidates Will Receive a Majority.

From present indications, it appears that Union county's vote will be about evenly divided between the three aspirants for governor, Messrs. Page, Morrison and Gardner. In Monroe Page and Gardner are leading Mr. Morrison, but the Mecklenburg man is gaining new adherents every day, political observers admit.

Wingate is said to favor Mr. Page, but if the attendance at the Morrison rally there the other night, at which Major W. C. Heath spoke, can in any way be illustrative of Morrison sentiment, he has many supporters there. Waxhaw is said to be a Gardner stronghold, but at the Wilson's Old Store precinct it is believed Morrison will get ninety per cent of the votes.

The Marshville Home is waging an active fight for Page, but the other candidates have a following in the township seat. Two prominent and well-known citizens of that town are leading the fight for Morrison.

Vance township is said to be strong for Morrison, especially at Indian Trail. Page has a large following in Jackson township, and Esq. Henry McWhorter, the veteran politician, concedes his township to him. Morrison and Gardner are believed to be in the lead in Sandy Ridge township; while in Goose Creek and New Salem townships all three have adherents, but there is no way to determine who is in the lead. The strength of the various candidates in Buford and Lanes Creek townships cannot be determined.

GOVERNOR IN OLD SHOES

Louisiana's New Executive Greets Old Clothes Club at Tulane.

New Orleans, April 27.—"I have bought only one pair of shoes in three years," Governor-elect John M. Parker said to-day in an address to the Tulane University Old Clothes Club.

"The man who has the moral courage to wear old clothes these days is setting an example of independent manhood to the whole world," the Governor-elect declared.

Ready Recruit.

Recruit—"Shall I mark time with my foot, sir?"

Lieutenant (sarcastically)—"My dear fellow, did you ever hear of marking time with your hands?"

Recruit—"Yes sir; clocks do it."

"Eat to live—don't live to eat."

Death of Mr. Funderburk.

Following a long illness, Mr. N. A. Funderburk, a leading citizen of the county, died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Buford township. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Mecklenburg Baptist church and were conducted by Rev. J. A. Blyens, Rev. R. M. Haigler, and Rev. M. D. L. Preslar.

Surviving Mr. Funderburk are the following children: Mr. Vann Funderburk, of Monroe; Prof. Ray Funderburk, county superintendent of education; Dr. Kemp Funderburk, a dentist of Monroe; Mr. N. A. Funderburk, a student in the New York Medical College; Mrs. John Blakeney of Pageland, S. C.; Mrs. W. H. Gribble of Buford township; Mrs. J. B. Bass of Wingate; Mrs. Baxter Laney of Atlanta; Mrs. Ward Whitley of Raeford, and Miss Kate Funderburk, who lives at the Funderburk homestead. Mr. Funderburk was a son of the late Rev. N. A. Funderburk, a pioneer Baptist minister. Mr. D. A. Funderburk, of Lancaster county, S. C., is a full brother, and Dr. David Funderburk, of Tradesville, S. C., and Mr. A. Butler Funderburk, of Buford township, are half brothers of the deceased.

Mr. Funderburk's health failed about two years ago, but he did not become seriously ill until last July. At times since then his life had been despaired of, so his passing was not unexpected. He had been confined to his room for nearly nine months.

Born in Lancaster county, S. C., on Dec. 12, 1852, Mr. Funderburk was over 67 years of age at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Elmira Moser in 1872, and to them thirteen children were born. The eldest son, Mr. A. Lex Funderburk, died a few months ago from the combined effects of influenza and pneumonia.

Mr. Funderburk ranked among the best citizens of the county. He was a force in his community. His influence was always on the moral side of a question, and he was always honest in his views and in his dealings with his fellow citizens. In the home he was an inspiration and a guidance to his children, and the position which they have attained in life is a testimonial to his upright example and teachings.

FIVE PLANS FOR BONUS VIRTUALLY AGREED ON

These Include, Besides Cash Payment, Paid-Up Insurance and Loans —Fix Bonus at $1.25 a Day.

Washington, April 28.—Republican members of the house ways and means committee to-day virtually decided to include in their soldier relief legislation program a plan of paid up insurance, its value to increase annually by compounded interest, and on which loans could be obtained from any post-office.

With this addition, ex-service men might elect any one of the five following plans, included in the Republican program: A cash bonus of $1.25 a day for each day of service; aid in buying farm land to be reclaimed by the government; aid in buying city homes; aid in their education; or the insurance. To popularize the last four plans, the Republicans propose to allow $1.75 a day for each day of service, instead of the $1.25 cash bonus as the basis for computing farm and home aid, loans and the amounts of financial aid each man might receive in the form of educational training.

The insurance plan, as such, was said by committeemen to be a "misnomer" but they declared it was the "most attractive" of any of the five plans. The average period of service for World War veterans was four hundred days, they said, explaining that under the insurance plan the average veteran could receive a paid-up insurance policy of $1,857, payable to him in cash at the end of twenty years or immediately to his heirs in event of death.

