WIFE OF FRENCH PRESIDENT REFUSES THE COSTLY HAT

Was Presented to Mme. Deschanel by the American Millinery Jobbers

Association and Cost $5000-Says America Took Advantage of Paris Ducing War,

A dispatch from New Yorks says that President Deschanel of France refused to permit Mme. Deschanel to St forgetting to permit Mme. accept the $5,000 hat offered her by 3.000 American milliners for her in dorsement of the "four seasons for milliners."

This was announced at the convention of the Millinery Johbers Association, when a letter was read from Ambassador Jusserand, declining the American creation made from mate- Swift is the coming of the world's what am dat? during war. Americans dangerously resourceful. 5. Paris Milliners object to acceept-sive hat as $5,000 . Big a novely as Eiffel tower. 5. Paris milliners object to acceptance of hat. 6. Such gift is like carrying coals to Newcastle.

7. South American trade stolen from Paris by New York. American prohibition will help

Paris regain South American trade. 9. America should not give away what it will not buy-paradise.

10. American millivers should be content to buy the dictates of Paris. 11. American buyers already are dicatorial toward Paris creators. They want what they term "American style." This must stop.