The loan value of the insurance, denoted in the legislation as "adjusted service certificates," would not accrue until the end of the third year the plan had been in force, and at that time an ex-service man, with a record of four days service, would be entitled to a loan of $551. This would be the cash value of his "certificate" at that time at five per cent interest compounded annually.

Similarly, the veteran of a hundred days' service would be entitled to paid up, twenty year endowment insurance of $464, with a cash surrender or loan of $137 in three years; the two hundred day veteran to insurance of $928, with a loan value of $275; the three hundred day veteran to insurance of $1,392, with a loan value of $413, and the five hundred day veteran to insurance of $2,221 with a loan value of $639.

This plan, if adopted universally by the World War veterans would cost the government far more than the cash bonus of $1.25 a day, committeemen said. Estimating that three million, five hundred and ninety thousand ex-service persons will be affected by the bill, committeemen declared that the ultimate cost of the insurance plan, if adopted by all, would be approximately six billion dollars. The cash bonus, it was estimated, would cost one billion, eight hundred and seven million dollars if accepted by all.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express my appreciation of the kindness of my friends and neighbors during my recent bereavement, the death of my wife, My friends and neighbors did all for me that they could do and I am thankful for it.—Fred Williams.

LATEST HAPPENINGS

News Events of the Day in the State and Nation.

Another revolt is reported to have occurred in Mexico. American troops are being prepared to protect American property and lives on the border.

James Edward Williams, nine-year-old boy of Asheville died Tuesday as the result of injuries received when he was struck by a truck last Sunday.

More than three hundred bankers representing every state in the union attended the National Bankers Association which met in Pinehurst this week, closing today. R. S. Hawes of St. Louis is president of the organization.

A bumper peach crop for Georgia, estimated at from nine to ten thousand cars, was the forecast made by the Georgia Fruit Exchange in consultation with the railroad officials in regard to arrangements of getting the fruit to market.

Robert Needham, paroled three weeks ago after partially serving a sentence for burglary, scaled the walls of the Illinois State prison Tuesday and sneaked back into prison because he found himself unable to cope with the high cost of living.

Fred Shelton, negro, under death sentence for murder and three other prisoners of the Carversville, Ga., jail broke the locks from three sets of doors with a crow bar furnished by a trusty and escaped. The negro was sentenced to die to-day.

Ronald Admundson, who set out two years ago in an effort to reach the North Pole, is returning to Nome, Alaska, according to a radio message received from Anadyr, Siberia. Admundson arrived in Anadyr last week from his ship, the Maud, which is icebound in the far north.

The Rivers and Harbors bill was passed in the senate Tuesday after it had been amended so as to make the total $24,000,000 as against $12,000,000 in the House bill. The appropriation will be made in a lump sum rather than specific grants for the various projects.

The white barbers of Durham are on a strike. They are requesting an increase of sixty-eight to seventy per cent which they claim is reasonable. They state that they have not received an increase in wages in keeping with the increase made by their employers since owners made their raise in prices.

Surrounded by a notable gathering of visiting educational leaders, and facing 2,000 North Carolinians in Memorial hall Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase was inaugurated president of the University of North Carolina. Josephus Daniels, Governor T. W. Bickett, President Lowell of Harvard University, and scores of distinguished educators were present at the inaugural ceremonies.

Republican members of the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives, who are drawing up the adjusted compensation law for ex-service men advocated by the American Legion, have decided to include a plan of paid-up insurance in their legislation. If this is passed, ex-service men will have the option of either a cash bonus of $1.25 a day for length of service, government land, vocational training, or paid-up insurance.

The war graves commission of England has decided on absolute uniformity of headstones for the graves of all men and women who were killed or who died in the war. A plain design has been selected of Portland stone, recording the name, rank, regiment, symbol of religious faith and the inscription which Kipling chose—"Their name liveth forevermore"—with room at the foot of the stone for an inscription of 66 words, to be personally chosen by those nearest the dead.

ANOTHER TORNADO VISITS GOOSE CREEK TOWNSHIP

No Lives Lost, But Several Dwelling Houses Damaged, and Much Timber Blown Down.

Indian Trail, R. F. D. 1, April 29.—Goose Creek township was swept by another destructive tornado Tuesday evening, though no lives were lost. The property damage, however, was large. A number of buildings were damaged on the farms of Messrs. R. I. Duncan, Joe Watkins, I. R. Duncan and F. D. Helms. The storm, which did not follow the path of the one that visited the township two weeks ago, swept northward on to Stanley county. Timber was greatly damaged. It is estimated that Mr. I. R. Duncan has forty thousand feet of timber lying on the ground as a result of the storm. Others lost timber. So far as could be learned, no one suffered physical injury.

Mr. Mike Helms has returned to his home after spending some time at Black Mountain.

Mrs. J. P. Parker has returned to her home at Inman, S. C., after spending several weeks with relatives in this community. She was accompanied by her two little sisters, Misses Mabel and Dixie Duncan.

Miss Annie Duncan has returned home after spending a few days with Miss Maude Stallings at Stallings.